BULL DECIDES TO SIGHTSEE AT EXPO '67

An amateur photographer steps nimbly to avoid an onrushing Brahma bull which got loose this morning on the grounds of Montreal's Expo '67 which has its official opening during the day. The South Dakota bull didn't like its quarters in the Man the Provider theme pavilion. It was finally roped in front of the West German pavilion. (See also story and picture on page 22.) U.S. Fails To Overtake Enemy Hill

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and artillery pounded a stubborn North Vietnamese force holding a hill in the northwest corner of South Vietnam today after 37 Marines were killed and 84 wounded in an unsuccessful, three-day attempt to take the hill.

In the air war against North Vietnam, the U.S. command announced four American planes were shot down in yesterday's raids against the Hanoi and Haiphong areas.

This raised announced losses this week to 10 U.S. planes in three days of intentified raids on the North Vietnamese heartland. The total losses annonnced for the air war against North Vietnam are now 520.

The U.S. command said one pilot show down yesterday was rescued by helicopter while four others were missing.

Hanoi Radio had claimed 11 American planes were downed yesterday.

Although spokesmen in Saigon said the Marines had "closed out" their attempt to take Hill 861 three miles northwest of Khe Sanh, Associated Press photographer Richard Merron reported from Khe Sanh that bombs and artillery were raining on the Communists while Marine officers made plans for another assault.

Merron also reported 37 Marines killed and 84 wounded, while headquarters in Saigon said 22 Leathernecks were killed and 43 wounded.

In other ground action, a company from the U.S. 4th Infantry Division ran into an enemy platoon late yesterday and reported killing 15 in two hours of fighting in the central highlands

Matter Of Fired Negro Bridge Workers Will Go To Full Board

By WAT TAKESHITA

A hearing for Negro painters fired by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway Dsitrict broke up in disorder today after almost an hour of wrangling over procedure.

E. J. Guidotti of Sonoma County, chairman of the district's employment and conciliation committee, finally threw up his hands and tossed the entire matter back to the full board of directors, which will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the toll plaza.

Today's disturbance erupted the moment Chairman Guidotti laid down ground rules for the hearing, excluding any discussion of racial discrimination.

"Racial discrimination is the main issue," declared Francis J. McTernan, attorney for the painters. "Everybody here knows that's the issue, from the chairman on down."

Clifton R. Jeffers, representing the fired painters on behalf of the San Francisco branch of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, also objected vigorously. He charged the bridge district with "lily white" employment practices.

Negro painters fired last month are Jimmie Lee Wilkins of Oakland and James Haugabook of San Mateo, who figured in disputes with the bridge directors over alleged discrimination in 1965 and 1966. Also dismissed was Paul Powell, shop steward for Local 4 of the Painters Union.

Chairman Guidotti, repeatedly rapping his gavel for order, insisted: "Competency of the men will be the only matter at issue."

He also set a time limit of two hours for the hearing and imposed a ban on television cameras, both of which were opposed by several other directors. The time limit was finally lifted, but before the TV question could be resolved, the meeting broke up.

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Marin, a bridge director who sat in to observe the committee hearing, urged that all evidence be heard. "If there's an allegation of discrimination, I'd like to know," he said.

Director George H. Ludy, also of Marin, said he too would "like to hear all the evidence."

Edwin M. Fraser agreed, and also urged that television cameras be allowed to operate.

Chairman Guidotti said he was thoroughly confused. "Maybe we should let the entire board of directors decide," he suggested. On motion of William D. Hadeler, it was referred to the full board. Christopher D. McKeon of San Francisco was the lone dissenter.

Senators Asked To Censure Dodd On Campaign Spending

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate Ethics Committee unanimously recommended today that Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., be censured for turning campaign contributions to his own use.

Chairman John C. Stennis filed the censure resolution with the Senate as it convened at noon, along with the committee's report on its 14-month investigation of the 59-year-old senator.

The committee resolution said that Dodd "deserves the censure of the Senate; and he is so censured for his conduct, which is contrary to accepted morals, derogates from the public trust expected of a senator and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute."

It was the first time that the Senate had been asked to censure one of its members since the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy was punished in 1954.

The white-haired Dodd entered the chamber shortly after Stennis began speaking, chatted briefly with Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., then took his seat and listened.

The ethics panel also recommended that certain phases of its inquiry be referred to the Justice Department and the Internal Revenue Service for "possible law violations."

In addition to censuring Dodd for pocketing campaign funds, the committee rebuked him for multiple-billing for travel.

Dodd also was accused during the 14-month committee investigation of carrying out assignments for Chicago public relations man Julius Klein, and of accepting the loan of a car from a government contractor.

"I still maintain I have done nothing wrong," Dodd told newsmen. "Nothing has changed my mind, including the (censure) report to the senate a few minutes ago."

Asked if he would run for reelection in 1970, Dodd said: "I certainly will."

He was asked if the censure was too harsh a punishment. "I don't know how it could be any harsher."

Dodd said he would not recruit supporters to defeat the censure resolution. "I'll make my statement on the floor and that's about it.

"I'm not the first to go through this and I'm not the last. But I'm not self-pitying."

The committee found that over four years Dodd has diverted $116,083 of political contributions to his personal use. It said Dodd had authorized the payment of at least $45,233 more for purposes which are neither clearly personal nor political." It listed the total Dodd had raised from 1961 through 1965 at $450,273.

The action against Dodd came as Adam Clayton Powell's lawyers went to court in an effort to have the Harlem Democrat restored to the seat from which the House ousted him March 1. Powell has decided to concentrate on legal action, rather than the special election he won in New York, so that he might regain his 22 years of seniority.

Russians Show Up Off Oregon

FLORENCE, Ore. (UPI)—Russian fishing vessels were reported off the Oregon coast in large numbers again today.

Editor C. D. Holman Jr. of the weekly Siuslaw News said he counted more than 90 vessels of various types in an area of about 70 square miles in a flight off the coast yesterday.

He said the nearest were about 17 miles offshore a few miles north of here.

Since the first heavy number of Russian vessels were reported last year off the coast, the United States has extended its offshore limits from 3 to 12 miles.

That Rainy Stuff Isn't Lying Doggo

Enough disturbance is being caused aloft to send rain and more rain Marin County way when the calendar says the skies should be clear and the weather warm.

The county was drenched with overnight and morning showers and more are expected through tomorrow by the Weather Bureau.

The rest of the state is in the same watery boat with the rain expected to spread southward tonight and more snowfalls in the mountains for the ski buffs.

By noon today, rain in San Rafael measured .15 of an inch while .23 had fallen in Bolinas by 8 a.m.

Other 8 a.m. readings were: Tamalpais Valley and San Anselmo .15; Santa Venetia and Sausalito .13; Larkspur .12; Terra Linda .10; Mill Valley .08; Novato .05; and Hamilton Air Force Base .03.

Reagan's Office Being Carpeted

The carpet cost $25,280 under the low bid submitted by Breuner's, a Sacramento furniture company, Lyn Nofziger, Reagan's press secretary, said.

The legislature appropriated $21,000 for the carpeting in May of 1966. The carpet had to be installed by this May or the appropriation would have expired.

Vietnamese Takes U.S. For $800,000

Senate Told Of Padding, Kickbacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Testimony at a Senate hearing today indicated a Vietnamese importer padded his expense account to the tune of $800,000 to cover kickbacks for worthless goods bought with U.S. government money.

The testimony came from Lavern J. Duffy, assistant counsel of the Senate permanent subcommittee on investigations.

Duffy gave the subcommittee what he called a phony expense account of Dinh Xuan Thao which listed expenses to sell a battery additive made from epsom salts.

EXPENSE LIST

Expenses listed included $163,000 for advertising in Vietnamese also another $163,000 for a one-floor apartment in Saigon, $54,000 for repairs at that apartment, $20,000 for a small English Ford and $54,000 for advertising in English-language newspapers.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on alleged fraud and dishonesty in the commodity import program in Vietnam, financed by the U.S. Agency for International Development.

All the expenses he testified to, Duffy said, were for a three-month period to promote the sale of a solution developed by Thomas Edison Higgins of Treasure Island, Fla., which the National Bureau of Standards describes as "without merit."

AID FUNDS

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the subcommittee, remarked that he could get elected to the Senate two times for the amount of money supposedly spent on advertising.

Higgins received $356,000 under the AID import program for his products, according to an audit of his books made by Thomas E. Nunnally, subcommittee accountant.

Nunnally testified that Higgins' books show he paid Thao $140,000 of that money and owes him still more under what McClellan calls their "kickback" arrangement.

NOT ON STAND

Higgins is unable to testify since he was admitted to a psychiatric institute in Baltimore.

The subcommittee took testimony yesterday that the Vietnamese importer got $140,000 as his share of $250,000 in AID money to finance the importing of the battery substance.

McClellan calls this a kickback, and a high one.

Yet the $250,000 was paid to Higgins, who said he sent $125,000 to a Swiss bank upon instructions of the Vietnamese importer, Doanh Tin Duoc, for the personal account of Dinh Xuan Thao, plus another $15,000 to a Tokyo firm.

Higgins, in an affidavit submitted to the subcommittee, said his product was not worthless. He said he developed it several years ago but was unable to sell it in the United States because large battery manufacturers were "fearful" it would "decrease their sales."

Independents Deny Gas Price Fixing

The president of Marin Independent Service Station Association flatly denied yesterday that the group conspired to fix prices last fall in violation of antitrust laws.

Gregory E. McConnell, a Phillips 66 dealer in Fairfax, said higher prices spread in Marin on two occasions because of an assortment of economic pressures.

The association was indicted yesterday by a federal grand jury in San Francisco, which alleged the group began a program to eliminate trading stamps and harassed stations which continued to use them.

This action constituted price-fixing, a government spokesman said, because more than 70 per cent of the county's service stations are association members. He said Marin gas prices rose uniformly by two cents a gallon.

costing customers and additional $1 million.

McConnell said, however, that a one-cent hike first spread in Marin after bout 20 dealers added a penny to recover elimination of the state-imposed tax for flood disaster relief.

Soon, he said, oil companies began raising rates a half-cent, and San Francisco dealers, who also had recovered the tax loss, added another cent. A few Marin dealers followed, he said, and others soon matched the extra cent.

He claimed the increases were "the first in Marin in 15 years."

McConnell admitted the association voted to eliminate stamps, but denied it was geared to a price hike. The association felt the stamps served only as income protection and that customers did not want them anyway, he said.

He said business security was the motive when several association dealers who had dropped stamps harassed the proprietor of a new Shell station in San Anselmo who had introduced them. McConnell said the harassment consisted of tying up the station by ordering small amounts of gasoline and paying with large bills.

The indictment charged the elimination of large price signs by association members also aided in fixing prices. McConnell said many dealers removed their signs when the initial increases went into effect, and did not bother to replace them.

"Price signs only breed gas wars anyway," he said.

Indicted separately were three other northern California service station associations: the California Shell Dealers Association and its president, John A. Mullins, San Leandro; the Southern Almeda County Retail Petroleum Dealers Association and its president and vice president, Joseph Chandler and John Macchitelli, both of Fremont, and the Santa Clara County Shell Dealers Association and its president, Earl C. Schweizer.

The charges carry maximum penalties of a year in prison and a $50,000 fine for individuals, and a $50,000 fine for the associations.

The case is to come up May 7 before U.S. District Court Judge Oliver D. Carter in San Francisco.

12-Year-Old Being Treated For 'A Trip'

A 12-year-old boy was at Napa State Hospital today after having wild hallucinations of motorcycle invaders and blood in what was believed to be an LSD trip in his Tiburon home.

His older brother and two other youths, believed to be runaways from Job Corps in Ventura County, were taken to Marin Juvenile Hall for lack of parental control. There was no indication they had taken drugs, sheriff's officers said.

Deputy John Goff of the Tiburon sheriff's office reported an ambulance was called to the home of Calvin Ireys at 3700 Paradise Drive, Tiburon, about 4:15 a.m. today.

Goff said he arrived minutes later to find the 12-year-old undergoing violent hallucinations. The boy told him the house had "been invaded by approximately 25 men on motorcycles," he said.

Goff said the boy declared the group planned to burgle the house, and that they severely beat Irey in the back yard, and he was bleading profusely about the face.

The officer said he went with the youth to the back yard, found no evidence of any beating or blood, but the boy began shouting, "There they are! There they are!"

Goff said he then took a closer look with his flashlight at the youth, and saw that his eyes were much dilated.

He said Irey left about Tuesday for Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Irey is believed to be in Switzerland.

Deputy Goff found the 12-year-

Housewife Price

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — The North Carolina House of Representatives was asked yesterday to lay down guidelines for computing the monetary value of a housewife.

Rep. Thomas Bunn said the law allows the court to decide a man's worth by figuring his salary and life expectancy. But, he said, there is no lawful way to determine the worth of a wife.

Under a bill introduced by Bunn, a wife's value would be computed by considering the current wage for the various services she performs, such as baby sitting, house cleaning, cooking and ironing.

A U.N. Mandate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Fifty of the 122 United Nations members called yesterday for the U.N. Security Council to use military force if necessary to end South Africa's control of South-West Africa.

The U.N. General Assembly voted last October to terminate South Africa's League of Nations mandate over the former German colony but left it to the current special session to consider ways of bringing this about.

The resolution was introduced by 49 African and Asian nations plus Yugoslavia.

Rocket Tested

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army reports that it has successfully flight-tested a "hybrid" rocket at Redstone Arsenal, Ala.

The rocket gets tis name from its second-stage motor which combines solid fuel with a liquid oxidizer. The oxidizer flow can be turned off, thus determining the range of the rocket. Conventional solid fuel motors keep on burning until the fuel is used up.

The Army said yesterday the hybrid holds promise for use in future missiles and space projects.

Svetlana Stalin Wants Freedom To Fall In Love With The U.S

NEW YORK (UIP) —Seeking the freedom denied her in the Soviet Union, Josef Stalin's only daughter will spend the coming months in seclusion, working on her book and, perhaps, falling in love with the United States.

Svetlana Alliluyeva, asked if she would seek American citizenship, replied:

"Well, I think that before the marriage it should be love. So if I will love this country and this country will love me, then the marriage will be settled. But I cannot say now."

DENIES RUMORS

Stalin's comely, 42-year-old daughter who defected from the Soviet Union appeared yesterday at a nationally televised news conference. In answer to questions, she:

Accused high Russian Communists still in power of being equally as guilty of "horrible things" as her late father.

Denied rumors Stalin had been assassinated, saying it was "evident he was sick and his death was the natural result of illness."

Disclosed that she had her autobiographical book smuggled out of the Soviet Union through India after the conviction of two Russian writers on charges of "high treason."

Discounted the possibility of reprisals on her children, both of whom she left behind in Moscow, saying, "I don't think something bad might happen with them there, because they don't deserve it."

RELIGIOUS INTEREST

The widow said she had a growing interest in religion and revealed that she had been baptized in the Russian Orthodox faith in 1962.

She described herself as a non-political person, but left no doubt that she had left her homeland because of repressions and restrictions on her freedom, particularly as a writer.

She said a writer "needs freedom to express what he likes and that person should be sure that his books will be published."

DOGMAS CHANGE

Asked to specify what dogmas of Communism had lost their significance for her, Mrs. Alliluyeva responded: "I believe that in modern world, in 20th Century to which we belong, in the century of atom bomb and space flights, the idea of class revolution which can bring people to progress has lost its significance."

She said another factor in her decision to leave the Soviet Union was the treatment accorded her and her intended husband. Their request to be married was denied by "the party and the government."

Asked about the future in Russia, she said, "Perhaps those students who are now 18, 19, 20 years old in Russia, when they will become grown up and when and if they will become social leaders in the country, they will bring something more modern and more democratic. I hope so."

Jury Convicts Rasnick On Murder Plot

OAKLAND (AP) After 10 and one-half hours of deliberation, jurors convicted an AFL-CIO Painters Union official yesterday of plotting the shotgun assassination last May of Lloyd Green, who headed the union's local at nearby Hayward.

Convicted was Ben Rasnick, 44, an international representative for the union. The same jury will meet next Wednesday to decide his penalty and he could be sentenced to death or life in prison.

Tears formed in Rasnick's eyes as the verdict was read and his wife, Mary, sobbed openly at the rear of the courtroom.

Rasnick also faces a retrial in San Francisco in the similar shotgun killing of Dow Wilson, the union's San Francisco local leader. The first trial in that case ended with jurors deadlocked.

A witness against Rasnick was Norman Call, a Sacramento painting contractor, who has admitted driving the getaway car in both slayings. He testified Rasnick ordered the slayings.

Charles Robert Darwin, whose theories on evolution and the origin of species have clashed for four decades with the fundamentalist Bible theories, once studied in England for the clergy.

GOP War Doves Defend Protests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland's mission home — defended by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey — came under Republican attack today as a move to silence Vietnam war critics.

Humphrey told a news conference last night that no one wants to muzzle "responsible" criticism of Johnson administration policies. He said Westmoreland had given an "excellent assessment" of the Vietnam situation in a speech at an Associated Press meeting in New York Monday.

When the general speaks to Congress tomorrow, Humphrey predicted, he will be "well received" and will be "highly informative and helpful to the American people."

While they did not go as far as Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., who said the administration was using "political blackmail" to silence its critics, Sens. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., and Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., protested that the patriotism of those who differ on policy is being questioned.

Kennedy, Udall Plan Boat Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, two enthusiastic outdoor types, are planning to take some of their children boating on the upper reaches of the Hudson River in May.

According to aides, the two families plan to camp out during the weekend of May 6 in upstate New York where the Hudson, the most polluted river in the nation, is relatively clean.

'Want To See Killing Stopped,' Cries LBJ

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson, target of some of the harshest criticism yet by opponents of his Vietnam policy, says that he wants "more than any human being in the world to see the killing stopped."

"I want to negotiate. I want a political settlement. . . . But I can't negotiate with myself," the Chief Executive declared in impromptu remarks following a brief speech before an audience of scientists last night.

"Maybe somewhere, some how, some day, someone will sit down and want to talk instead of kill," he said, the emotion behind his words plainly marked on his face. "If they do, I'll be the first one at the table."

Johnson made no mention of one accusation that has been leveled at him and his administration, that of attempting to "stifle dissent."

Johnson's speech to the American Physical Society banquet was his first comment, however indirect, on the bitter debate that has wracked the Senate since the escalation of the air war over Vietnam this week.

He was greeted with applause as he walked to the podium, but just before he began to speak, Dr. Howard Weisberg, a 27-year-old physicist from the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory at Berkeley, Calif., jumped to his feet and held up a homemade placard with just one word on it: "Vietnam." Weisberg was shouted down.

The President then plowed through his prepared address, which praised scientists for helping bring about a better world. But Vietnam plainly was much on his mind and he began to speak about the war:

"Every day, good people, wise people, say to me, why can't we have a political settlement? Why can't we understand our fellow human beings? Why can't we negotiate? Why do men have to die?

His voice rising with emotion, the President said: "I want more than any human being in the world to see the killing stopped."

James Bond To Continue

LONDON (AP) — The man who will keep James Bond alive in print says his Agent 007 will be less keen on gambling and gimmicky cars but he won't lose interest in girls, guns and saving civilization.

Kingsley Amis, 45, English novelist, has been assigned to pick up where the late Ian Fleming left off. The job was given to Amis by Glidrose Productions, which owns the copyright on Bond.

Amis, who wrote the comic best-seller "Lucky Jim," said his first of the new Bond adventures will come out next year.

Foundation Needs Only $2,000 More

The College of Marin Foundation announced Tuesday that it is within $2,000 of its $17,000 goal in the current campaign to raise money for student loans and scholarships.

Latest gift to the fund was two $200 scholarships from the local chapter of Chi Omega Alumnae Association. This is the second year such scholarships have been contributed by the Marin chapter of the national sorority. They are to assist College of Marin women students planning to go on to a four-year college in the fall.

Suspicion Of Opium Cleared By Analysis

What sheriff's officers thought was opium was not.

Officers today said a laboratory analysis showed a substance found by police in an arrested man's home was not a drug.

However, the man, Ernest James Newman, 31, and his common-law wife, Jean Lee MacGowan, 27, were to enter plea today in Marin Municipal Court on charges of possession of opium, marijuana, and two opium pipes.

Deputy Dist. Atty. John Ralph Thomas said the opium counts may be dropped when the laboratory report is verified.

Newman and Miss MacGowan were arrested at 2900 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard on a complaint by their landlord, Arthur R. Bell, that Newman threatened him with an ax.

Officers said they found over one and one-half pounds of marijuana in the residence, and a balled substance they thought was opium under a kitchen sink.

Newman was also charged with threatening his landlord with the ax.

IN FATAL CRASH — Col. James P. Lyle, killed Tuesday at the controls of an Air Force radar picket plane which crashed off the Massachusetts coast, killing 15, once served at Hamilton Air Force Base for two years. He was assigned to Hamilton in March, 1959, as assistant deputy for personnel, Western Air Force. He later became deputy for personnel of the 28th Air Division before being transferred to a command at McClellan Air Force Base in July, 1961.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Night Stroller Resents Police

Law abiding Charles used to take a restful stroll just before bedtime since he sat at his desk all day. But his late walking habits looked suspicious. The police often stopped and questioned him. They sometimes "frisked" him and took him down to headquarters.

Charles found the first such episodes amusing but the last one was a nuisance and an embarrassment.

The law has established the right of the police to stop and ask identification. Usually, such requests are brief, occasional, and courteous.

The police have limited powers to make a search. The constitution protects the person and his property, including his car, from "unreasonable searches and seizures." The police cannot make any search without a search warrant or what the courts call "probable cause."

Probable cause is more than just an officer's good faith suspicion that a person might have illegal items. A court will not admit evidence found during an "unreasonable" search.

When a judge issues a search warrant, the officer must swear that there are reasons for making the search. These reasons must satisfy the judge.

Merely stopping a person is not an arrest. The police officer must say so when he makes an arrest. He must have good reasons to believe that the person committed a crime.

After an arrest, the law permits a reasonable search. Even so, the accused has several constitutional protections. He has the right to be advised by a lawyer before he makes a confession.

The officers must warn him that his answers to their questions may incriminate him.

The accused can make one phone call, usually to his family or attorney. The Constitution says a person has the right to reasonable bail and to be freed until his trial.

Bail is not designed to punish; its sole purpose is to insure a person's appearance at his trial. In minor traffic cases, bail may be forfeited and become the penalty for the offense. But in more serious offenses, the bail is returned or "exonerated" when the person appears for his trial.

Musical Cruelty

MANCHESTER, England (UPI)—George Mackenzie liked chamber music on the radio. Mrs. Mackenzie liked rock and roll. The dispute got them into the divorce court where each charged the other with cruelty. The judge, apparently a chamber music man himself, granted Mackenzie the decree.

old's brother and two Job Corps youth asleep in the home.

However, Undersheriff Sidney Stinson said the boy obviously was under the influence of some drug, probably LSD.

At Marin General Hospital, the boy's hallucinations continued, according to Goff. He claimed he saw birds flying around the hospital's emergency room, that he was "being spied on from the corners of the room," and that big computers were "looking at him."

Officers did not know who called the ambulance.

3rd Trial Ends On Death Row

A San Diego man sentenced to death three times in three trials for the same murder is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber July 11.

The execution of Edward L. Arguello, 57, brings to eight the number of Death Row inmates scheduled to die in the chamber in the next three months.

He entered San Quentin in 1963 for the murder of a 82-year-old woman with a brick, a butcher knife and a hammer two years earlier. Since then he has had two new trials.

His July 11 date means there are two executions scheduled for the one week. On July 13, double killer William Albert Taul has his appointment with death at San Quentin.

Fugitive's Pension Remains In Limbo

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Third District Court of Appeal refused today to rule on the claim by a former state official — now a fugitive in Mexico — to recover seven years' state pension.

But the court added, "without deciding the matter," that it believes former State Board of Equalization chief William G. Bonelli has little grounds for the suit.

The appeal court declined jurisdiction, saying that the suit should be taken up in a superior court first.

John H. Lynch of 603 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, told deputies someone cut a bathroom screen to enter his home and steal four half dollars.

Collector Calls His Cannons 'Ornaments'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I just collect cannons as ornaments," William E. Thoresen III declared yesterday while being arraigned. "Every lawn ought to have one."

Thoresen, wearing a dark pin striped suit on his 6 foot 2 frame, had surrendered to a U. S. marshal and was charged in Federal District Court with illegal possession of a fully automatic weapon.

He is also wanted in New York on a charge that he illegally bought a machine gun.

Those weapons are just part of the arsenal collected by federal agents, who started with a raid last Friday on Thoresen's mansion in the swanky Pacific Heights district.

They reported finding 97,000 pounds of weapons and ammunition there, including a 37 millimeter cannon of 1936 vintage.

Another 45,000 pounds was picked up at shipping yards in the San Francisco East Bay Area, consigned to Thoresen from eastern armanents firms.

Thoresen's wife, Louise, was arrested during the Friday raid and faces charges in San Francisco Superior Court that she stored arms illegally. She is free in $20,000 bail.

J. W. (Jake) Ehrlich, Thoresen's attorney, contended that: "This man is being penalized for his business ideas. He wanted to open a business to provide guns and munitions as lawn ornaments."

"You could call him a gun freak, a good American citizen, a strange man," Ehrlich also said. "I knew he liked guns but I'll be damned if he ever talked to me about cannons."

Thoresen, who was accompanied by his wife and their 5-year-old son, Michael, told reporters: "I also collect rocks and stamps."

Youth, 15, Cited In Church Theft

A 15-year-old Tamalpais Valley youth has been cited to the juvenile probation office for the theft on April 16 of about $600 cash and checks from collections at Peace Lutheran Church on Tennessee Valley Road in Tamalpais Valley.

Sheriff's Juvenile Deputy Charles L. Prandi said the boy admitted taking the loot from the pulpit while helping arrange chairs at the church. He said $450 in checks and $60 cash were recovered, but the boy spent or gave away $9?.

Reagan Ires Callers; Brush-off Charged

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Representatives of an East Los Angeles Mexican-American organization are angry with Gov. Ronald Reagan because they say the governor ducked out on a long-standing appointment with them.

The group of about 30 representatives of the East Los Angeles City Terrace Town Meeting leveled the charge yesterday as they stormed out of the governor's office.

They said they made the appointment three weeks ago through Bill Orozco, a special representative in the governor's Los Angeles office. The group said they wanted to discuss education problems with Reagan.

Kenneth Hall, special assistant to the governor, told the group there had been a "misunderstanding" and that the appointment had not been made. He said the governor was in a cabinet meeting and would not be able to meet with the group.

"All I can do is apologize and say we are sorry for the lack of communication" Hall said. He said Reagan's inability to meet with the group was "not because of a lack of interest in the community."

Joe Baglieri, chairman of the group, told newsmen:

"We drove all night to get here to do this and he hasn't the courtesy to come out here to talk to us."

He said the organization held a dance to raise $707 for the trip.

Mrs. Miguel Deanda, a member of the group, said they had invited the governor to attend two Mexican-American functions in East Los Angeles and had received identically worded telegrams saying he "regretted" he would be unable to attend.

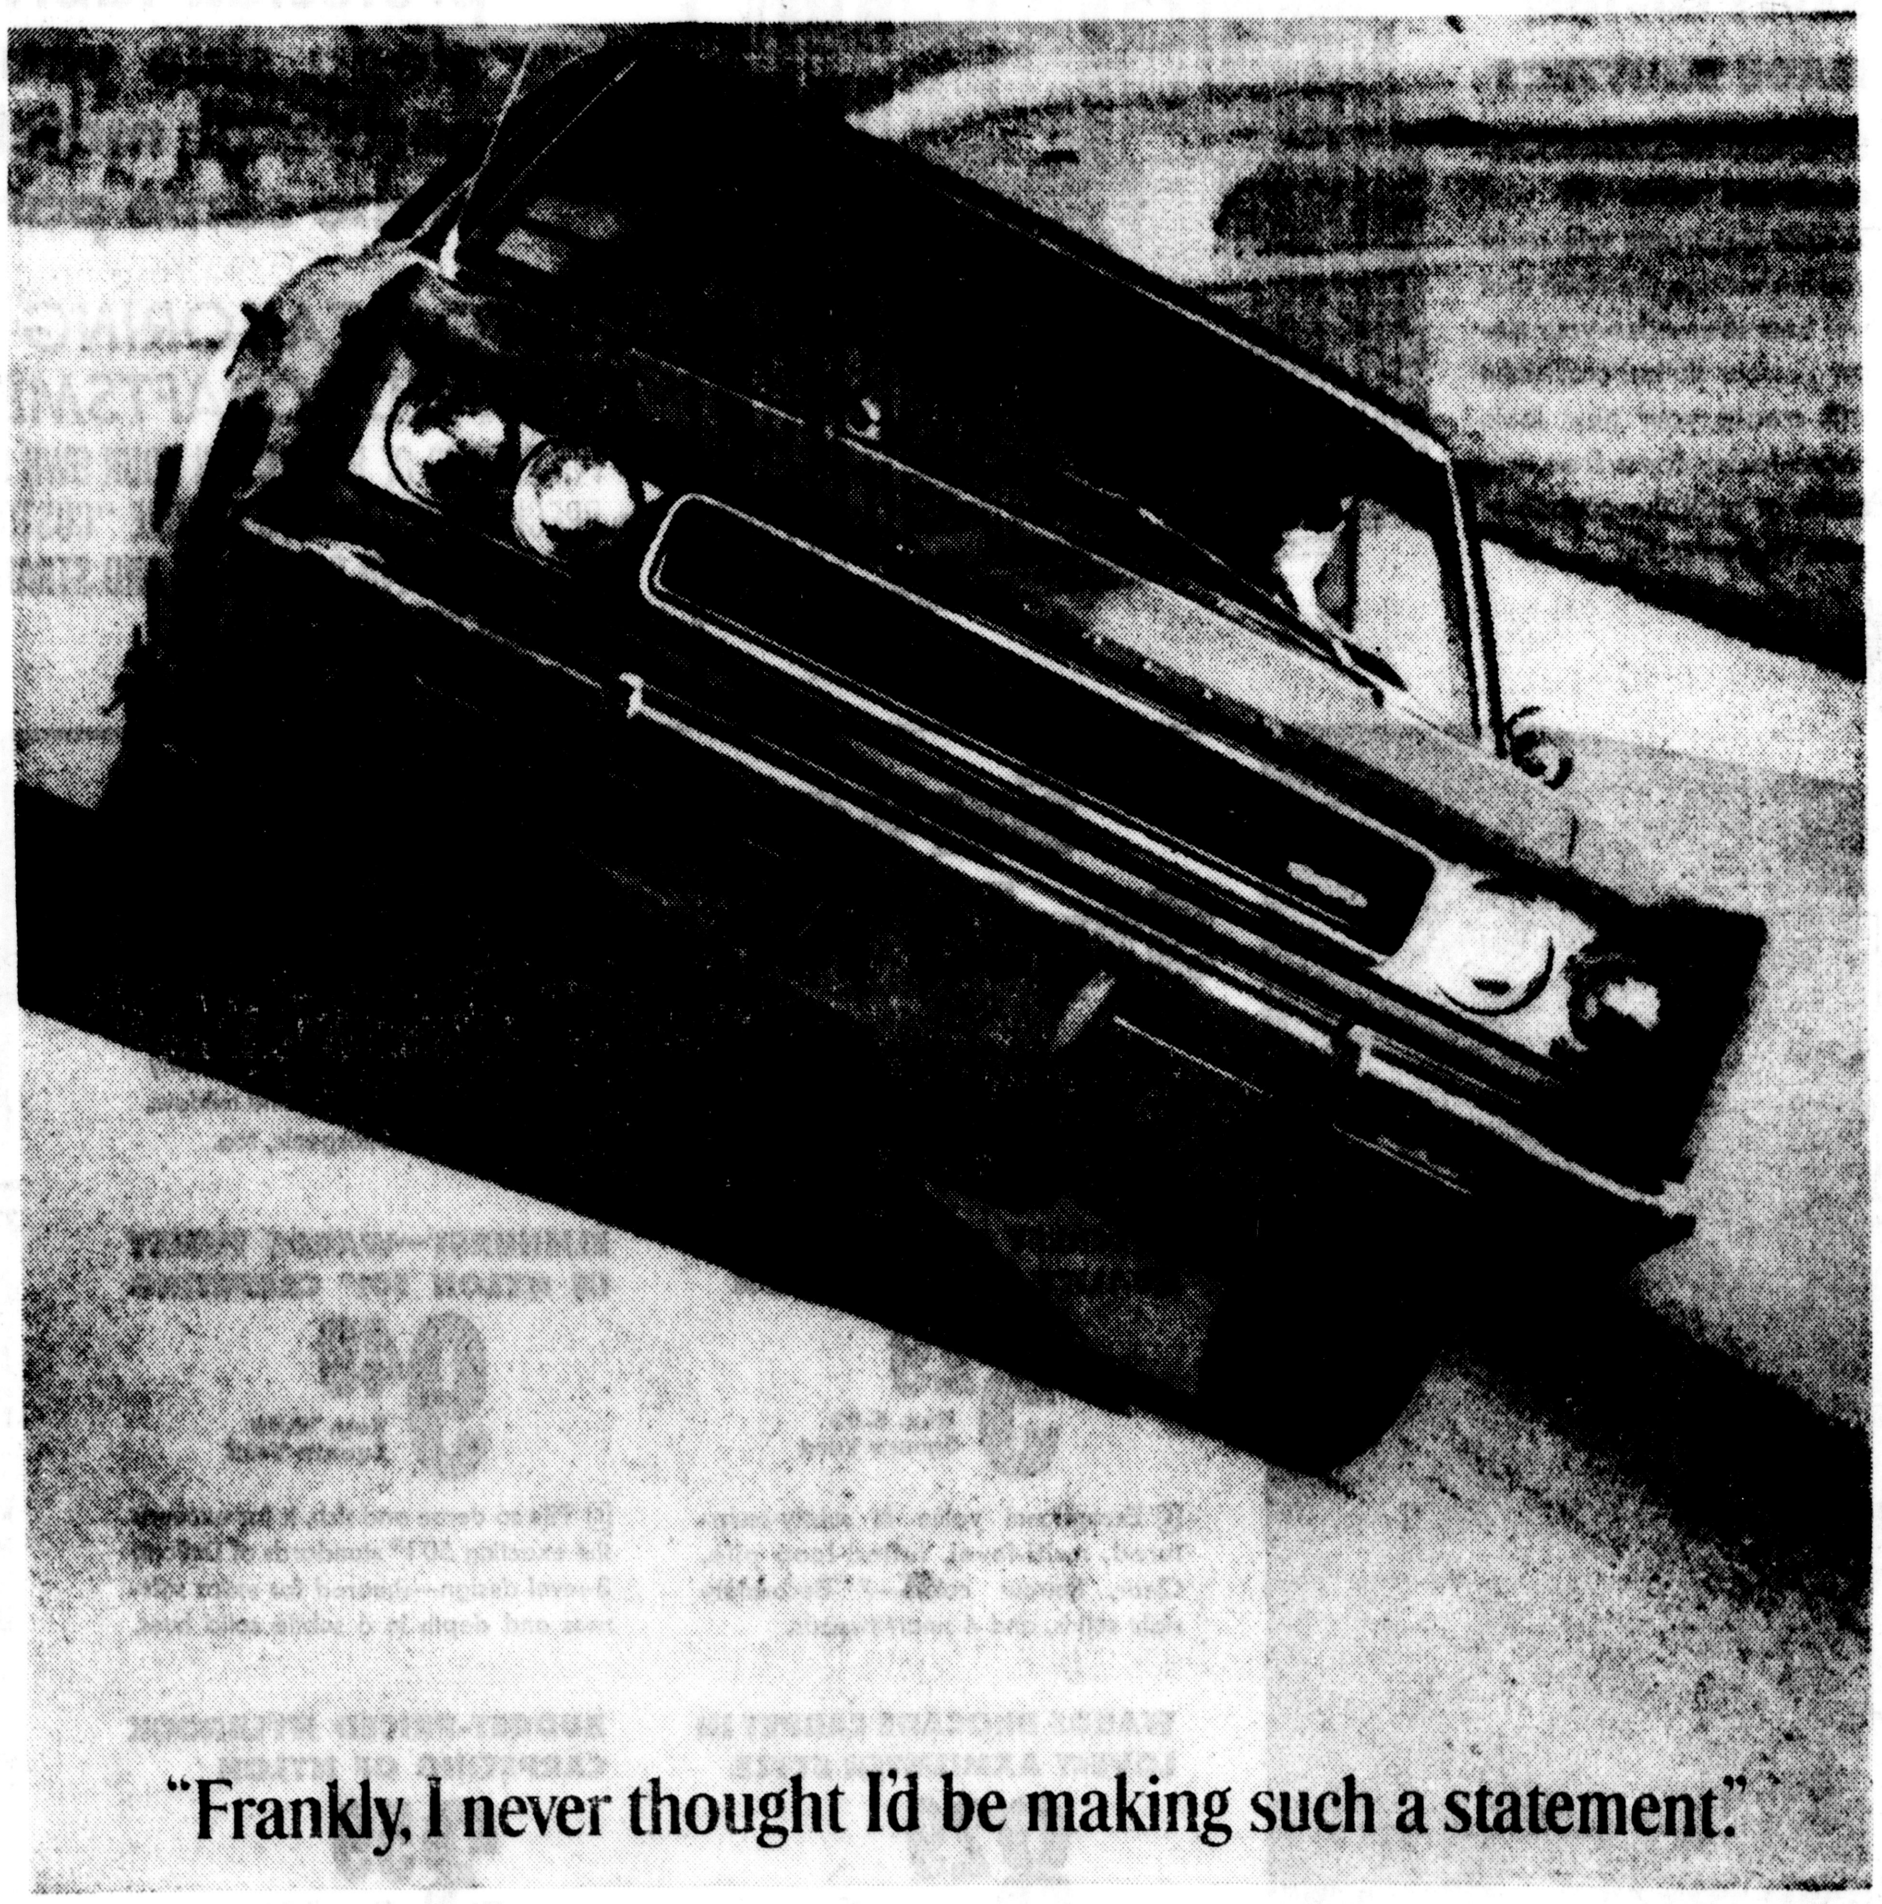
"There isn't a better intermediate size car sold in the United States than the 1967 Rebel"

says Tom McCahill, automobile expert for Mechanix Illustrated.



Tom McCahill evaluates the automobile industry for Mechanix Illustrated. Recently, he took out an SST hardtop equipped with a 343 cu. in. Typhoon V-8 for an exhaustive series of road tests. How did our Excitement Machine perform?

"In roadability and performance, it would top most of the newer specialty cars. There's absolutely no plowing and little body roll. The whole feel of the car, when going over ruts or across dirt roads, is excellent."

What about comfort?

"It's extremely comfortable and relaxing to drive. In straight-line driving the SST is as comfortable as the Jell-O specials."

How about Rebel's new four-link rear suspension?

"Of all the new sporty-type cars, as they come from the showroom, Rebel has by far the best and safest suspension of the whole kit and caboodle."

And the looks?

"As sharp in appearance as a thousand-dollar bill. And from a cost angle, Rebel's not overpriced."

This is your kind of excitement, created by American Motors. A company that has created an entire line of six-passenger Excitement Machines that give you more excitement for the money.

See your American Motors / Rambler Dealer. He'll convince you the 1967 Rebel is the best intermediate built in the country today. Then do what Tom McCahill did. Take a test-drive.

Grossi, a student at Petaluma High School, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Grossi, 4025 Novato Boulevard, west of Novato.

He is a member of the Kenilworth-Petaluma Chapter of the Future Farmers of America and a winner of the Star Dairy Farming foundation medal. He plans to attend California State Polytechnic College and study dairy husbandry.

Zimmerman, a student at Tomales High School, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn K. Zimmerman, Clarke Road, Marshall. He is a member of the Tomales Future Farms chapter and contributed to last year's dairy judging team which placed second at California State Polytechnic College.

He plans to enroll at Fresno State College and major in either agricultural business management or dairy science.

The scholarships, awarded by Group Six of the California Bankers Association, will be presented at a banquet at the San Francisco Hilton Hotel Wesnesday.

Four At College Get Straight A's

Four students gained straight A grades to head the College of Marin's spring mid-semester dean's list, the college announced this week.

Named to the list were 273 students who maintained averages of B or better.

Kentfield Woman Injured In Wreck

A Kentfield woman was injured in a two-car collision at 5800 Paradise Drive in Corte Madera Tuesday at 10:45 a.m., according to Corte Madera police.

Gay S. Hendrickson, 37, of 121 McAllister Avenue, Kentfield, suffered an injured wrist when her car collided with one driven by Wayne R. Miller, 39, of 149 Westward Drive, Corte Madera, police said. They reported Mrs. Hendrickson apparently was turning into a driveway. She was treated at Ross Hospital.

Super Skunk Starts May 21

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Western Railroad Tuesday announced its Super Skunk steam train will start a weekend schedule between Fort Bragg and Willits May 21.

The train, No. 45, the only regularly scheduled, standard gauge steam train in the state, will leave Fort Bragg at 10 a.m. for its run through the redwoods. The train has a Baldwin engine, a tender and four restored Victorian coaches.

Sausalito Planners Against Land Swap

Sausalito Planning Commission last night recommended that the city council take no action on a proposal by Trident Productions that the city exchange a parcel outboard of the former Purity Store site for the parking lot on the site, reported Vice Chairman Robert L. Nissen.

City action on the proposal should be deferred pending detailed plans for the site by the developer, commissioners agreed.

The developer proposed the exchange of the two pracels, but City Atty. Leland H. Jordan advised the commission that state conditions imposed on the tideland precluded sale of the city property. Instead, he suggested, the city and developer could exchange leases.

Sausalito Planning Commission also:

FENCE — Recommended the city council reject an encroachment permit sought by Robert A. Thompson, 254 Glen Drive, for a fence already partially built on city right-of-way.

VALHALLA — Deferred to Wednesday a query from Valhalla Restaurant on remodeling procedure.

MARINCELLO — Heard a "progress report" on development of Marincello by Ned Parsons, senior county planner.

Busy Agenda Tonight For School Groups

Committees of the Marin Board of Education will meet tonight at the county schools office, 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera.

At 7:30 p.m. the educational services committee will consider approval of a federally funded project of $11,900, which would add to Loma Vista School psychological services, library and industrial art equipment and secretarial services. Reports will be heard on preschool and narcotics programs.

The administrative services committee meets at 8:30 p.m. to review the special education budget and personnel resignations and employment.

The special education committee meets at 9 p.m. to discuss changes made in its budget, which was reported last month as being higher than this year's budget of $654,643.

Work-Study Red Tape Unsnarled

Seventy students in College of Marin's work-study program lost their jobs last week in a bureaucratic mix-up, but were rehired two days later, according to Charles Herndon, director of student services for the college.

The work-study program, providing part-time work to needy students, is financed 90 per cent by the federal Office of Education and 10 per cent by the college, Herndon explained.

Herndon had anticipated federal funds of $190,000, but the Office of Education actually made $232,000 available in January. Somehow the $190,000 estimate was never corrected and on Monday of last week Herndon decided he would have to lay off some of the less needy students or not have enough money to finish out the semester with the program.

So seventy students were notified of the termination of the jobs on Monday. By Wednesday, Herndon had discovered the discrepancy and notified all of them to come back to work.

Kidnap Ranson Deducting Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ransom paid in a kidnaping would be deductible in income tax computations under a bill introduced today by Rep. Richard T. Hanna, D-Calif.

Under the legislation, the enforcement agency which investigated the kidnaping would have to certify the amount of ransom paid. Any recovery in a subsequent year would be considered income for tax purposes.

Hanna said consultation with internal revenue officials convinced him that under present law ransom, unlike theft and bad debt losses, cannot be deducted from taxable income.

New Trial For Inmate On Death Row

Basis of the decision was that the admission of certain evidence at his trial for the 1965 slaying of a Ventura County man "was a judicial error."

Also up for a re-trial is Gonzales' crime partner, Daniel Alarcon, 21, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the murder. Alarcon is not at San Quentin. Both men were convicted of killing Jesus Ontiveros during a fight in an Oxnard railroad yard.

Lone dissenter in the re-trial decision was Justice Marshall F. McComb who said he believed "the alleged errors have not resulted in a miscarriage of justice."

Youth Missing From Novato

Willie Bea Burch, 14, has been missing from his home at 665 Owens Drive, Novato, since he ran away at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, his mother, Mrs. Emma Ruth Ballard, told Novato police yesterday.

She said that the boy ran away when he was threatened with disciplining. He was described as a Negro, four feet, eight inches tall, of slim Build, weighing 90 pounds.

He was wearing a black Nylon ski jacket, a mod shirt with flowers, dark green corduroy pants and no shoes, according to Novato police.

Non-Teachers At Dixie Request $21,000 Raise

A pay hike of 5 per cent at a cost of $21,000 was requested yesterday for non-teaching employees in Dixie School District.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said $15,000 in the increase would be in salaries, $6,000 in fringe benefits.

District trustees took no action at the board meetings and asked Willis for more detailed information on new job classifications listed.

The board approved contracts for seven teachers during the 1967-68 school year. They are Miss Marilyn Jacobs, Miss Norma Mitchell and Miss Sandra Stevens, all at $6,000 a year; Mrs. Nathalee Britton at $7,000 a year; Mrs. Gay Guthrie and John A. Vinton at $7,300 a year, and Miss Ann Brandenberger at $8,200 a year.

The board also agreed to join with the City of San Rafael to returf the playground area at Nova Albion School at an estimated cost of $6,000.

The Dixie School District Board also:

GIFTS — Accepted gifts valued at $430 from the Nova Albion School Association, and a Dymo Tapewriter valued at $15 donated to Don Timoteo School by vice principal Robert Lawrence.

MATERNITY — Told Willis to rewrite the regulation on maternity leaves for non-teaching employees to allow an employee to return to work after 90 days, instead of waiting a full year.

STUDENT PAY — Authorized an increase from $1.40 an hour to $1.65 for high school students Nancy Jordan and Patrick Burrell working in a Work Experience Program in May and June.

EMPLOYEES — Went into closed session to discuss several teachers whose contracts are now subject to renewal, but took no action.

Thursdays Are Always The Same

PITTSBURGH, Kan. (AP) — Anyone looking for Dr. Ernest Anderson during the noon hour on Thursdays shouldn't have any trouble finding him.

Dr. Anderson has just completed 29 years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis Club meetings. The club meets each Thursday noon.

School Robbed

County Switch In Funds Claimed

A promise made by the old county administration has been broken by the new one, Mrs. Harry Lucheta told the Marin Council for Civic Affairs last night.

Over a million dollars in revenues from the Civic Center, earmarked for the Veterans Memorial Auditorium and Fairgrounds, has been diverted into the general fund, said Mrs. Lucheta, council chairman.

Because of competition for general fund money, it will be very hard to get it back for its original purpose, she said.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

3:15 p.m., San Rafael — Door on elevator stuck in Farrar Building, 1299 Fourth Street, with James Sutton, 285 Crest Drive, Novato, inside. Opened by firemen.

4:09 p.m., San Rafael — Overheated frying pan at home of Mrs. Dolores Christensen, 91 Forest Lane.

CIGARETTE TAX HIKE FORECAST

Mayors Council Hears How Much More Revenue Could Be Gained For Marin

There is a good chance that cigarette taxes will be boosted to provide additional state and city revenues, according to Donald Benninghoven, assistant director, League of California Cities.

STRONG CHANCE

An Assembly bill which would permit general law cities to levy a cigarette tax of 3.5 cents has a strong chance of passage, he asserted.

This tax would be collected by the state and returned to cities, which could spend it for any purpose, Benninghoven said.

Thirty-seven charter cities now have a cigarette tax, he said. If all cities collected the tax, the revenue would be about $65 million, Bennington estimated.

To San Rafael this would amount to $145,000 a year; Larkspur, $34,000; Novato, $125,000, and Corte Madera, $38,000, he said.

OTHER TAX

Along with a state tax boost of 3.5 cent per pack, as agreed upon by Gov. Ronald Reagan, this would be a total addition tax of 7 cents per pack, he pointed out.

Only two states have lower cigarette taxes than California, and six states have a tax of 10 cents a pack, Benninghoven claimed.

If there is a to be a reduction in property taxes, a way must be found to replace the revenue, and "there is a good possibility that the cigarette tax will be a source of revenue," he asserted.

There is a bill to reduce the business inventory tax, which bring in from $400 to $500 million a year, Benninghoven noted. If this occurs and the revenue is not replaced, cities would face a loss, he said.

LABOR ISSUES

Benninghoven reported a change of attitude regarding collective bargaining by city employees. Strikes are a real issue, he said. "There were nine public service strikes in California last year."

Several bills providing for arbitration or fact finding procedures, are before the Legislature, Benninghoven reported. The league therefore decided to introduce a bill to expand the authority of councils under the employees organization act, he said.

One of the proposals, he said, would be to "expand" the Ralph M. Brown Act so city councils could meet in closed session to discuss salaries, working conditions or employee benefits.

Benninghoven noted there will be a hearing May 23 on a bill that would eliminate the provision that cities provide matching funds to obtain state gasoline taxes for road work.

There also is a proposed constitutional amendment that would permit any state tax to be used for municipal purposes, he said.

STUDY SUGGESTED

City Councilman Dean Meyer of Mill Valley reported that the "Blackwell Bill," designed to correct city-county tax inequities, was defeated in committee by 4-3 vote. "All agreed that there is an inequity and suggested an interim study," he said.

The council supported the proposal for an interim study and agreed to seek support of county supervisors.

Benninghoven said that Los Angeles County has introduced a resolution calling for a full interim study on the same subject, and requesting $20,000 for it.

The council postponed discussion of city-county police services until May 31, after Novato Councilman Douglas M. Merrill reported that a committee on the subject was unable to get together.

Because Philip S. Ehrlich, chairman of the Marin County Housing Authority, was unable to attend to talk about the authority's program for leasing privately owned housing, the council re-scheduled his talk for its next meeting in Novato on May 31.

Rockefeller Won't Be '68 Candidate

WASHINGTON (UPI)— New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller said yesterday he would not be a candidate for the 1968 Republican Presidential nomination under any circumstances.

Rockefeller questioned whether increased speculation that he might yet be a candidate came from elements in the GOP that sought to divide the party's moderates between Rockefeller and Michigan Gov. George Romney.

PANEL DISAGREES

Is Marin County Ready For Future?

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

Marin County may not be quite ready for tomorrow, according to four city and county officials.

The attentive audience heard from Tiburon City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose on "It all depends — on people," from Sausalito Fire Chief Charles E. Masten, "Not yet." from Harvey C. Bragdon, Mill Valley director of community development a blunt "no," and from Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, "The sheriff's department is progressing today toward tomorrow."

Regional government also came in for a few pro and con comments.

With tongue-in-cheek, Rose said: "We couldn't possibly be more elaborately organized to meet tomorrow. We have 65 districts in the county, governed by autonomous boards. We have 11 cities. Then we have the county, state and federal governments."

He referred to regional government as "another creature of government." He saw "this added layer" stemmed from "the people's disappointment in established institutions" and "a withering of self reliance."

Given new techniques, better training and a new dedication of the people, Rose felt "our institutions are not only adequate for tomorrow, but for today."

He called regional government a "will o' the wisp."

Masten saw advantages in consolidation of fire services countywide, but felt it should not be "jumped into." It would solve the overlapping of the community services districts, fire districts, city fire departments, and county fire department, he said.

Masten had just attended a San Rafael meeting of the Marin County Fire Chiefs Association. They agreed a successful consolidation would largely depend on an administrator, he reported. "We're talking about a man we would have to pay $35,000 or $40,000 a year — it's a big job."

As a consolidate district, the county would have to be re-evaluated for an overall fire rate by the American Insurance Association which "would be expensive," Masten commented.

He felt consolidation should come gradually. For instance, consolidating Belevedere, Tiburon and Alto fire districts first, then organizing a Southern Marin district to include Sausalito, Mill Valley and the Tiburon Peninsula.

Bragdon said the only specific comment any planner would want to make in Marin County is "color it green." Bragdon doubted that Marin is ready for tomorrow.

He said it would be fairly easy to get cities and the county together to prepare a plan. Enforcement of planning of foresaw as more difficult. "We can talk a good game, but the real problems is when other values come in such as political expediency and economics."

Bragdon felt the county is "over-organized. Also we have been thinking far too small. We should say, is the bay area ready for tomorrow?" He said bay fill, transportation, open space, are regional problems, and foresaw a federation of cities in a regional government.

Later, under questions from the audience, Bragdon said he did not favor the approach of the Association of Bay Area Governments to regional government. He called ABAG "wishy-washy."

Mountanos told the audience "we are making progress." He cited as evidence recent agreement by police chiefs to form a county-wide narcotics bureau.

Taxpayers invest $10,000 in each trained deputy, Mountanos said. "We have to think where we can best use each deputy in the county." He said there are 80,000 people living in unincorporated areas of the county.

Mountanos foresaw consolidation of police services in the county.

Countywide police protection is the answer to crime problems and Marin's rapidly growing population, he said. The county "should not be dragging its feet on manpower and equipment — we owe it to our children."

Visit To Canada By DeGaulle Confirmed

PARIS (AP) —Elysee Palace confirmed today that President Charles de Gaulle will visit Canada in July.

"Gen. De Gaulle, responding to invitations from the governor general of Canada and the prime minister of Quebec, will go to Canada in the second half of July. Other details on the program of the visit of Gen. De Gaulle to Canada will be announced later," a communique said.

League Of Women Voters Names New Officer Slate

Mrs. Farrell I. Schell of San Rafael was elected president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin at a luncheon meeting yesterday at Peacock Gap Country Club.

Law enforcement in Marin County was chosen as the league's study subject for the next 12 months.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Schell were: Mrs. John Barrows of San Anselmo and Mrs. Donald M. Wilhelm of Novato, vice presidents; Mrs. John Eggleston of San Rafael, secretary, and Mrs. David Benedict of San Rafael, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Mesdames J. W. Becker, Ulrich Kraemer, Jean N. Bell, James T. Edmundson, John Bastian, Dale R. Schmid, Joseph Turina, David V. Ainsworth, and Frank Pedersen.

Mrs. H. James Compton of Kentfield, outgoing president, summarized activities of the past year, including publication of a special districts pamphlet and of "How, When and Where To Write Your Legislator," which have been distributed countywide.

Party structure of partisan policitcs was described by Mrs. Lee Sherry, a former member of the Republican Central Committee, and Mrs. Olive Lewis, a member of the Democratic Central Committee.

Just five days before the signing of the American Declaration of Independence, the Presidio of San Francisco was founded on June 29, 1776 by Spanish Lt. Jose Joaquin Moraga.

Stanford's Wert To Head Mills

OAKLAND (AP) — Robert J. Wert, Stanford professor of higher education, will succeed Mills College President C. Easton Rothwell who is retiring at age 65.

Wert, 45, will take office in September.

Rothwell, who will be 65 in October, is retiring after eight years as president of the women's college.

Wert, on leave from Stanford, is in Peru, visiting colleges and universities to determine how Fulbright Award funds are used. He has been on the faculty and in various administrative posts at Stanford since 1959. He was a trustee at Mills.

Berkeley Senate To Hear Warren

BERKELEY (AP)—U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren returns to the Berkeley campus of the University of California Friday for an "extraordinary" faculty meeting.

Warren, class of 1912, is the major speaker at an "extraordinary convocation" of the Berkeley Academic Senate, a public meeting called after the firing of UC President Clark Kerr.

The professors explained that the meeting would communicate "the urgent necessity of preserving the character and quality" of the university.

Dr. Bernard Diamond, UC criminologist who headed a committee that planned the event, said convocation is an effort to "engage more fully in public discussion."

Leprosy now afflicts an estimated 12 million persons.

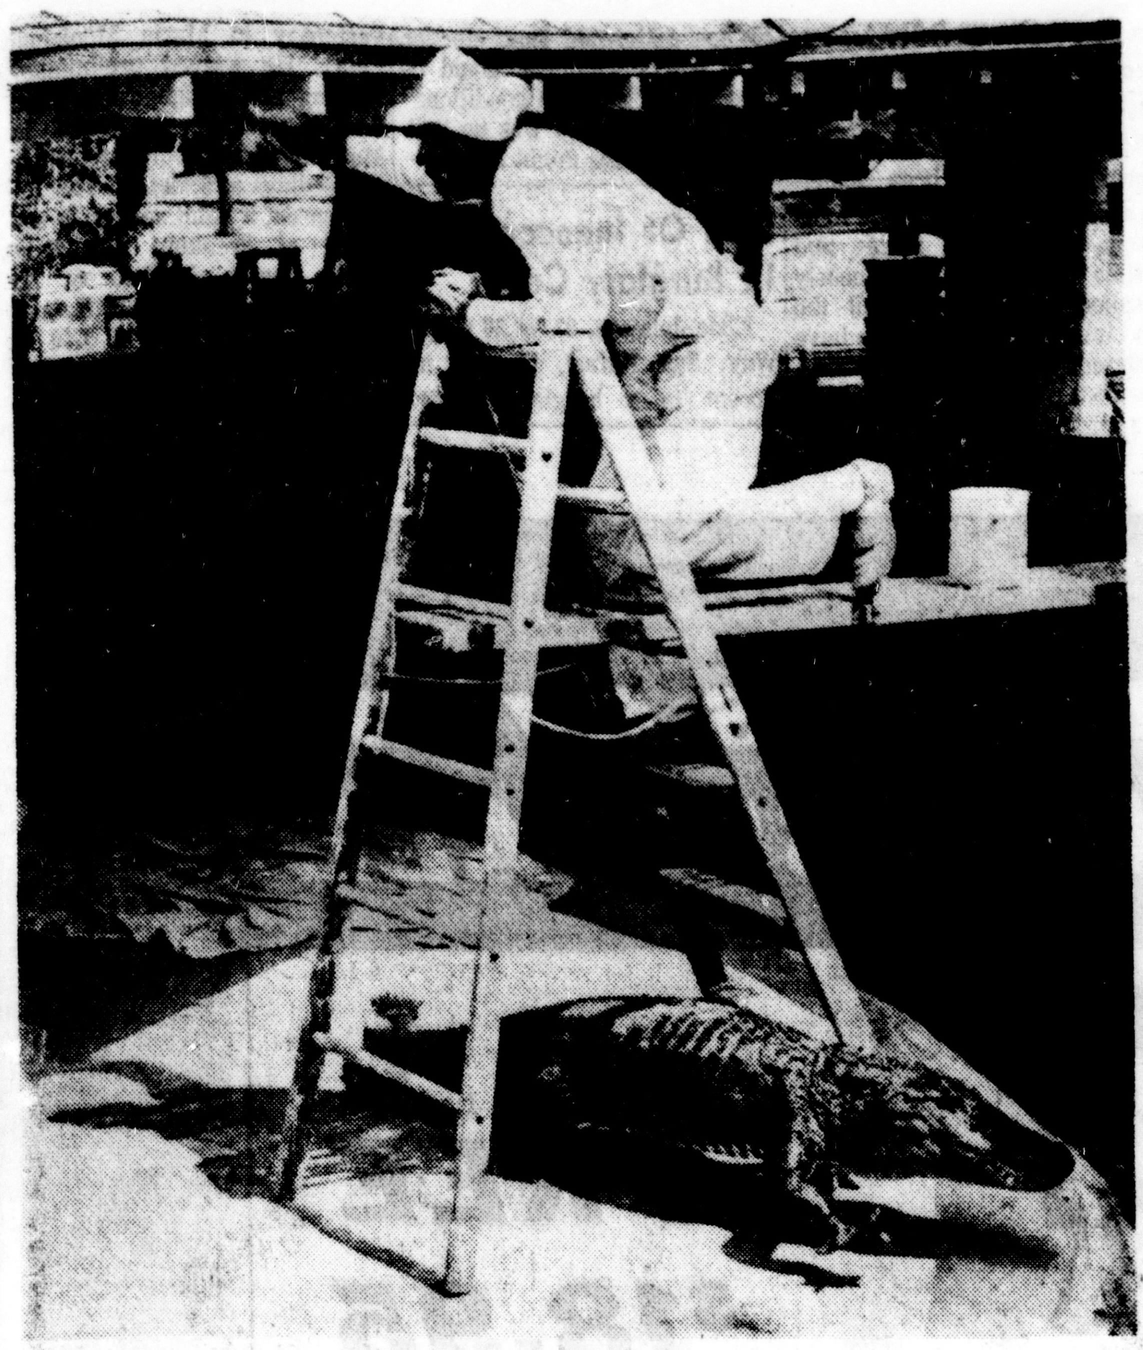
GOOD PLANNING? —Ned Persons of 130 Surrey Lane, San Rafael, a senior planner with Marin County Planning Department, couldn't have done it better if he had planned it himself. He and his wife, Ann, and year-old son Ned Jr., were looking through yesterday's Independent - Journal and did a double-take when they saw the family car license plate had been snapped by the mystery photographer. Result: a $35 prize.



WATCH OUT FOR THE ALLIGATOR

A man just has to ignore the hazards of his job sometimes if he's going to get any work done. And for painter John F. Rivera of San Antonio, Tex., the hazards are sometimes pretty strange as he found out yesterday. His job: painting the shelter at the alligator gardens of the city's Brackenridge Zoo.

San Rafael Sewage Plant Bidding Set In September

A tentative timetable for a $267,000 expansion of the main San Rafael sewage treatment plant was approved yesterday by San Rafael Sanitation District directors.

The district will seek bids on the project in September, with completion set for August 1968, according to the schedule drawn up by District Administrator Norris M. Rawles.

The board also approved Rawles' timetable for completing a comprehensive study of the storm drain and sewer system by April, 1968.

Schedules for the expansion and the study will be sent to the Regional Water Quality Control Board, which requested them after torrential January rains caused sewage to flow out of manholes.

The district has applied for an $80,000 federal grant to help finance the plant expansion.

The board approved two residential sewer connections in Peacock Lagoon Subdividion 1. The connections are not in the area where the district has banned new connections until expansion of the Peacock Gap treatment plant.

The board's next meeting will be at 5 p.m. next Thursday at San Rafael City Hall.

U.S. Protests Yemen Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has protested to the government of Yemen the actions of a mob which invaded the U.S. compound yesterday in Taiz, a major provincial city in the Middle East nation.

"A large crowd broke into the compound, causing severe damage to vehicles, furniture and personal property," Robert J. McCloskey, press officer for the State Department, told reporters.

The compound housed a branch office of the American Embassy and an office of the Agency for International Development.

Year's Probation

Fred Howard Peterson, 48, of Ukiah, was fined $249 and placed on a year's probation in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving. He was arrested by San Anselmo police Sunday.

Constantine Backs Greece's Military Junta; Curfew Off

ATHENS (AP) — Greece's military dictatorship lifted the curfew in Athens and Pireaus today after King Constantine broke his public silence and gave qualified acceptance to the regime which seized power six days ago.

The 26-year-old monarch met with the new Cabinet yesterday, urged organization of "a true and healthy democracy," and expressed the "fervent wish" that parliamentary government would return "as soon as possible."

Life appeared nearly normal in Athens and Pireaus, where one-quarter of Greece's 8 million people live. But the 1:30-5:30 a.m. curfew remained in force elsewhere in the nation.

The previous absence of a public statement by the king had given rise to the belief he did not approve of the military takeover made in his name Friday. His statement to the Cabinet installed by the military chiefs indicated he was not happy with the situation which confronted him.

Constantine drove into Athens from his palace in suburban Tatoi yesterday, made his statement to Premier Constantine Kollias and his Cabinet and posed, grim faced, for pictures with the 19 ministers.

His statement made one concession to the military leaders' claim that they took over to save the country from leftist violence.

Referring to the recurrent political crises stemming from his long feud with leftist leaders George and Andreas Papandreou, the king said in the months before the coup, "democratic institutions have been undermined; the nation, the monarchy, the armed forces and justice have been continuously assailed, and most of all the true interests of the people have suffered."

Athens mliitary radio said Kollias reiterated that election of a new Parliament would be held when "suitable conditions" are created. There was no indication when this might be.

Plea Of Innocence In Burglary Case

Elzie Johnson, 23, of 20 Green Way, San Rafael, pleaded innocent to a burglary charge yesterday in Marin Municipal Court. He waived preliminary hearing and Judge Peter Allen Smith certified the case to Marin Superior Court for further proceedings at 9:30 a.m. May 8.

Johnson, a paint sander, is accused of breaking into Bret Harte Super Market at 93 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, on Jan. 26. A total of $709 in cash and liquor was taken, San Rafael police said.

Rail Peace May Be Up To Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Congressional action appeared today to be the only means of heading off a coast-to-coast railroad strike set for May 3.

Most of the negotiators for six railroad shopcraft unions left Washington yesterday, ending any chance a contract settlement might be reached with a group of railroads that handles 95 per cent of U.S. rail service.

Congress, which has made clear it will act if necessary, was considered likely to pass a law requiring compulsory arbitration if a strike materializes.

TEAMSTER BALLOT

The threat of a nationwide trucking tie-up meantime diminished somewhat as the Teamsters Union indicated it might conduct another ballot by mail if light returns from a vote last weekend were inconclusive on accepting or rejecting a proposed contract. A mail canvas could stretch out the ratification process for weeks.

The railroads began a campaign yesterday to persuade Congress not to order federal seizure of the railroads to avert the strike.

The Association of American Railroads ran advertisements in 35 cities. The industry said that "to punish the railroads under these circumstances would be a gross affront to simple justice."

RECOMMENDATIONS

The railroads contended they had accepted the recommendations of two special mediation panels appointed by President Johnson only to see them rejected by the unions.

But Joseph W. Ramsey, chief negotiator for the International Association of Machinists, said the railroads also rejected the proposal by a three-man panel of Presidential mediators Saturday.

Healthy Hair Then Usually Good Health

WAYNE, N.J. (UPI) — Healthy hair often depends on general health, according to a hair products manufacturer.

A person whose hair has a natural gloss often finds it becomes dull and drab during even a minor illness of a few days' duration, say researchers at John H. Breck, Inc.

Finance Chief Backs Accuracy Of Department

LONG BEACH (AP) — State Finance Director Gordon P. Smith vouches for the accuracy of finance department figures—allowing for a mistake regarding the firing of some Department of Mental Hygiene employees.

Smith, in a news conference yesterday, challenged Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh's contention that Gov. Reagan is using the finance department as a propaganda device and that its figures are not trustworthy.

"The Department of Finance provides the same information to the press, public and the legislature as it does to the governor," Smith said.

The mental hygiene department's admission it would retain 800 of the 3,700 employes it had planned to fire reflected an "honest mistake," he added. However, he said, there was no mistake in plans for economy cuts in state hospitals.

Report Clarified

Sausalito City Council Tuesday night gave first reading to an ordinance requiring occupancy permits before new buildings are occupied or a change is made in the occupancy of an old building. A typographical error garbled a report of the action in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

X-15 Rocketship In Emergency

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — The expericental rocketship X-15 made a precautionary landing yesterday when a malfunction developed in its fuel control system.

William H. Dana, a civilian pilot for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, brought the sleek aircraft down at Silver Lake, a dry lake bed about 100 miles north of here.

A NASA spokesman said there was no damage to the plane and no injury to the pilot.

The malfunction developed about five minutes after the No. 3 X15 was launched from beneath the wing of its B-52 "mother ship."

Health Aide's Firing Probed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In a special public hearing yesterday of the Civil Service Commission, reasons were examined in the firing of Dr. Joel Fort as Special Problems Center director.

Dr. Ellis Sox, city health director, accused Fort of "unilateral and independent actions" and overstepping his authority. Fort's lawyers called the charges "baseless innuendoes."

After the two-hour hearing the case of the 37-year-old psychiatrist was taken under submission. A decision was expected today.

Hoffa's Son Wins Vote Test

DETROIT (UPI) —James P. Hoffa, son of imprisoned teamsters leader James R. Hoffa, yesterday was declared the winner in his first political election, and he said he did it on his own—"not on my father's name."

The recent University of Michigan Law School graduate was emphatic when he said he alone won the Democratic nomination for the Michigan House of Representatives seat vacated by the death of Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski in a 15-man primary election Tuesday.

Hoffa received 1,429 votes in the small, northwest Detroit 19th District. He beat second-place Casmer Ogonowski, a Detroit Public Works Commission aide, by 301 votes.

Unpopular Brain Asks – What Do Boys Have Against Smart Girls?

DEAR HELEN:

I am smart—too smart—and that drives boys away. They automatically think if you have a brain you're either a snob or a grind and no fun.

Well, my marks came down this term from straight A to B+ average. That's still not dumb, but all of a sudden boys started liking me. Not zillions, but enough so it's encouraging.

Now, Helen, what does being smart have to do with popularity? Why do boys always associate smartness with cloddiness? Or is it a matter of pride? That's silly. We don't take IQ tests on dates.

Would you please ask your readers: What do boys have against smart girls?—E.S.G.

DEAR E.:

Okay, I'll ask, but I'll bet the answer is: Nothing, so long as she doesn't throw her mental weight around.

Perhaps it wasn't the half-grade drop, but a change in attitude that brought the boys out of their corner.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I suppose you'll call me selfish, but I can't help it. I've got an older sister who is "sick" mentally, but not so sick she couldn't do a little work. My parents do everything for her. We've got to be, oh, so careful she doesn't go into one of her temper fits. One minute she acts like a baby—it's sickening—the next she'll fly into a rage for no reason.

Whenever we argue it's always me who gets yelled at. She constantly nags and teases me and I have to take it because she's "poor little sister."

My parents take out their wounded feelings on me. I'm supposed to "understand," but understanding doesn't calm my nerves. Many times I lock myself in my room, crying. No one seems to know I need understanding too, that I can hurt so bad I want to die. Everything centers around her.

Why can't my sister go out and get a job—she can do a lot more than she lets on. She's got to make her own way sometime. but why should she, when she's got a nice cozy home to live in free, where she can stay up all night and sleep all day? Will my folks give her a shove? No, they just sit back and let her rule them, mooch off us and act like a moron instead of growing up.—PLEASE HELP

DEAR P.H.:

I don't know all the circumstances here, but I'd suggest your parents enroll your sister in special classes for the mentally and emotionally handicapped. Most states have vocational training programs for the retarded. Many times a child once given up as hopeless can be taught a trade that will make him or her self-sufficient.

People who devoted their whole lives to the "sick" daughter are hurting everyone in the family—including the pampered one who might make it on her own, with a little push and a lot of help.—H.

Shopping in the Village
with Carol King and Pat Reynolds

Hear ye, hear ye! The Village Voice carries good tidings. Starting May 3rd all Village shops will be open Wednesday evenings until nine. Most shops will be open Friday evenings as well.

Noticed two new long-leg pantie girdles at THE HOUR GLASS that would be dandy under knits or capris. These little "fanny firmers" are in white lycra-spandex with the Perma-Lift label. The Solitaire style features a four inch waist band, the Technique model is reinforced at the sides and derriere. (Like we said, "fanny firmers" . . . not what you'd call classy copywriting, but you must admit it's descriptive.)

If you are planning a bridal shower or other springtime luncheon we recommend KUBLAI KHAN. They have very nice accommodations for smallish parties and banquets and, of course, the decor and table appointments are outstanding. Marvelous menu here that includes Oriental and Continental cuisine.

Remember your furry friends on "Mutt-hers" Day (Sorry about that). MUTTS OF MARIN has everything for her-curs, and motherly mousers, too.

We keep yapping away about the convenience of L'ENTREE casseroles but have neglected to tell you how much the youngsters in our families enjoy them. To quote one small family member, "The sauces are so good!" If your children, as ours, have turned up their noses at the word "casserole," then these dishes will be a revelation (and a great way to introduce the kids to the enjoyment of subtle seasonings).

Do see FIESTA CANDLE SHOP'S wonderful collection of Village label soaps, room sprays, hand-rolled soap and shower balls, men's cologne and soap bars. These are beautifully wrapped and smell as good as they look. In an excellent assortment of gift packages, you'll find such un-soapy scents as strawberry, cinnamon, lemon and lilac to name but a few).

Outrageously pretty cocktail dresses at CONTESSA ANGELA OF ROMA. There's a pale pink, slim chiffon number accented by two shades of pink Marabou. And another is a real "knockout" in strawberry silk chiffon, draped bodice, billowy full skirt and two perfect chiffon roses at the waist. Just lovely!

Absolutely elegant waiting wear at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP. For instance those long or short formal tent dresses in floaty chiffon. These exquisite creations are by Ma Mere in either hot pink or pale aqua with a beautifully beaded cowl neckline. (By the way, no reason to limit this gown to ladies-in-waiting.)

If you've ever been disappointed with the framing of a picture you won't want to repeat the experience. This is only one of the reasons you will like the expert framing at FU'S ART STUDIO. Their frames are custom designed by artists who know just how a painting should look.

From Norway to you, via HAPPY HOUSE, comes handsome enamel on stainless steel pieces that take to the oven, the freezer or the table with equal ease. Choose the Lotus pattern or solid colors or mix 'n match both, in an 8" skillet with lid and removable wooden handle for converting into a baking dish. Casseroles too in 1 to 6 qt. sizes, as well as serving plates, bowls and trays. This charming cookery is by Cathrineholm Ltd.

The shelves at CAPRICORN BOOKS are filled with gift ideas for Mother's Day. From slim volumes of poetry to large and beautifully illustrated books on gardening, fashion, cooking and travel . . . to say nothing of all the latest best-sellers. Be sure to check the sale table here for fabulous buys on gift-type books.

Attention all you patio chefs: THE HEARTH SHOP has more barbecues than you can shake a shish-kabob at. Big, small, portable or permanent, they have them all. We like the Hasty-Bake and Scotch-Boy models of the foldable Camper style. Maybe you'd prefer the famous Char-Broil and Casa-Q brands, arriving soon.

PIGGY BANK PRICES!

This item is strictly for the kids, so "get lost," Mom (after you pass them the paper). Hey, gang, you can take Mother to dinner at The HICK'RY PIT to celebrate her special day and pick-up the check yourself. Prices at this informal family restaurant won't ruin your appetite and, maybe best of all, HICK'RY PIT will do the dishes.

READY PLANES FOR NORTH VIET RAIDS

With the step up of L.S. bombing missions into North Vietnam, operations aboard the Seventh Fleet attack carrier Kitty Hawk off the Viet coast have greatly increased. Ordinancemen put in long hours rolling 500-pound bombs across the flight deck to attack and fighter planes prior to launches which have been in operation all week.

Assemblymen Add To Reagan Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly budget committee has expanded Gov. Reagan's "squeeze and cut and trim" budget far beyond the record $5.06 billion he requested, legislative sources disclosed today.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee began tabulating additions it has made to the giant spending program — and the figures were bad news to the Republican governor.

More than $15 million above what Reagan requested has been added for salaries and programs of the University of California and the state colleges.

And Republicans and Democrats on an Assembly Ways and Means mental health subcommittee have been quietly adding millions more in an area where Reagan pinned much of his economy hopes.

Sources in the Ways and Means Committee gave a breakdown for additions made to Reagan's budget.

University of California programs boosted $2.1 million, mostly for a subsidy to teaching hospitals. A series of small additions to state college programs added another $847,000.

Following the recommendations of the Coordinating Council on Higher Education, the committee voted 6.5 per cent increase in general UC salaries, 1 per cent more for those teaching in special professional schools and more than 3 per cent additional for fringe benefits.

Reagan's request for state college salaries also has been hiked by the assemblymen.

Railroads carry almost half the freight that moves between cities and towns in the United States.

11-Year-Old Mill Valley Accordionist Already Pro

By ALAN D. JONES

Eleven is about the right age for sixth grade, but it's a little young to be a working musician. But a performer has to start sometime.

So for the past several months, Brian Andrews, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Andrews of 401 Ash Street, Mill Valley, has been playing accordion for diners at Gregory's Restaurant in Corte Madera. Gets tips, too.

Brian also plays fairly regularly at several convalescent hospitals and retirement homes.

Brian, his father said, usually plays Fridays and Saturdays from 7 to 9:30 p.m. or thereabouts. He occasionally plays on Sunday too, but "he likes to goof off on Sundays," Andrews said.

That's understandable. With two nights of playing, practice, and sixth grade at Tamalpais Valley School, there isn't much time left over. Brian fills the gaps with reading, and thinking about stock cars and horses.

He hopes to make a career in music, and would like to get exposure that might lead to a spot on a television show. Brian hopes ultimately to make enough money in a professional music career to buy a place to raise horses.

The funny thing about kids like that is that you check up on them 30 years later and you find out that they had a professional music career and then bought a place to raise horses.

Seminary Choir To Sing Tuesday

The 17-voice men's choir of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, directed by Wilbur F. Russell, will give a public concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Montgomery Chapel on the seminary grounds.

The choir, which has just returned from a concert tour in Southern California, will perform works by Monteverdi (this is the 400th anniversary of his birth), Tompkins and Kruger.

Also to be performed are hymns of the church, a 16th Century German chorale, psalms by Joseph Gelineau, ar d other contemporary works and several spirituals arranged by Russell.

Wallace Is Booed—But He's Hopeful

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace, greeted by boos and chants of "black power" here last night, said today he still considered that he had been "received very well by the overwhelming majority."

Cheers punctuated the boos as Wallace addressed the night audience of more than 5,000 at Syracuse University and said, among other things, that this country would stand behind our servicemen in Vietnam if he were President.

Wallace, speaking of his talk at the university's Manley Fieldhouse, told a news conference today that "with only one or two exceptions, this was better than any reception" he received in 1964, when he ran in several presidential primaries.

Discounting the "spoiler" role now attributed to him, he declared that "if I run, I'm running to win."

The news conference preceded a trip to Pittsburgh as part of a week-long tour of the north to gauge political opinion and assess his chances if he should campaign for President in 1968.

Woman Slain In Apartment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The nude body of a woman who had been stabbed repeatedly and strangled was found yesterday at 615 Octavia Street.

She was identified as Janice Ward, 24. Police counted more than 15 stab wounds. The murder weapons were not found. No motive was immediately known.

The apartment, where she lived with her husband, Otis, 26, was spattered with blood. The body was discovered by the husband when he returned home with a friend.

'Twelfth Night' Set To Open Festival

"Twelfth Night," directed by Ann Brebner, will open the annual Marin Shakespeare Festival on July 15 at Forest Meadows Theater in San Rafael.

Managing director John Brebner will direct "King Lear," opening July 21. Performances, slated Wednesdays through Saturdays at 8:30 p.m., will run through Sept. 23.

GUEST ARTIST—Marin soprano Gwen Curatilo will be guest artist in the final season concert of the Marin Arts Quartet Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Outdoor Art Club, Mill Valley.

Waitress Is Found Dead By Husband

Evelyn Amy Bashta, 55, a coffee shop waitress, was found on the living room floor of her home at 1541-B Fourth Street, San Rafael today and was pronounced dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 3:07 a.m.

Cause of death was unknown, said Deputy Coroner Keith Craig, and an autopsy was scheduled at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

The woman's husband, Alexander Bashta, told the coroner's office his wife occasionally took tranquilize rs or sleeping tablets and often fell asleep while watching late night television.

He went to bed about 11:30 p.m. yesterday and called to her from the bedroom about 3 a.m. When he got no reply, he found her lying on the floor, according to Craig.

Mrs. Bashta had lived in Marin County one year and was employed as a waitress at San Rafael Coffee Shop.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Donald Schwartz, and a daughter, Elaine Phillips, both of New York.

Federal Snoopers In State To Discuss Mutual Problems

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan welcomed a team of 35 federal officials to California today, but warned that "we all must guard against the fearful possibility that the states may just become administrative districts" of the national government.

The federal team has been sent out into the states by President Johnson to improve the working relationship between the federal government and the states.

The federal officials and 50 of Reagan's top administrators and staff members sat down following breakfast to discuss mutual problems in nine areas — ranging from conservation to health and welfare.

Former Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida, Johnson's "ambassador" to the 50 governors, said the people are demanding a new approach to their problems. Those problems, he said, "cannot always be solved with yesterday's solutions."

"We are here without any preconceptions and preconceived ideas," Bryant added.

He expressed hopes for a fruitful session.

Reagan replied, "We look forward to great results, too."

But he said the best approach to solving state problems is to maintain the sovereignty of the states.

The federal team arrived late yesterday and leaves later in the day for a session with Nevada officials in Carson City. Then it goes to Hawaii. California, the most populous state, is the 27th visited by the federal team.

A statement by the federal group said it came to California at Reagan's invitation. But Reagan officials made it clear that was a formality.

"We invited them at their request," said Lyn Nofziger, Reagan's press secretary. "We're just not in the practice of running to the federal government for help."

In a speech last weekend, Reagan said "you can't make blatant rules and regulations from the federal level and make them fit every one of the 50 states."

Reagan said he's not ruling out the federal role "as a legitimate function in helping to solve these problems," but that basically "we can do it at the state level."

Rockefeller At Embarcadero

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — David Rockefeller, Chase Manhattan Bank president, examined the New York firm's investment prospects today in San Francisco's $150 million Embarcadero Center.

His bank will put up about 50 per cent of the center's building costs.

"A noble achievement in modern city living" was the way Rockefeller described the center at a news conference. Construction starts in the fall and eight years is estimated for completion.

The development in San Francisco's lower downtown area will provide parking for 2,000 cars, office space for a working population of 15,000 persons who would earn $90 million a year.

Student From Ethiopia Shot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A college student from Ethiopia was shot and stabbed early today in his room. Doctors said his condition was critical.

Yossebek M. Desta, 24, of Addis Ababa, was shot twice in the back and stabbed twice in the chest.

Another Ethiopian student was sought as the possible assailant. Police did not name him.

Desta was one of a group of Ethiopian students attending San Francisco City College who dined and talked together until 3 a.m.

Larkspur artist Bruce Lauritzen will have a one-man art and poetry show, starting Tuesday, at Tiburon Gallery, 9 Main Street, Tiburon.

The show will be his first exhibition since his return last fall from Europe. It will include his paintings, photographs and poetry.

One-Act Plays Set By Tam Students

Tamalpais High School drama students will present a series of one-act plays in Ruby Scott Auditorium May 5 and 6 at 8:30 p.m.

ALL IS READY — Workmen put the finishing touches to the inside of the U.S. Pavilion lunar exhibit at Montreal's Expo '67 which has its ceremonial opening today. Tomorrow, gates will swing open to the general public.

Expo '67 To Open To Public Tomorrow

MONTREAL (UPI) —Expo '67, Canada's $750 million World's Fair, opens its doors today for the titled and the elected. The public will begin pouring in tomorrow.

About 7,000 guests were invited to watch the colorful official opening ceremonies today on St. Helen's Island, one of the two islands on which the 1,000-acre exhibition dedicated to "Man and His World" was constructed. The other is Ile Notre Dame. The islands lie in the middle of the St. Lawrence River.

The most lavish among the exhibitions entered by 62 nations on five continents is the $15 million Soviet Union building. Its curved roof shelters replicas of Russian space vehicles and models of other technical projects.

The United States exhibit is connected to the Soviet Union's by a "peace bridge." Inside the U.S. pavilion, a plastic geodesic dome designed by R. Buckminster Fuller, and Apollo spacecraft hangs from the ceiling.

The dome, conceived by Fuller as the most efficient means of utilizing all available space in a structure, has been designed so that the plexiglass triangles that form its surface can be adjusted to control the temperature in the pavilion.

At 4 p.m. EST today Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson lights a flame that will burn throughout the six-month fair.

Pearson and Gov. Gen. Roland Michener lead a host of other Canadian dignitaries to the opening. Parliament wrapped up its current session Wednesday night in Ottawa to allow members to be in Montreal for the opening.

The ceremony was in an open amphitheatre called Place des Nations on St. Helen's Island. The concrete gathering site is surrounded by the flags of the 62 nations taking part in Expo.

The gates will open at 9:30 a.m. EST tomorrow to visitors expected to number 500,000 by the close of the weekend.

Novelist Repeats As Writing Winner

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Novelist Gerald R. Perreau - Saussine has again won first prize of $2,000 in the Samuel Goldwyn creative writing awards at UCLA.

Perreau-Saussine, 28, who also took the prize last year, won for "The Moonbathers," which he describes as a psychological mystery novel set in post-war occupied Japan.

G.M. Profits Down 34 Pct. For Quarter

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors Corp., the world's largest manufacturer, yesterday became the second of the "big four" auto makers to report drastic drops in sales and profits during the first three months of 1967.

In announcing that its first quarter profits were down 34 per cent from a year ago and its dollar sales down 14 per cent, G.M. executives predicted an upswing in the auto market following a period of "consumer uncertainty" earlier this year.

Chrysler Corp. last week reported its first quarter profits were down 70 per cent. Ford Motor Co. and American Motors Corp. have yet to report their first quarter results.

G.M. said its profits during the first three months of 1967 totaled $390 million, or $1.35 per share, on sales of $4.9 billion. First quarter profits during 1966 were $495 million, or $2.07 per share, on sales of $5.7 billion.

Frederic G. Donner, board chairman, and James M. Roche, GM president, were optimisic that the 20 per cent decline in auto sales by the industry will be erased as consumers gain confidence in the future.

They blamed the lack of confidence, strikes at the Mansfield and Norwood, Ohio, plants and an unusually hard winter in the Midwest and East for the decline.

Effectiveness Of Air Strikes On MIG Bases Concerns Pentagon

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the two North Vietnamese MIG bases struck by U.S. war planes was empty of Communist jets, Pentagon sources said today.

Only four MIGs were on the other base bombed by American jets Monday, the sources said.

Asked about this, a Defense Department spokesman said "we won't know for sure" how many Communist jet fighters were on the Kep and the Hoa Lac bases near Hanoi when they were bombed.

Because of poor weather, he said, there has been no satisfactory bomb damage assessment by reconnaissance planes.

The spokesman acknowledged that the Kep field — which sources said was bare of planes — has been undergoing extension of its runways. But he insisted that despite the construction work, the base 37 miles northeast of Hanoi is operational.

Another department spokesman disputed the report that only four MIGs were caught on the ground at Hoa Lac, 19 miles west of Hanoi.

In announcing the raids early this week, an official spokesma in Saigon said that Kep was known to have been the base for 19 or 20 MIGs while Hoa Lac was believed to have been the home of up to nine planes. This Hoa Lac estimate has been raised to about 15.

Air Force officers in Vietnam long have argued for striking the MIG bases in the North, contending the best way to destroy the enemy air force is while it is ground-bound, rather than taking on the MIGs in the air.

In the wake of the Hoa Lac and Kep raids, some critics complained the American raiders should have been allowed to take out all MIG bases — particularly the most important one at Phuc Yen, some 15 miles north of Hanoi.

This represented possibly a third of North Vietnam's air force, estimated at between 120 and 150 MIG jets.

The critics said the effect of only bombing Hoa Lac and Kep was to alert the enemy to concentrate antiaircraft guns around the other bases. This, they said, could mean heavier U.S. losses if the remaining fields are attacked.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said yesterday a longstanding decision against bombing the MIG fields was changed because "the MIGs have been much more active, they engaged our aircraft in air combat on several occasions and it seemed wise, therefore, to begin to attack their bases."

When asked what enemy activity McNamara was referring to, the Defense Department said the number of "encounters" rose from two involving 10 MIGs in February, to six involving 20 MIGs in March, to nine involving 39 MIGs in the first 23 days of April.

Flags Will Fly For Vietnam

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE, N.J. (AP) — All Cape May County government buildings will fly the American flag 24 hours a day for the duration of the Vietnamese war.

The County Board of Freeholders issued the order yesterday as a symbol of support for American servicemen.

"We want our fighting men to know we don't agree with draft card burners and draft dodgers," Freeholder Francis Townsend said.

Tam Red Cross Club Seeking Tanzania Aid

Tamalpais High School's Red Cross Club is seeking donations of clothing and school and first aid supplies for its second annual project to aid students in Tanzania.

Toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, first aid supplies, sweaters, pencils, pens and books are examples of goods that will be sent next month under the "Tam to Tanzania" program. Idea for the program came from Mrs. Katherine Flanagan, retired Tam teacher who taught English for the Peace Corps in Tanzania.

The "great poverty" of her students, she found, required her to teach basic hygiene and first aid as well as English. In the past year, the club has sent three shipments of supplies to the school where she taught on the slopes of Mount Kilamanjaro.

IT'S AN ARK!

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hafer, of 463 Montecito Drive, Corte Madera, are prepared in case the rain doesn't stop. A boat Hafer is building in his front yard bears the sign: "It's an ark! How long can you tread water?" Scott Hafer, 8, thinks it's better than a tree-house.

Daylight Burglar Nets $7,000 Haul

A burglar who forced open a door with a tire iron stole $7,503 worth of personal property from the home of Jules L. Gall at 920 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, during daylight yesterday, police reported.

Mrs. Gall discovered the burglary on arriving home in the evening. The entire house had been ransacked.

The list of stolen items included a .45 caliber automatic pistol, stereo equipment, musical instruments, cameras, television set, jewelry, liquor and silverware.

Mack N. Staley, owner of Sanapa Farms, 41 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, reported yesterday to police that two rose bushes worth $5 had been taken from a redwood planter box in front of his business.

The home of Wilson Fraker, 12 Stanton Way, Mill Valley, was entered last evening by a burglar, police reported, but nothing was taken. A door had been pried open.

Novato Fire District Trims Rate 12 Cents

The economy minded Novato Fire District Board last night trimmed $100,000 from the proposed budget for fiscal 1968, cutting the tax rate by 12 cents.

The $100,000 was cut from the capital improvement portion of the budget. The cut lowered the budget proposed by Fire Chief George Cavallero from $534,667 to $434,667, or $12,018 less than the current budget.

It will also lower the tax rate from 75 cents to 63 cents per $100 assessed valuation, Cavallero said.

The board cut $30,000 for a drill tower, $20,000 for site preparation and $50,000 from the building fund for Fire Station No. 4.

"Plans are not completed for the new unit at the present time, so there was no need to set aside capital outlay for future construction as we have done in the past," said Peter Ferrarese, board chairman. Ferrarese said that the board had calculated that the assessed valuation of the district would rise about eight per cent from $61 to $68 million.

Grand Jury Hears Of Narcotics Use

Vincent C. Chasten, narcotic field supervisor with the Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement, San Francisco, appeared last night before Marin County Grand Jury in regular session to discuss the problem of the use of dangerous drugs and illegal narcotics in the Bay Area.

Also attending was Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales. Jury foreman Clifford S. Lund said no indictments were returned, but an interim report will be submitted to the county board of supervisors Tuesday.

Marin's Mental Health Funding Pictured Bleak

Economy measures in the mental health field by the Reagan Administration may sharply curtail county services or increase county costs, the Marin County Mental Health Advisory Board was told last night.

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen told fellow board members, that Marin faces losses in state subvention of mental health programs ranging from $85,000 to $150,000.

TO LEAD GROUP

Kettenhofen said he will lead a "task force" to Sacramento Monday to discuss the situation with State Health and Welfare Agency officials. Accompanying him will be Dr. Richard Brunstetter, advisory board chairman; Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of Community Mental Health Services; Thomas F. Campanella, assistant county administrator; Mrs. Larry B. Mishkind, president of the Marin Association for Mental Health, and Mrs. Nevada Christian, association director.

Superior Court Judge Samuel W. Gardiner, presiding judge of the juvenile court, told the board there is need for closer cooperation between mental health agencies, the county probation department and the courts, particularly in the supervision of youthful probationers.

DRUG PROBLEM

He said only a small percentage of youthful offenders are repeaters but more effective probationary work is required for these.

Kettenhofen told the board that he had been disturbed by some aspects of last Saturday's conference at College of Marin on the drug problem among young people, sponsored by Marin Youth for Action. The supervisor said that Probation Officer Neil Abercrombie in an attack on existing laws had in effect "torn down society without giving young people something constructive to hang on to."

The board recommended that the county give careful study to the cost and effectiveness of its rehabilitation center for youth before phasing it out, as suggested by Administrator Alan Bruce.

The board also passed a resolution calling for county operation of out-patient care at the future Community Mental Health Center, with Marin General Hospital in charge of inpatient care.

Sergeants At Base Promoted

Technical sergeants who will become master sergeants are Kenneth P. Dudschus of 709 Sutro Avenue, Novato, and Morris A. Lasorda of 677 Owens Drive, Novato.

Staff sergeants promoted to technical sergeants are Odell E. Jordan of 1140 Ransome Drive, Novato; Ronald R. Mackie of 1085 Banta Court, Novato, and James A. Gardiner of Raphael Village. A/1C Jose R. Martinez of 775 Turner Boulevard, San Rafael, was also promoted to technical sergeant.

Woman Taken Out Of Bay At Belvedere

A San Francisco woman was rescued by a Belvedere resident from cold bay waters near Corinthian Yacht Club yesterday after she tried to swim home because "God told me to go in."

Karen Fulton 21, of San Francsico, told Belvedere police she left her baby-sitter job on Golden Gate Avenue, shortly before 5 p.m. and started to walk downtown to catch a bus.

She told police that as she passed the waterfront corner of Bayview and Beach Road, "God told me to go in." She said the water didn't feel cold, so she plunged in and started swimming toward San Francisco.

But, when she stopped to rest at a buoy near the yacht club, she was seen by William James Ferguson of 284 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere, who was working on his boat. Ferguson rowed out and pulled her from the water, took her to the yacht club and called police.

Belvedere Patrolman William P. Brust said that while being questioned, the woman several times "flew into a frenzy" but denied taking LSD or any drug. She was taken to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Who's Lost? Cub Scouts Went Hiking

Maybe 14 Novato Cub Scouts were't lost yesterday, but a good many police, firemen and other searchers thought they were.

A group of 19 Cubs and three den mothers started hiking up Mount Burdell near Novato at 3:30 p.m. The hike went well until five of them, and den mothers Mrs. Ann Marie Canziani, Mrs. Marilyn Schyberg and Mrs. Marion Oppenlander stopped to rest briefly.

The other 14 hiked on, and were soon out of earshot. Mrs. Canziani and the five Cubs turned back and the other two women started up the trail in search of the others.

Mrs. Canziani notified Novato police when the group had not returned to the starting point by 5 p.m. Volunteers set out on foot, motorcycle and Fire Department jeep.

The search ended at 6 p.m. when the two den mothers and 14 boys trudged in to the starting point.

Marin City's Center Grant Of $252,967

Approval of a $252,967 grant for Marin City's Manzanita Neighborhood Center was announced yesterday by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The grant will finance about two thirds of the $379,450 center, which will include facilities for recreation, vocational and remedial training, social service work, a library and health clinic.

Work on the center is to begin later this spring. An existing 12,920-square-foot building will be renovated, and two additions, totaling 8,300 square feet, will be added on the 3.8 acre site off Drake Avenue.

Little Change Due In Flood Tax Rate

A preliminery look at next fiscal year's budget for Flood Control Advisory Board 6 — which concerns San Rafael Meadows — indicates little change from the present tax rate of 20.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation, Charles E. Murphy of the county public works department said today.

Meeting last night, the board asked Murphy for more information before it makes its final budget recommendation to the board of supervisors. The advisory board will meet again next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in room 342 of the Civic Center.

$60,000 For Added Parks Land Is Asked In Budget

A San Rafael parks capital improvement budget including $60,000 for land acquisition was presented to the city park and recreation commission last night by Director Andrew J. Snyder.

The $60,000 would be used to acquire park land in East San Rafael and in the vicinity of Twelveoak Hill and San Rafael Park developments.

In addition, Snyder proposed adding $500,000 to the $51,000 carried over from this year for Montecillo Park, location of which now is in doubt. This would be for development unless it were necessary to use part of it for land, he said.

Kaiser Foundation is discussing purchase from the Freitas estate of land which might intrude on the five acres adjoining Don Timoteo School which the city had planned to buy for Montecillo Park. However, there is nearly eight acres of useable land elsewhere in the same 28-acre parcel owned by the Freitas estate, Snyder said.

Also it is unclear yet whether the land sought by Kaiser for expansion of its hospital would include that considered by the city, he reported.

This was to be a 65-acre park donated by the Freitas estate. However, refusal of some of the heirs to agree to the donation apparently has killed the plan.

"I don't think we'll ever get to first base there," declared commission chairman Charles L. Tacchi, directing the amount be deleted.

The proposed capital improvements budget also includes $65,000 toward a community center building, probably to be located in Albert Park. The same amount was budgeted for this year, but was deleted when city revenues failed to come up to expectations, Snyder reported.

Also included are $8,500 for sidewalk, play area and drainage work at Gerstle Park, $10,000 added to a $17,500 carryover for Albert Park lighting, and $6,500 for small landscaping projects.

Snyder also presented plans for an expanded summer recreation program.

summer playground program will have a theme each week.

This year, he announced, the For instance, one week will be "Crazy, Lazy Hobo Week." Children will make articles out of tin cans, and on Friday will dress as hoboes and have a "hobo party."

The summer program will run eight weeks, starting June 26.

The commission approved increasing the fee for "learn to swim" classes from $1.50 for eight classes to $2 for 10 classes.

Commissioner Dino Ghilotti was absent and Commissioner Howard Simon arrived midway in the meeting.

Service Station Reports Robbery

Two $25 12-volt batteries and $100 in cash were stolen yesterday morning from a service station at Francisco and Bellam boulevards, San Rafael police reported today.

Station owner Edward W. Moews reported the burglary, which he said occurred after 2 a.m.

Stinson Beach Fire Board Views Budget

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners last night adopted a preliminary budget of $16,000 for fiscal 1968, reported Commissioner Louis De Ghelder.

Up $3,000 from the current budget in order to buy a new fire truck, the preliminary budget for next fiscal year will add "two or three" cents to the current tax rate of 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation, he said.

Tools Stolen

A tool box, tools, fuel pump and propane torch worth $340 were stolen yeasterday morning from Arthur Ekman of 46 F Street, San Rafael police reported today. The items disappeared from an unlocked garage on the property, police said.

Poverty War Director For Marin City

Marin County Economic Opportunity Council last night hired James W. Coleman, 32, of Oakland, as executive director of the War on Poverty program in Marin City at $8,400 a year.

Coleman, a native of Meridian, Miss., served as project director last summer of the special summer youth project of Oakland's Department of Human Resources. For six years, he held executive posts with the Boy Scouts of America in Chicago and San Francisco.

A graduate of Arkansas State College, he did graduate work in political science at Roosevelt College, Chicago. He was a troop information instructor during his two years in the army.

He is single.

Coleman will start work Monday in the new Marin City target area office at 55 Park Circle. A one-year lease on the house was taken for $2,180.

Two community workers will be hired immediately, he said. Future plans call for hiring two additional workers, he added.

The council office will move sometime next month to 1380 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, announced Director Victor H. Cary. The 1,000-square-foot office was leased one year for "about" $4.20 a square foot, he said. The lease starts Monday, but the move will be delayed pending alterations.

Crowded? Marin Will Double Numbers By '85

Marin County, with a population 188,600 in July 1965, will double its numbers to 375,400 by July 1985, the State Department of Finance predicted yesterday.

Future mid-year estimates for Marin announced were: 225,500 in 1970, 270,500 in 1975 and 320,900 in 1980.

Marin would thus be keeping pace with the state as a whole, which is expected to nearly double its population during the 25-year period to a total of 29,475,000 by 1985.

Only two counties are expected to show a loss in that period, Colusa dropping from 12,600 to 11,600 and San Francisco from 743,100 to 737,100, the department predicts.

Los Angeles County, with a gain of 2,366,300, will grow most in numbers to a total of 9,234,600 by 1985. But Ventura County will win the percentage sweepstakes with a threefold growth from 302,700 to 822,000.

Tiny Alpine County, high in the Sierra, stands aloof from all this, according to the department, with 400 persons in 1960 and is expected to remain 400 in 1985.

A Calm Approach To Hippie Problem

The Corte Madera Parks and Recreation Commission last night calmed the fears of Ellen Wirth of Corte Madera, who wrote to the commission fearing that San Francisco hippies might overflow into Corte Madera park this summer.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said disorderly conduct sections of the State Penal Code would be sufficient to handle the problem of anyone trying to sleep in the park.

Judge Grants Wife Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Broderick Crawford has been divorced by actress Joan Tabor and ordered to pay $500 monthly alimony for five years.

Miss Tabor, 33, charged Crawford has subjected her to "physical and verbal abuse. He talked terribly and pushed me around quite a bit."

Superior Court Judge Richard Fildew granted her a default divorce yesterday and fixed the alimony based on her testimony that Crawford's income ranges around $1,000 per week.

Crawford, 55, and Miss Tabor were married in Las Vegas, Nev., Jan. 4, 1962 and separated July 1, 1965.

SOLONS VOTE ON JUDGES ASKED

Burns And Unruh Prefer Governor's Appointments To Those Of State Bar

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Senate President pro tem Hugh Burns proposed today that the legislature confirm all the governor's judicial appointments and said the state bar should keep hands off the selection of judges.

The Fresno Democrat's statement won the prompt endorsement of Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, who said "to substitute the invisible politics of the bar for the visible politics of the governor" would be a mistake.

They commented at a weekly news conference following a Senate committee's rejection of Gov. Reagan's proposal to have screening committees of lawyers and laymen help select judges. It was backed by the California State Bar Association.

Among the points they touched upon:

Burns predicted a bill liberalizing abortion laws in California will pass the Senate if the Senate Judiciary Committee approves it tonight. Unruh declined on chances in the Assembly.

Unruh, asked about lobbysts campaign contributions, said the financing of political campaigns was one of the nation's biggest problems. He called for government financing of political campaigns and warned politics is becoming "dominated by rich men and wealthy interests."

Burns' proposed revision of the system of appointing judges was as big as any change proposed in recent years.

He said that he will introduce a constitutional amendment next year giving the Senate — and possibly the Assembly — a veto power over the governor's judicial appointments by requiring legislative confirmation.

Burns also proposed that legislators be barred from accepting judgeships. The possibility of a gubernatorial appointment to a job on the bench often destroys a legislator's independence, Burns said.

Unruh was peppered with questions about a report on lobbyists submitted by Assemblyman Willie Brown, D-San Francisco, chairman of the lower house lobby control committee.

Unruh said the report hadn't been made public, declared he was not aware of any lobbying abuses at present but added that if Brown found anything wrong, he could proceed to suggest changes.

Missing Ingredient In San Rafael's Comeback

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce has made a dramatic comeback in the past six months.

Only last fall, it was dormant if not dead. It needed the infusion of new life and new inspiration.

New officers and directors who took over for the new year have pumped new life and enthusiasm into the organization. They have launched the Mission to Progress campaign, a program calling for a year-long observance of the 150th anniversary of Mission San Rafael. They have sent out circulars to prod the business community out of its lethargy.

The new regime is ready to go, but for one missing ingredient. That is the active support of the community.

The Chamber of Commerce, historically and traditionally is an organization of retail merchants and those who sell services including professional people. Support must come in the form of both enthusiastic personal participation in projects of the Chamber of Commerce and in monetary contributions to finance the various projects.

The rejuvenated San Rafael Chamber of Commerce so far has received less than full and enthusiastic support from the business and professional community.

Cities across the nation face a mounting number of problems, and the active participation of civic booster groups is necessary if these problems are to be licked.

Cities in Marin County are no exception. They suffer from downtown traffic congestion which threatens to strangulate business, with a consequent fall in property values and a drop in tax returns to the city treasury.

San Rafael's problems can be expected to get worse before they get better. Active assistance of a lively Chamber of Commerce is needed to cope with the problems.

We hope that those who should be active supporters of the Chamber, but who have not yet come forth, will now do so without further delay.

In the next decade or two, many cities throughout the nation are going to stagnate. They are destined to become mired in a morass of tangled transportation and other problems. Let's hope that San Rafael will not be among them.

We can help San Rafael to avoid that fate by putting our shoulders to the wheel on such projects as the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce is now attempting to undertake in the form of its "Mission to Progress—'67."

'Been Raining All My Life'

When we spoke to a friend about our super-abundant rainfall this winter, he replied, with a knowing smile, "It's been raining all my life."

Certainly, many Marinites felt that way this rainy season.

Some might even agree with an explanation of an imaginative child, "The United States and Russia hurt the moon and made her cry."

LATE ARRIVALS FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR

A club called the "Procrastinators" finally got around to visiting the New York World's Fair — more than a year after it closed.

Looking around the almost demolished grounds, the club's president and founder admitted, "We assumed we'd miss a few things."

But the club's secretary saw a lighter side: "It's easy to get around," he ventured. "The lines are short."

Life is filled with so many opportunities and possibilities that all of us are forced to postpone some in order to follow through on others.

We should not be too worried then about whether we procrastinate. Rather we ought to concern ourselves about which things we put off — and why.

By doing the essentials first, in our duties to God, self and neighbor, we can be assured that whatever else we "let slide" will be of no great moment.

"Walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of the time."
(Ephesians 5:15)

Help me, Lord, to distinguish between key issues and sidelines.

Take Closer Look Under That Log!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Our county seems to be attracted by hate mongers, and potential killers, "if someone else does the dirty work."

A San Rafael cosmetic manufacturer advocates wholesale slaughter of citizens of the cities of North Vietnam and to top it all, sick (the democratic?) Chiang Kai Shek on them. We also have the head Nazi gangster of the U.S.A. in the county. Marvelous Marin.

I hope they don't roll over any more logs. You never can tell what's under them.

Republicans Only In Their Name

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the first 100 days of the new administration in Sacramento, our legislative representatives have introduced 5,000 measures, most of which in one way or another will deprive California citizens of some measure of freedom. If not directly, at least depriving them of some more of their hard earned dollars.

Our (Republican?) Assemblyman William Bagley is responsible for 30 of these measures. (Are you trying to break some kind of a record, Bill?).

Bagley is suppose to be representing, or at least, he was elected as a member of the Party of free enterprise, but most of his proposed legislation is aimed at aiding the complete socialization of our state.

With tongue in cheek, he supposedly worked for the election of our new governor, who is surprising some of the professionals, and most of all "the establishment," by attempting to carry out his campaign promises.

The Bagleys, Monaghans, Venemans, and others of their ilk, seem to have forgotten the mandate of the people who elected them. The election showed that most of the Republicans and a great many Democrats, liked what Reagan had to offer, and expected the representatives whom they elected, to aid him in putting it across.

Instead they choose to listen to the loud-mouthed minorities, and spend, spend and spend.

Gov. Reagan asked for a mere ten per cent reduction in cost to the taxpayers, because he felt that would be all a socialistic minded legislature would go for, and they yell their heads off about him sabotaging our state institutions.

Show me a governmental bureau, from the county level on up to the federal government, that is not overloaded with deadwood.

I will go along with Dr. Parkinson's 11th commandment, (one Republican shalt not speak ill of another Republican), but first they will have to prove by their actions, that they are Republicans.

The Kuchels, the Bagleys and the Monaghans are Republican, only in name.

Declare War To Cut Off 'Peace Marchers'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: Marsha Kegg's letter April 18.

I am in full agreement with Miss Kegg. I believe that as long as we are fighting in Vietnam we should give all the support we can to our men there.

I also believe that we should not only give them financial support, but moral support also. I am sure that when the men in Vietnam heard of the "Peace Marches" at home they were disgusted. I wish that President Johnson would ask for a declaration of war, so that these peace-creeps would be silenced.

Bunny Contest Win A Fabulous Dream

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Remember the fabulous dreams you had as a child? The delightful thoughts of flying through the sky on magic carpets, lands full of lemonade and lollipops, and fun, food, and frolic that never ends?

Our children received a trip to that kind of paradise on April 15 and how can parents adequately thank all the people involved, who made these dreams come true? Can we only say "thank you" Corte Madera Merchants Council for sponsoring the "Color the Bunny Contest," by which these trips to Disneyland were made possible for many children? It just doesn't seem enough to say "thank you" Mr. Hollis Smith, chairman of the event, for all the hours of effort, to say nothing of having to judge close to 12,000 entries in the contest. "Thank you" Mr. George, travel advisor, who arranged the bus and air transportation, and made all its intricacies fit together like pieces in a puzzle. It is not enough, but until there is some other way to show our appreciation, it must do.

Aside from the pleasure this contest offered our children, let us again consider for a moment the fact that there were nearly 12,000 pictures lovingly colored and entered. Does this not show an interest by our young people in striving to do their best, in fair competition, to achieve a worthwhile price and recognition? We feel so. That is 24,000 hands working towards constructing rather than destructing. Could not various merchants councils merge, and work together to promote various interests for children to work towards, such as Corte Madera has done?

Thanks for the memories of a day never to be forgotten by our entire family, and to all who made it possible!

Let's Back Our State, Reagan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Except in the minds of the diehard and impractical dreamers, there is no practical or feasible method of removing Ronald Reagan from the office of governor. No amount of anguished wailing can argue with the million vote plurality that threw a very much discredited Brown and nearly all his administration out of Sacramento.

It is quite likely the new governor may close still more welfare centers and trim other unnecessary costs. In the matter of legal executions of murderers, he might even elect to allow the law to take its course and not be pressured by Judas churches who toll their bells or bands of blubbering sobbing individuals who in their unthinking hysteria, completely forget the victims.

It would seem in the name of common sense that these people and some of our misguided churches might better direct their wasted and mispent energy in supporting Reagan in his fight against welfare excesses, crime and high taxes.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

GOP Already Having Problems Of Finding A Real Candidate

WASHINGTON — The main reason that Charles Dillon Stengel and the New York Yankees won the pennant (with a regularity that gave Yankee fans the kind of arrogance of power that Senator Fulbright sees in the nation as a whole these days) was that the team had the best farm system in the majors. It regularly produced new players and new faces and it made Stengel's task relatively easy.

The Republican party, unfortunately, has been unable to develop a farm system, and that is its great weakness. The last time it won nationally was with a war hero, and in order to have war heroes, you have to have wars, which is probably not a healthy way to produce winning Presidential candidates.

IN THEORY 1968 presents a golden opportunity for the Republicans. They face a President who, for all of his political mastery, legislative accomplishment, and good intentions, is not universally loved. He has not been able to shake off the image of a Pedernales medicine man, and his pronouncements are suspect.

Further, he is bogged down in an unpopular war in Vietnam. There is a lingering, dimly perceived, national sense of unease over the Kennedy assassination — at least the Kennedys have not forgiven President Johnson for happening to be the vice president who benefitted from the tragedy.

AGAINST THIS background, whom do the Republicans offer to the people? Chuck Percy, the all-American boy, seeking the White House in the Horatio Alger tradition which tells us that nothing is beyond reach if only we will work 16 hours a day, eat our Ralston and wash behind the ears. (But would you want a Chuck in the White House?)

George Wilcken Romney who, when chided for having no position on Vietnam, sat down with his advisers and invented one. Like Stuart Symington, Romney looks like a president, but as Symington has demonstrated, that isn't always enough.

Still, Romney may yet overcome his background and prove that an average American youngster with five grandmothers, born in a polygamist colony in Mexico, and married to a former Hollywood actress can still become President.

RICHARD NIXON. He and the late Checkers were accepted by the voters in the Eisenhower years, but he was rejected in 1960 (by a narrow margin) and he could not be elected governor of California in 1962 (although the recent election of Ronald Reagan proves that Nixon's failure to achieve that office should not be held against him).

Nixon is clever, quick, and although he is not often given credit for it, he may have the best mind of any of the Republicans. But his erratic and highly volatile press conference after he lost to Pat Brown in 1962 ought to be re-read by any thoughtful citizen who contemplates sound sleep with Nixon's finger near the button.

As for Reagan, despite the sincere, stage mannerisms, he has yet to prove that beneath the pompadour there is more than a shallow figure cracking bad Hollywood jokes and, for reasons that defy logic, being taken seriously as a candidate for the most powerful office in the world.

THAT LEAVES NELSON Rockefeller, who says he won't run, which nobody believes. He is probably the only Republican who might win in 1968 and for that reason, the party, with its sure instinct for defeat, will probably not nominate him.

Some party professionals seem to fear that his marital difficulties have marked him with the image of a man who sneaks off to the newsstand on his lunch hour to read Playboy.

But he is much closer to the mainstream of American thought than the party's last incredible candidate, Barry Goldwater, whose chief contribution to the national welfare was to design a pair of men's boxer undershorts with ants on them.

SO DO NOT complain too loudly about President Johnson. For all his faults—including adopting Goldwater's Vietnam policy—he is likely to be around for another four years. The American people may still decide they would rather have a man who abuses his dog occasionally than one who tries to put him on the ticket as a running mate.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

California Does Indeed Need A Modern Legislative Building

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The idea of Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, for a huge legislative building to be a part of the capitol complex is not a new one. Senator Collier proposes a skyscraper of some 24 stories, to house the state legislature, all its attaches and the aides who keep the wheels moving.

The proposed building, which is in the initial planning stages, is estimated to cost about $32 million, and it would be located just east of Capitol Park in Sacramento, on two blocks of land which already has been purchased or is in the process of purchasing, by the state for the capitol complex.

THE PROBLEM of space for the growing functions of government is one which has plagued not only the legislative, but also the executive branch of government for the past half century.

When the capitol annex was constructed less than 15 years ago, it was thought at the time sufficient space would be provided for a generation to come.

However, it didn't work out this way, and demands for more space were apparent scarcely before the annex was opened.

Thus, the present state capitol and annex are hopelessly inadequate to meet the growing demands for legislators, attaches, committees, and others who need to be housed with offices befitting their stations.

THE OLD STATE capitol building itself, started soon after the Civil War, is a crumbling structure, built of brick. For years, attempts have been made to keep it from leaking, but no matter how much it is repaired, every rain brings its toll. It is kept alive only through extensive continuous repairs and painting, which cost the taxpayers, it is estimated, much more than would construction of a modern building.

In addition, the old capitol dome, once a great tourist attraction, has been closed to the public for years, because of an unsafe stairway. The elevators are antiquated, employees are forced to work in airless inner rooms lighted only artificially, and it takes something of a mathematician to figure what floor you're on when going between the old building and the annex.

MANY ADHERE to the contention that the best thing that could happen to the old capitol building would be to start at the gilded knob at the top of the dome, and tear it down brick by brick until even the 12-foot brick foundation is gone, thereby relieving the taxpayers of additional maintenance cost.

There are others, of course, who think it should be maintained as an historical replica of California's early days, and this may have some merit if there's plenty of money to spend.

HOWEVER, IT probably will be a good many years before the legislature goes modern with a new skyscraper, if the sample of the governor's mansion is a criterion. For more than 30 years, there has been agitation to replace the mid-Victorian mansion at 16th and H streets with a modern structure in a desirable part of town.

So far, however, it's only been agitation, and Gov. Ronald Reagan moved out to live in a little more modern home, at least temporarily. At least, where there's talk, there may eventually be some action.

Campaign Subsidy Law Fight Looming

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Second only to his fight to regain his House seat, Adam Clayton Powell is interested in what happens to the controversial campaign subsidy law now under fire in Congress.

While waiting in Bimini for the courts to rule on his petition to upset his expulsion Powell has made frequent calls to members of the Democratic House Study Group to keep abreast of the behind-the-scenes developments in these two front-page controversies.

TO THE SURPRISE of those liberal Democrats who favor seating Powell, the unfrocked Harlem politician always links his own seating battle with the campaign subsidy fight.

Specifically, Powell usually seeks the latest information on the legislative efforts to perfect the so-called "third party" provision in the 1966 Election Fund Act, which provides for the financing of presidential campaigns by a tax check-off system.

Under this provision minor parties can qualify for post-financing of their campaigns if they receive 5,000,000 votes in 1968.

THE CANDIDATE OF such a party would be entitled to reimbursement at $1 for each vote over that number. Several proposals now being pushed in Congress, which Powell favors, would lower this requirement to 2,000,000 votes.

Main provision of the campaign subsidy law provides that the Democratic and Republican parties could receive up to $30 million each to finance their 1968 presidential campaigns. The money would come from taxpayers willing to earmark $1 on their income tax returns for the subsidy fund.

Powell, who after his ouster from the House called for "the birth of a black political power third force" has been in constant contact with Dr. Martin Luther King, discussing both of these controversies.

THE MILITANT KING, who is trying to form a coalition of anti-Vietnam war protesters, civil rights and student groups, wants Powell to join him in criss-crossing the country to promote the idea of a "Peace Party" for 1968.

King and others have suggested to Powell that he kick off the new party campaign when he delivers the keynote address to the first national conference of elected Negro public officials in Los Angeles on May 26.

By then Powell's lawyers hope to have a favorable court decision ordering the House to seat the Harlem Democrat. Even if the court should rule this way, it is very doubtful the House would agree to seat Powell.

HISTORIC CASE—This legal confrontatiion is being looked on by Democratic leaders as a major constitutional test of the separation of powers of the judicial and legislative branches of government.

POWELL'S COURT battle will shortly be supported by the opening of a "second front" by his backers in Congress. These legislators will push for the Harlem Democrat's seating following the certification of his re-election by New York's Governor Rockefeller.

John Ciardi Packs Powerful Poetic Punch In Today's World

Anyone who thinks poets are all hairy hippies howling in the wilderness, frustrated spinsters dreamy-eyed behind thick glasses, or would-be writers who flunked classes in punctuation, should have seen John Ciardi the other night.

His appearance at the College of Marin didn't draw nearly so well as the other lecture in the series I managed to attend this year — Dr. Louis S. B. Leakey's great talk on evolution and progress. However, the COM gym was comfortably populated.

AS SOON AS the audience found out how thoroughly and warmly Ciardi was in and with today's world, the crowd was warmly "with" him. Perhaps some of the educator-types squirmed at what he had to say about teaching poetry to youngsters, but they could not but admit he knew what's what.

This neatly-combed gent in the business suit has been a teacher, esteemed critic, sophisticated world traveler (self admittedly with a credit card and airplane ticket rather than barefoot with a banjo on his back) and above all, a successful, published writer.

FROM THE SUBLIME to the Gorblimey, as the Cockneys like to say:

I think the Internal Revenúe Service may be in trouble with the U.S. Post Office, and maybe even with San Diego's Rev. Assemblyman E. Richard Barnes, prime mover of the recent California CLEAN proposition.

My wife recently dutifully applied for Social Security and other documents necessary to employ a teen-ager as kennel help.

Years ago, a former owner lovingly named our little Black Point homestead "Fiddler's Green," after the Irish sailor's mythical heaven beneath the sea.

But we live in fear and trembling these days, that a postal inspector will come tut-tutting to our door, or that Rev. Barnes will try to put us in his directory of things offensive.

At the very least, Uncle Sam is guilty of official editorializing about the nature of a dog kennel.

You see, as our federal mail now shows, Uncle Sam has us in his records as "Piddler's Green."

ALL THIS GLOOMY weather should contain at least one ray of sunshine for those worrying about Marin overpopulation. We have it on good authority that the heavy rain and April snows are the rising curtain on the next Ice Age.

At the very best, Marin will become a subarctic rain forest like the Olympic Peninsula.

AND WHO from Kansas will want to live here then?

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

The Marin County supervisors gave tentative approval to a plan for county-wide garbage disposal which would involve construction of two disposal plants at a cost of about $2.5 million.

Mill Valley Elementary School District trustees passed a resolution of intention to adopt a $1 million budget, largest in the history of the district's operation.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County and state health officials initiated a sewage survey of Richardson Bay in an attempt to prove that setting up a Southern Marin Sanitation District would be the best solution to the pollution problem.

MORRIE RYSKIND

It's A Mess, But There's Still Some Balm In Gilead

SPRING WAS STRICTLY for the birds this year. The swallows came back to Capistrano on schedule; but, for the rest of us, the long, cold winter was followed by Dr. Matrin Luther King and the long, hot summer that inevitably comes in his wake.

The record, alas, shows we are in the red — and it isn't all ink. Some of it is the precious blood of Americans dying in Vietnam.

There was that consular treaty with the Russians, heralded as ending the Cold War. For almost 50 years we had been absessed with the paranoiac notion that the USSR intended to conquer us by hook or by crook, and it was high time to make amends for our unjust suspicions.

True, all her statesmen from Stalin to Kosygin had echoed that threat, but it was only harmless campaign oratory. If Russia erected the Berlin Wall, put missile sites into Cuba and gave Ho a few hundred Migs, that was only Foreign Aid to Underdeveloped Nations, surely a noble cause.

SOME DISSIDENTS argued we had enough treaties as it was. We already had alliances with some 40 nations to whose defense we were pledged, but where it was unsafe for our Vice-President to visit if he came without money. In Pakistan, allegedly a member of Seato, even ex-Veeps were not welcome.

But that was obvious picking. After all, both Humphrey and Nixon escaped with their lives, and what's a little rock-throwing between friends? And if Old Glory could be burned to ashes in New York, why not in Paris?

So the Senate passed the treaty, confident it would not only end the Cold War but also widen the split between the mellowing Russians and the intransigent Maoists. Twenty years ago, the same advocates had argued the Red Chinese were just agrarian reformers, and the Kremlin the implacable Marxists. But that was an unfortunate typographical error. It should have read vice versa.

THE TREATY, despite its detractors, seemed to pay off immediately. Peking reacted by calling Kosygin a "capitalist tool," and Brezhnev a "betrayer of the Revolution."

I was not convinced the Russkis had mellowed, but Brezhnev made a bum out of me by turning the other cheek to this barrage. He replied by urging that Russia and China forget their differences and unite to drive the Yankee imperialists out of Vietnam. Which sort of made bums out of the treaty signers, too.

Tito, whose communist economy is a showcase — because of a billion U.S. dollars, extracted from the sweat and taxes of us capitalist slaves — got into the act, too. Not on our side, but on the side of those we had so successfully wooed him from. He accused us of wholesale genocide — which ought to get him another billion or so from our grateful government.

(I TRUST THIS will not destroy his cordial relationship with Earl Warren, who has so often been entertained by the Marshal when visiting Titoland. The Justice frequently frees murderers who have spoken too freely to the police; whereas the Marshal has just imprisoned a writer who spoke too freely. But civilized men can remain friends even when they disagree philosophically).

Then there's the President of Ecuador, who feels that every dollar we spend in Vietnam is taken right out of his pocket; and, of course, the omnipresent Dr. King, who staked out first claim on that money. If we ever do get Ho to the conference table, there is still the danger that war may break out between Ecuador and the followers of the Reverend.

IT'S A MESS, as you see, but there is still some balm in Gilead. And my Uncle Gregory Award goes to the three colored ministers in Chicago who have charged Dr. King with exacerbating the race problem by leaving a legacy of hate wherever he has gone.

Said one, asked on TV what he would say to King, "I'd say get the hell out of Chicago — and stay out. We were getting along fine till you came."

Not very churchly language, but it has the advantage of being readily understood by the laity.

Tract Changed To Meadowood

The Larkspur Planning Commission Tuesday night approved Meadowlark Co.'s request to change the name of the Meadow subdivision to Meadowood, and to change the name of Epidendio Way to Meadowood Drive.

The commission also granted Meadowlark Co. and Schultz for filing final maps for Meadowwood and for Greenbrae Marina Unit Three.

The commission approved rezoning the south side of Industrial Way for light industrial. It is now unzoned.

Bill By Clausen To Protect Flag

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Desecration of the American flag would be a criminal offense under a bill introduced yesterday in Congress by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, Calif.

"Several times in recent years, Mr. Speaker, we have witnessed our flag spit upon, trampled and burned in the streets," said Clausen. "This distinguished body has seen fit to make it a federal offense to destroy a draft card. We must, in my judgment, render the American flag the same respect."

A companion bill has been introduced in the Senate by Minority Leader Everett Dirksen, R-Illinois. Some 25 similar bills have been introduced in the House.

Probation Given For Petty Theft

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court Tuesday placed Shirley Anne Ogletree, 23, of San Francisco, on three years probation following her earlier guilty plea for petty theft with a prior conviction.

She took three women's suits from Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera Jan. 31. She pleaded guilty.

Coppolino Case Defense Rests

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — Without putting the defendant on the stand, the defense today rested its case in the first degree murder trial of Dr. Carl Coppolino.

Coppolino, who testified in his own behalf last December when he was acquitted of the murder of a neighbor in New Jersey, was accused here in the death of his wife.

"If it pleases the court," said defense attorney F. Lee Bailey, "the defense rests." He closed his case without calling several witnesses flown in from New York.

The state closed its case Tuesday but continued to call rebuttal witnesses for an hour after the defense rested.

Nun Will Head Hospital Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Roman Catholic nun, said to be the first ever named to the position, is the new president-elect of the Association of Western Hospitals.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Handling Youthful Runaways Requires Much Understanding

VAN DELLEN

Why do children run away from home? Some are adventuresome. Those seeking excitement usually are not unhappy and plan their departure. They may change their mind if life in the home is made more interesting. Many do fairly well when satisfactory employment is obtained away from home.

The situation may be different when the flight is provoked by anger, resentment, or an unhappy home life.

SOME youngsters have done poorly in school and fear disapproval. The parents may be too strict or hypercritical. Sibling rivalry may be responsible; especially when it is fostered by parents who compare one child with the other.

The resentful child often leaves home to punish his parents. Hurtfulness may be the result of real or imagined injustices. He envisions the parents' concern over his whereabouts and their longing for his return.

THREATS TO leave home should not be taken lightly. Try to find out why he wants to go. Telling the teen-ager to leave if he wants to gives him another reason for escape and further resentment is inevitable.

The spur-of-the-moment runaway seldom goes very far. He may wander about all afternoon or ride the subway until hungry, exhausted, or broke.

Many of these children are repeaters when home conditions become unbearable.

THE OUTCOME is best among those who leave to improve their lot or perhaps that of the family. They are conscientious and industrious and seldom have spitefulness or resentment in their make-up.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

YOUNG NOT IMMUNE

G. T. H writes: I always thought that diverticulosis affected only older people but have just received this diagnosis at age 35.

REPLY

Your idea stems from the frequently quoted estimate that by age 50, one-half of the population has developed from one to hundreds of these pockets in the intestine. This does not mean that younger persons are immune.

DISLODGED BONE

Mrs. N. writes: What is Osgood-Schlatter disease? Is it found only in children?

REPLY

This condition is a bone disorder of children and young adults in which a piece of bone dislodges from the surface of the joint and produces pain, swelling, and interference with stretching of the involved leg.

ALCOHOL AND VITAMINS

A. B. F. writes: Does the excessive use of alcohol deplete the supply of vitamins in the body?

REPLY

This may be true of vitamin B, which apparently is required in the metabolism of carbohydrates, including alcohol.

Senate Votes For Revising Unification Law

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A revision in California's controversial school unification law, sought by Gov. Reagan, has been approved unanimously by the Senate and sent to the Assembly.

The Senate gave approval yesterday to change the requirement that non-unified school districts throughout the state must hold elections every two years until they unify.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, would change the mandatory election interval to five years.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, sponsored the original unification law in 1964, contending school districts should unify to make administration more efficient and to improve the quality of education.

Military Housing For Key Witnesses

WASHINGTON (AP) — To keep threatened witnesses and prosecuting attorneys out of reach of gangland vengeance attempts, the Justice Department will occasionally house them on military bases.

It was learned yesterday that the Justice and Defense Departments have worked out an informal agreement to do this as needed when they feel the safety of principal figures in a trial cannot be guaranteed any other way.

Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Costs

Land and improvements purchased for the Corte Madera Creek flood control work from the bay to Bon Air bridge have cost a total $927,006.36, considerably above the $750,000 estimate when the work was authorized by county supervisors over a year ago.

Construction of the earth bank ditch, expected to cost $600,000, will start in June. The work will be financed by federal money. Land and property acquisition costs are paid by the state.

Court Ties Miranda Decision To Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's Miranda decision — requiring that suspects be told of their right to counsel at all times and their right to remain silent — has been held applicable to military cases.

In a 2-1 decision, the U. S. Court of Military Appeals overturned yesterday an earlier military appeals court ruling, which said it was not necessary for military counsel to be present at all times during an investigation to insure the suspect understood his right to remain silent.

The majority decision by Associate Judge Homer Ferguson said the ruling will affect all military cases tried on or after June 13, 1966 — date of the Miranda decision.

The opinion involved the court martial of Airman 3C. Michael L. Tempia, New York City, convicted June 14, 1966 — one day after the Miranda decision — of taking indecent liberties with three 10-year-old girls May 1, 1966, at Dover Air Force Base, Del.

Tempia, sentenced to a bad-conduct discharge, forfeiture of all privileges, confinement at hard labor for six months and reduction of rank, appealed on grounds his pretrial statement — given without counsel — was allowed as evidence at this trial.

The U. S. Military Appeals Court ruled improper the refusal of a judge advocate to make available to Tempia counsel during the investigation by the special office of investigations.

Tempia's court martial was held at Dover AFB.

Phone Rate Need Called 'Desperate'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —The California Public Utilities Commission's hearing on an application by the Pacific Telephone Co. for a $181 million statewide rate increase continued today.

George H. Eckhardt, an attorney for the utility, told the commission in the opening session yesterday that Pacific Telephone was in "severe financial straits" and needed the huge rate increase.

"We need help and need it desperately," Eckhardt said.

He claimed the hike was needed for modernization and new types of service.

The increase would boost the monthly cost of one-party residential phones from $3.85 to $5.75.

Earlier, Los Angeles Deputy City. Atty. Charles Mattson told the PUC that the requested telephone rate increases are "unreasonable and clearly excessive."

He said that "using their figures the over-all rate of return is 7.19 per cent — clearly excessive."

The attorney noted that the maximum rate of return last set by the commission was 6.3 per cent and in asking for more that the phone company had "virtually defied all the rate-making principles" established by the PUC in the past.

29.5 Million Population Seen By '85

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's population won't swell quite as much by 1985 as earlier estimates had ti, but the state still should have 29.5 million residents by then.

That's more than 50 per cent higher than the present population of more than 19 million.

This is the substance of reviesd projections released yesterday by the state's financial and population research section.

Estimates in March, 1966, were for a 1985 population of 30.5 to 31.5 million. The revised lower figures are attributed to use of more recent population growth figures and refinement of the projection process.

One contributing factor is a predicted leveling off of the net annual migration rate to about 300,000 a year. Earlier estimates were as high as 340,000.

The revised estimates for July 1 populations are: 1970, 21 million; 1975, 23.59 million; 1980 , 26.41 million; 1985, 29.48 million.

And in 1985, the Los Angeles metropolitan area still should be the most crowded in the state with an estimated 9.23 million residents.

All metropolitan areas combined will make up the biggest portion of residents: 26.9 million compared to only 2.6 million in rural areas.

But the demographers in the research section warn, as they have in past years, "projections are emphatically not predictions of things to come."

Astronauts Named For Paris Air Show

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Astronauts Michael Collins and David R. Scott will represent the United States at the big Paris air show next month.

Acting Commerce Secretary Alexander B. Trowbridge said yesterday that Collins and Scott, both Air Force lieutenant colonesl, would be on hand for the opening of the $4 million U.F. exhibit May 26.

Powell Wants Courts To Rule On His Return

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A lawyer for Adam Clayton Powell said today the ousted Harlem Congressman wanted to return to the House through the courts rather than by his overwhelming victory in a special election.

Attorney William Kuntsler said that would be the only fair way for Powell to regain the seat he lost March 1 when his colleagues voted him out for alleged misuse of government funds.

Kuntsler appeared before the U.S. court of Appeals, asking it to rule quickly on Powell's appeal to force the House to take him back. He explained he wanted time for the Supreme Court to hear the case—if necessary—before the end of its current term in June.

Mental Health

Community Mental Health Services will observe Mental Health Week with open house on Tuesday at 710 C. Street. A film, "Bold New Approach," will be shown at 7 and 8 p.m.

Johnsons Get A Giant Tent

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas-sized tent has blossomed on the White House lawn.

Two hundred persons sitting down for dinner or 400 munching canapes at a reception can fit under the 50-by-90-foot tent. It completely covers the Rose garden outside President Johnson's office.

Robert Dowling, a New York real estate man who frequently has a finger in urban beautification projects presented it to the National Park Service, White House spokesmen said yesterday. They gave the cost as "under $10,000."

When there are no garden parties, White House groundskeepers will fold the tent and silently steal away so the flowers can get some sun.

Lagunitas Full Of Trout

JIM GILMARTIN

Take The Kids Fishin' In One Of Marin's Lakes

OVER THE RAINBOW — It's not exactly shooting fish in a barrel, but it's the next best thing.

I mean, the 1967 trout season opens Saturday and if you're a-hankerin' for a mess o' fish, Jeb, I've got just the place for you.

It's called Lake Lagunitas and if you don't string up your limit by noon opening day you get drummed out of the Isaac Walton League with a fishonorable fishcharge.

YOU SEE, Jeb, the sovereign and philanthropic State of California spends a good deal of money on your fishing recreation. Oh, Uncle Cal finds other ways to trim his budget, but when it comes to angling, he's the Big Spender from the West. Why, he plunks out 25 cents for every Rainbow trout he raises and plants in our old fishin' holes.

JUST LAST week, for example, Uncle Cal deposited 10,000 piscine two-bit pieces in Lagunitas and about 5,000 more in Rodeo Lagoon, just to mention two of his local depositories. He does this throughout the state, and frequently, so his piscatorial putout is considerable.

Anyway, as I said, you shouldn't have trouble catching your limit of 10 fish opening day.

SOME YEARS ago game wardens checked the action immediately after good old Uncle Cal planted 10,000 or $2,500 worth, of trout in Lagunitas. In one day, the angling army removed 7,000 fish. The next day 2,600 wound up in the fryin' pan and the third day the remainder of the 10,000 were caught.

It's almost like shooting fish in the barrel, so take your kids fishin' Saturday at the pot of gold at the end of the Rainbow. And don't worry, the state will replenish the supply next week.

I TALKED with Game Warden Al Giddings of Woodacre yesterday on trout prospects in Marin and was saddened to learn that Big Al probably will miss opening day for the first time in his 19 years on the fish and game beat.

GIDDINGS INJURED his back while deer hunting last season and spent most of the last six months either in bed, the hospital or a body cast. Compounding his misery, he slipped and fell down some stairs while attending an FBI refresher course for game wardens last week in Lake County and is back in bed. All sportsmen wish him a speedy recovery.

GIDDINGS SAID Lagunitas again will produce most of the opening day action. Rodeo's also ripe for plucking, as is Bon Tempe reservoir, which received 30,000 state-bred subcatchable fish during the winter. They should be approaching skillet size right about now.

Nicasio Lake may produce some steelhead, said Giddings, plus some lunker trout left over from previous years. Nicasio's versatility also provides a mess of black bass and blue gill.

"Last week," said Giddings, "I checked a fella who had taken a couple of blackies weighing five and two pounds, so there are some big 'uns in there."

THE GAME WARDEN said the state favors Lagunitas and Rodeo in its planting program because " . . . they're small, round lakes and easy to fish. After all, we plant these fish to be caught."

He said long lakes like Alpine and Kent are not good because the wily fish move back into inaccessible areas and are difficult to reach. "The banks are too steep and quite dangerous for children," he explained.

THE UNUSUALLY heavy rains have left Marin's streams quite high. "They're deeper than I can ever remember," said the game warden, who always gets his man, "and I imagine they'll be quite muddy and tough to fish. But there are fish in there."

The season opens one hour before sunrise Saturday. The usual state licenses, which help pay Uncle Cal's fish freight, and Marin Municipal Water District permits will be required.

Clay Must Make His Decision Tomorrow

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The government will give Cassius Clay two chances under two names to be inducted into the Army tomorrow.

"We will abide with him whatever name he wants," an induction officer said. "We will call him Muhammad Ali if he prefers when we ask him to take the one step forward to be inducted. If he refuses to take the step we will ask him under the name Cassius Marcellus Clay Jr.

"If he still refuses an officer will quietly take him from the group and into a conference room where the penalty for refusing will be explained to him. He will be returned later and asked if he has reconsidered.

"If he again declines he will be asked for a statement. Regardless of whether he makes a statement or not he will be dismissed."

Failure of Clay to be inducted would make him subject to a possible $10,000 fine, a five-year prison sentence, or both.

A last attempt by Clay's lawyers to keep the unbeaten heavyweight champion from facing criminal action if he refuses to be inducted was scheduled later today in federal court.

Giants Facing Weekend Jaunt To Los Angeles

ⓘⓙ Sports

FOURTH SECTION Thurs., April 27, 1967 41

Manager Dave Bristol's confidence in veteran relief pitcher Ted Abernathy helped the Cincinnati Reds continue in second place in the National League yesterday at the expense of the San Francisco Giants.

The 34-year-old Abernathy got credit for his sixth save of the young season. He quelled a late uprising to preserve Bill McCool's second victory over the Giants, 4-2.

The Giants, who head south to begin a three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers tomorrow night, were to conclude the Cincinnati series this afternoon.

McCool scattered nine hits before needing help from Abernathy in the ninth inning of his 4-1 victory over the Gaints in Cincinnati April 16. Yesterday, the young left-hander blanked the Giants for six innings, but was lifted when he issued his eighth walk to pinch-hitter Ollie Brown and a single to Tito Fuentes to open the seventh.

Gerry Arrigo struck out Ken Henderson. A wild pitch advanced Brown to third and he scored on Willie McCovey's grounder to second. Willie Mays' single to center scored Fuentes for the game's final run.

After Jesus Alou punched a lead-off single off Arrigo in the eighth, pinch hitter Tom Haller worked the count to two-and-one and Abernathy came in. The side-arm throwing right-hander walked Haller but retired the last six Giants to end the game.

"I'm just pitching more this year," was Abernathy's explanation for his success. "I only had seven saves all last year with the Cubs and Braves.

"Atlanta got rid of me because Clay Carroll was coming along so well for them," he drawled. "I didn't throw too hard for the Reds in the spring, but I told Bristol not to give up on me.

"I had a shoulder operation in 1959, so it takes me a little longer to come around, but I feel great now and can attribute my success to the fact I am working regularly."

McCool felt he threw a terrible game, but was thankful the Reds got off to a 4-0 lead, keeping him on the mound despite his wildness.

Derron Johnson hit a home run off Bob Bolin for the Reds' first run in the second inning. Don Pavletich's double and Tommy Helms' single made it 2-0 in the fourth.

Bolin was lifted after Tommy Harper and Art Shamsky hit successive singles in the fifth. Joe Gibbon forced Vada Pinson to pop out, but Ron Herbel served a run - scoring grounder to Tony Perez and Pavletich's single scored Shamsky for 4-0.

"I couldn't buy a strike if I were a millionaire," McCool offered. "I've had a cold and I didn't have any strength out there. I'm just fortunate the guys made good fielding plays behind me."

After McCool walked the bases full in the first inning, shortstop Leo Cardenas made a brilliant over-the-shoulder grab of Alou's short fly to left for the third out.

McCool was especially careful to McCovey, who drew walks his first three times up before rolling out his last two trips.

"You have to be real careful, with McCovey," said McCool, now 2-0. "You don't want him to beat you with a home run. I'd rather walk McCovey and face Mays, who isn't swinging like he can now."

Bolin, who lost his second game in three decisions, made no excuses. "My arm's coming around, he said, "but it's not ready yet."

Drysdale Requires Aid To Defeat The Braves

Poor Astros Lose Their 10th In Row

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Don Drysdale, playing a solo since Sandy Koufax' retirement, turned to his old "cousins" for support of an aching pitching record.

With visions of a career in show business after his baseball days end, the big righthander played his part to perfection last night in edging Atlanta 2-1 for his 29th career triumph over the Braves.

Drysdale had his lines down pat when he alerted Los Angeles manager Walt Alston after the seventh inning that he had about had it.

"It was cold out there and I knew I was losing a little on my fast ball," Drysdale admitted. "I told Alston and Lefty Phillips (Dodgers pitching coach) I would try to stick it out until we got down to Mack Jones. Then Ron Perranoski could get him."

ALLOWS SINGLES

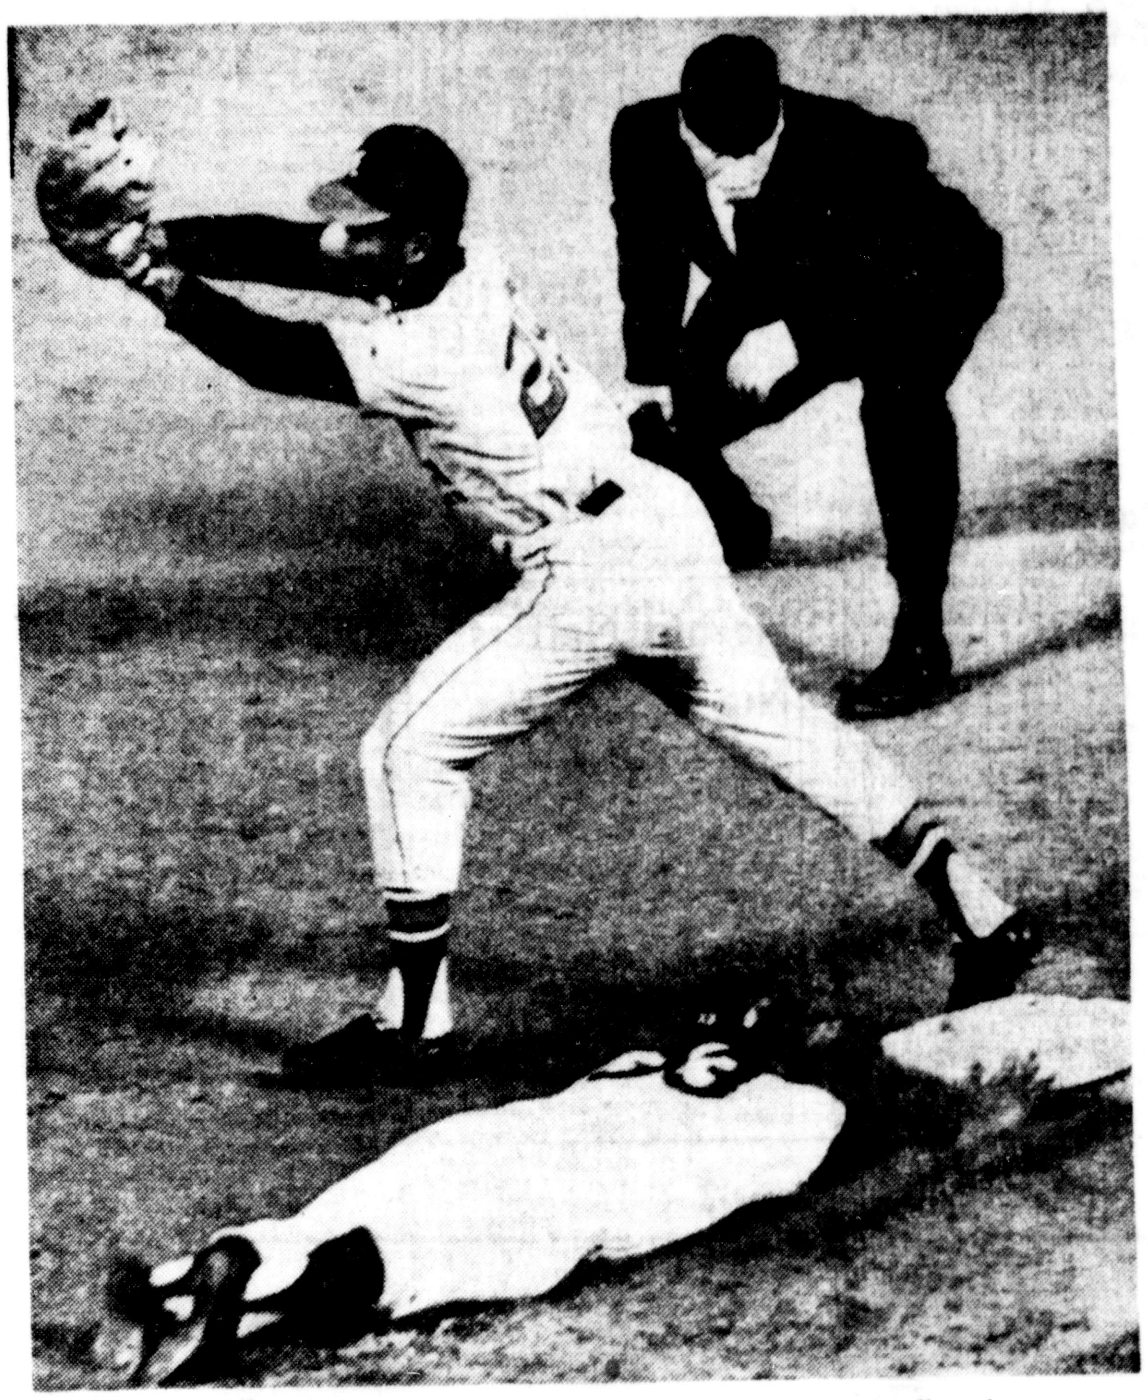
The drama was stark in the eighth inning as Drysdale, who had allowed only two singles through seven innings and carried a 2-1 lead into the eighth, gave up singles to Dennis Menke and Hank Aaron. Then with two out, Perranoski, a southpaw, came in to strike out lefthand batting Jones.

St. Louis defeated Houston 7-2 and Cincinnati beat San Francisco 4-2 in other National League action. The New York at Chicago and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh games were postponed by inclement weather.

Drysdale, who allowed an unearned run in the fourth when Bob Bailey dropped Felipe Alou's liner in left field, was backed with the winning run in the seventh on Lou Johnson's double and Ron Fairly's single that broke a 1-1 tie. Los Angeles scored its other run in the third on three walks by Wade Blasingame and Fairly's infield out.

ST. LOUIS LEADS

St. Louis stayed on top of the NL by a degree of percentage points as Lou Brock led the Cardinal attack with a triple that marked the 10th consecutive game in which he has hit safely. The loss was Houston's 10th straight, tying a club record set in 1963. Steve Carlton won his first victory of the year with ninth inning help from Dick Hughes.



NICE TRY — Dodgers' Ron Hunt makes an all-out effort for a base hit but his stomach slide was in vain last night as Atlanta first baseman Felipe Alou got the ball first. Umpire is Harry Wendelstedt. Los Angeles won, 2-1. (AP Wirephoto)

Today's Puzzler: Who Owns Oakland's Basketball Team?

OAKLAND (AP) — Who owns the Oakland franchise in the new American Basketball Association?

An Oakland group told newsmen yesterday it had purchased control of the club but ABA Commissioner George Mikan said in St. Paul, No they didn't. He was to fly here today to iron things out.

Hal DeJulio, who played on San Francisco's National Invitation Tournament champions in 1949 and now is an insurance executive, said he and associates would take over immediately.

Contacted in St. Paul by The Associated Press, Mikan said:

"There is a proper procedure in these cases and this group has done none of this. This is all news to me. They know my terms and requirements. Anything like this must be cleared through my office and the board.

"This has not been done. As of now, they are in violation of our by-laws."

He said DeJulio's group could contact him after his arrival.

Singer Pat Boone as president and Ken Davidson, a Southern California businessman, among the original stockholders, would retain their shares, DeJulio said.

But Dennis Murphy and his brother, John, general manager and assistant G.M., have been dropped.

Nick Klunis, a member of the Oakland group trying to buy the franchise, said it has $500,000 necessary to meet ABA requirements.

DeJulio said he would become general manager.

Redwood Nine Bombs Tam; Novato Edges San Rafael

Redwood High's Giants, coasting on the strong pitching and batting of Kevin Wilson, rebounded from Tuesday's loss to Marin Catholic by walloping Tamalpais Indians 14-0 in Marin Athletic League baseball action yesterday.

In the day's other game—both makeups from previous rainouts—Dan Granucci led Novato to a 3-2 victory over San Rafael.

Wilson personally outhit the Indians, 5-4, also drove across 4 runs and struck out 11 batters in first place Redwood's fourth victory against one loss, that 2-1 decision to Marin Catholic Tuesday. Leftfielder Scott Davis also drove home four runs with three hits while Keith Valk homered in the Redwood cause.

At Novato, leftfielder Granucci made two key defensive plays, including a game-ending double play, and relief pitcher Steve McNally singled home the winning run in the sixth inning after Gary Moore's sacrifice fly tied it up.

Billy Casper Favored To Win Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Billy Casper got the favorite's nod as the Texas Open Golf Tournament started today.

Casper and a field of 143 other pros, including a number of current champions, will be playing for a $20,000 first-place purse over the par 71, 7,138-yard Pecan Valley Country Club course.

The National Open champion fired a disappointing 72 yesterday in a pro-am preliminary to the richest — yet Texas Open. The round was played in an intermittent drizzle that slowed the greens.

Close behind Casper in the line up of favorites are 1966 PGA champ Al Geiberger, World Series of Golf winner Gene Littler and three players now ranked among the top 10 PGA tour money winners — Bert Yancey, Bob Goalby and Frank Beard.

Yancey moved up to sixth in the rankings this week after a $20,000 first-place win in the Dallas Open. Goalby, the San Diego Ope nwinner, is ranked ninth and Beard, winner of the Tournament of Champions, is ranked 10th.

Azalea Open winner Randy Glover, and three others in the top 20 money winners are also in the field. The other ranked money winners include Bruce Crampton, Chuck Courtney and Harold Henning, the South African who took top money here last year.

This is the first year that the Texas Open has been played at Pecan Valley and officials took pains to bring out the best in the course.

Each Warrior Will Pick Up $5,178 Share

The San Francisco Warriors lost the NBA championship to Philadelphia this week, but still wound up with $5,178.65 per man.

The Warriors' share of the playoff pool as runners-up and Western Division champs was $72,500 and the 12 players split it 14 ways. Coach Bill Sharman and trainer Donnie Watkins got equal shares and the management gave the same amount to assistant coach George Lee.

Lee, a resident of San Rafael, said he was not included in the players' share by mutual agreement. "An assistant coach is a nebulous thing," he said, "so we agreed to vote me out of the pool and give the players a larger share. The management matched their share for me."

The 12 players splitting the pot were Rick Barry, Fred Hetzel, Tom Meschery, Clyde Lee, Bud Olsen, Nate Thurmond, Al Attles, Paul Neumann, Jim King, Jeff Mullins, Joe Ellis and Bud Warlick.

Neumann, meanwhile, officially announced his retirement from pro basketball yesterday to become freshman coach at his alma mater, Stanford. He succeeds Bill Turner, who accepted the head coaching job at Portland University.

Ditka Goes To Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Surehanded Mike Ditka, the new tight end of the Philadelphia Eagles, is a rare example of a man who can have his cake and eat it, too.

When Ditka was traded yesterday by the Chicago Bears to the Eagles for quarterback Jack Concannon in a National Football League swap, he:

Pocketed $50,000 without a court suit.

Was certain to sign for a salary worthy of star status with the Eagles.

In agreeing to play with Philadelphia, Ditka — who becomes a free agent May 1 — says he lost a "once-in-a-lifetime" opportunity to join the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

PLAYED OUT OPTION

He later accepted $50,000 and a three-year contract reportedly worth $250,000 if he jumped to the Oilers this coming season.

When the AFL and NFL merged, it left Ditka's deal up in the air. Houston, in the interest of good harmony, said it did not intend to drag the Ditka case into the courts — and would let him pocket the $50,000.

"I'm not really disappointed that I didn't go with Houston," the 27-year-old Ditka said from his home in Downers Grove, Ill.

"Actually, I've got a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity in Philadelphia to start over with a new club. I feel the Eagles have a chance to win it all next season."

EXPECTS NO PROBLEMS

Coach Joe Kiharich of the Eagles said he expected no problems signing Ditka, who would be free to sell his services to any team if he's not satisfied with the Philadelphia offer.

Said Ditka: "We've talked about money and it won't be for the same deal as Houston — the Philadelphia deal is very fair to me and to the ball club. There will be no problem on a contract."

Last year he played more than his share, leading a late-season surge that put the Eagles in the Playoff Bowl.

Princeton Coach To Get Lakers Job

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Willam (Butch) Van Breda Kolff of Princeton was expected to be named coach of the Los Angeles Lakers' National Basketball Association team late today at a new conference.

Coach Fred Schaus of the Lakers would take over as general manager, informed sources said, while General Managaer Lou Mohs assumes a supervisory role in owner Jack Kent Cooke's sports empire — the Lakers, the new Los Angeles Kings of the National Hockey League and the Wolves of the United Soccer Association.

Cooke issued a terse "no comment" yesterday, when The Associated Press learned of the impending changes. Another report said Van Breda Kolff would sign a three-year contract at $30,000 a year.

CAN A SCOTCH MAKE HISTORY?

LOCHNESS, dominated by Urquhart Castle. Strategically situated, this castle for centuries controlled the whole upper part of the Great Glen. Less famous than the Loch Ness monster, but more reliable are the nearby distilleries that produce Highland malt whiskies for 100 Pipers Scotch.

So, in a way, by making people change their minds, 100 Pipers is making history.

Which is only fair, since history is what made 100 Pipers.

(100 Pipers comes from a long line of old Scotch whiskies renowned for their taste, such as the Keiths, the Glenlivets and the Macallans.)

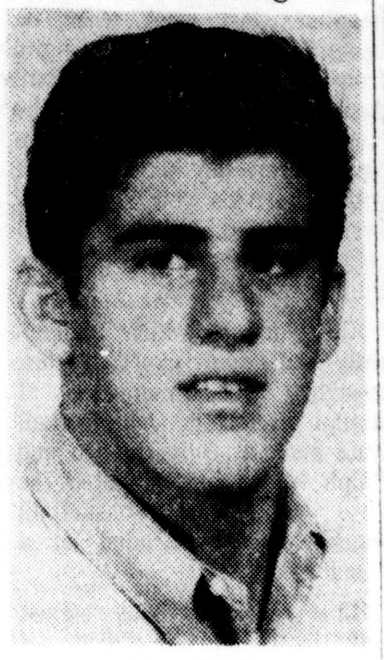
By GARY TISCHLER

The scene may have looked vaguely familiar to Marin Catholic catcher John Komo last Tuesday, although his foot wasn't in the shoe this time.

Marin Catholic nipped Redwood, 2-1, Tuesday to hand the Giants their first Marin County Athletic League loss of the season and the deciding run crossed the plate with the aid of a third strike.



JOHN KOMO

Komo came up to bat with two out in the bottom of the sixth inning and went down swinging against Redwood pitcher Mike Terry. But Giant catcher Bill Torrey dropped the hall, threw wild to first and Komo reached all the way to second on a strikeout. Rich Denning then singled him in for the deciding run.

TWO YEARS AGO, Komo was making his first start behind the plate, catching Brian King, the winning pitcher in Tuesday's cliffhanger. King struck out a Redwood batter for what should have been the third out but Komo dropped the ball, threw wild to first and the next Redwood batter belted a home run to give the Giants the win.

So, Bill Torrey, it's not such a lonesome world.

King, who pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 Tuesday, was starting after being out of school for three days with a touch of flu and high fever. Not bad for a sickbed case.

THE TWO MARIN Catholic runs, one of them earned, were the first runs of any kind scored against Terry, who was undefeated with an 0.00 earned run average going into the game.

Redwood kept up its average of a double play per game on a catcher-to-second-to-first twin-killing.

Marin Catholic was playing without any backup infielders. Both reserves were out with various injuries.

SOME OF the Drake High School aces who stood out in two, sometimes three sports for the Pirates this year are already headed for various universities and colleges.

Jerry Sprout, Drake's all-leaguer in basketball and football, has accepted a full football scholarship to Stanford. Karl Stein, an all-leaguer for the Pirates' championship football squad, has a full football scholarship at New Mexico State. Stu Clemmons, a starting guard on Drake's TOC basketball team, will be at College of Marin, tackle Carl Gonser has been accepted at Stanford and all-league basketball guard Chet Carlisle will head for College of Marin for six months, then for a six-month stint with the Army Reserve.

THERE IS A FAIR to middling possibility that the Marin County Athletic League track and field meet mark for the two-mile run will come tumbling down this year. Terra Linda's Bob Bunnel, the runner tabbed to turn the trick, has already run a 9:49.7 in dual meet competition. The record is 9:50.0.

THE MONSOONS in Marin County have caused all kinds of improvising among Marin County Athletic League coaches.

Redwood track coach Tony Bailey recently held an informal indoor track meet at Redwood's gymnasium, which may be the first indoor meet on record in the county.

It had everything from the shot and pole vault, to a wild steeple chase. Everyone reportedly had a good time as well as getting in some much needed and scarce practice.

Another 300 Line In ABC Tourney

The diminuitive Chicago pro stroked in 12 perfect strikes in his third game of the classic singles. He also had 182 and 205 for a seventh place total of 687.

The Shur-Hooks slumped to 2950 in their second outing yesterday but still managed to take the lead with a six-game total of 6,098.

White Sox' Gary Peters Beats Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — It might as well have been 80 degrees and balmy instead of 40 and frigid at Yankee Stadium yesterday for all it bothered Chicago's Gary Peters.

The American League's earned run leader last year, Peters breezed past New York 5-1 with a sharp four-hitter. It wasn't his favorite kind of weather, but it didn't affect his pitching.

"I prefer hot weather," Peters said later. "But I'm not terribly bothered by the cold. Once you get loose, you don't feel it and you don't get as tired in it."

Peters looked pretty hot to the Yankees, who didn't manage to hit against him until the fifth inning and scored their only run with two out in the ninth.

NEW SLIDER

"He showed me a slider I haven't seen before," said Elston Howard, who stroked the first hit off Peters after he had retired the first 12 batters he faced.

"My slider was sharp all the way," the White Sox' lefty agreed. "At first, I was getting my curve and slider both over but the curve started giving me trouble around the sixth inning."

Peters said the cold weather helped him because it caused the batter's hands to sting when they hit the ball.

"They don't like it and they tend to lay off the inside stuff because they're afraid of the sting," said Peters. "That helps the pitcher."

The White Sox hopped on Yankee starter Mel Stottlemyre for a run in the first and got four more in the third in a rally started by Peters' single and capped by Tom McCraw's three-run homer.

Peters coasted on the lead until the ninth when a walk, an infield out and Charlie Smith's double delivered the only Yankee run.

Peters then got Joe Pepitone on a bouncer to end the game. It evened his record at 1-1 and pushed Chicago over the .500 mark at 7-6.

The Yankees are 6-5 and have lost five straight to Peters in a string that stretches back to September, 1965.

"It was cold then too," smiled Peters.

The other four American League games were rained out.

Pinson Seems To Have 'Grudge' Against Giants

During the winter when he was having contract troubles with the Cincinnati Reds, Vada Pinson voiced the opinion that he made a poor choice when he originally signed with the Reds in 1956. He intimated that he would have been better off financially had he picked a richer club, such as the Giants.

How the Giants would have loved that but in 1956 their ties still were in the Polo Grounds and their primary scouting efforts were east of the Mississippi. If they had moved to the Golden Gate in 1956, instead of 1958, they undoubtedly would have been more cognizant of the flashy fielder at McClymonds High in Oakland.

STILL, PINSON probably would have signed anyway with the Reds because George Powles, his old high school coach, and Bobby Mattick, Red scout who signed Pinson, were good friends. Hadn't another McClymonds High star, Frank Robinson, signed with the Reds in 1953?

Perhaps it was Robinson's rebellion a year ago at his Cincinnati paycheck that got Pinson seriously thinking about his own take-home pay to his wife and four children. Robinson made it big at Baltimore, winning the triple batting crown of the American League, a World Series check and a hundred grand contract this year.

PINSON WAS WELL aware of how Cincinnati fans felt about the trade of Robinson to the Orioles for Milt Pappas, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. And Pinson figured that the Crosley Field fans wouldn't look kindly on the Cincinnati management if he were traded.

While Pinson was mapping his strategy for a substantial salary increase, Bill DeWitt, who had sent Robinson to the Orioles, sold the ball club for $7 million to Francis L. Dale and a group of Cincinnati civic leaders.

DALE AND THE NEW club owners promptly signed a new general manager, Bob Howsam, a soft-spoken and efficient operator who had engineered the Orlando Cepeda-Ray Sadecki deal for the Cardinals. Pinson and Howsam had no great difficulty in reaching agreement.

The Giants would have been pleased mightily if Pinson, like Robinson, had been traded into the American League. Pinson started his ninth full major league campaign this season as though he took particular delight in beating the Giants.

THERE'S NOTHING personal in it. He plays the same way against all opposition. But he seemingly is always delivering game disrupting hits against the Giants.

The first 1967 session between the Giants and Reds at Crosley Field April 16 was a tidy 1-1 ball game going into the eighth inning. Then Pinson touched off a three-run rally with a single. In the nightcap of that April 16 doubleheader, Pinson hit a two-run homer in the third inning and the Reds thereafter made it a 6-0 rout.

Bill Bradley Signs With N.Y. Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, Princeton's sensational star of two years ago, today signed to play with the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association.

Irving Mitchell Felt, chairman of the board of Madison Square Garden, said the four-year contract carried a sum "that is one of the largest ever paid to an athlete in a team sport."

Bradley, a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford since he was graduated by Princeton in 1965, had been drafted by the Knicks when he finished college, in the hope he would decide to play pro ball later.

Budapest Soccermen Defeat Englishmen

International Games Planned For Next Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Los Angeles and Lake Placid, N.Y., may be the sites in 1968 of the first John F. Kennedy International Memorial Games, a proposed streamlined version of the Olympics to be held annually in the United States.

Plans for the mammoth athletic carnivals, to be held in the summer and winter, were announced by the Amateur Athletic Union yesterday as part of a nationwide drive to build up a $10 million permanent fund for the development of U.S. athletes for national and international competition.

Col. Donald Hull, executive director of the AAU, said the first summer games were tentatively set for May 30, 1968 — a day after what would have been President Kennedy's 51st birthday — at Los Angeles, and the winter games for December, 1968, probably at Lake Placid, N.Y.

Hull, however, said at a press conference, that other sites could be selected.

"The sites have not been definitely set," he said. "The national committee will take this up soon. We expect to get other bids. News of this apparently leaked before we were ready for the announcement of the fund drive.

"Salt Lake City has expressed an interest in the winter games. New York, through Mayor Lindsay, or his spokesman, has expressed interest in the summer games.

"We probably will hold the games in different cities each year, but it's too early yet to say."

BASEBALL BUDGET CUT

Just Teach 'Em Says Rec Commissioners

Never mind the uniforms and the over-organization; let's just teach the kids to play pall!

With that theme, the San Rafael Recreation Commission last nigh changed Recreation Director Andrew J. Snyder's plans for summer baseball leagues into a baseball clinic, with a fee of $4 per boy, for all from 7 through 12 years old.

It left in abeyance whether to try to have a senior league for boys 13 through 15. Last year, so few signed up (at a $15 fee) that the league was abandoned.

Snyder propsed an $8 fee for the younger boys, with the city to furnish caps and shirts.

None of the four commissioners present at the meeting (Dino Ghilotti was absent) thought much of that idea.

"I'm sure there are a lot of little guys who would love to play baseball to whom $8 is a lot of money," said Commissioner Howard Simon.

Commissioner Troy E. Lewis proposed "giving each kid a cap" and letting him wear his own sweat shirt. The city would furnish balls and bats; the kids would provide their own gloves.

Simon urged a "baseball clinic" to teach the youngsters the fundamentals of the game, with league play secondary.

With that understanding, the commission directed the fee be cut to $4 — with the uniform shirts eliminated.

As to league play, Lewis suggested, "Let them toss up a bat and play top hand to choose sides like we used to do." Snyder felt, however, that a league for 7 through 9-year-olds and another for 10 through 12-year-olds can be organized along with the clinic.

Ellis' Move Might Start Bidding War

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Leroy Ellis, a 6-foot-10 product of St. John's, may have launched professional basketball into a price war similar to that which gave professional football a black eye a few years ago.

The big center, who made headlines last week when he became the first player to jump from the National Basketball Association and sign with the rival American Basketball Association, rejected his agreement with the ABA's New York entry yesterday and signed a second contract with the Baltimore Bullets of the NBA.

Ellis' action, which undoubtedly will spur court battles, brought back memories of similar incidents by football stars such as Billy Cannon and Ralph Neely and indicated the two professional basketball leagues may be headed for a "bonus war."

Ellis reportedly has signed with the Bullets for a contract that exceeds the $30,000 he agreed to with New York. The Bullets previously had stated they would sue Ellis in an effort to retain him.

Buddy Jeannette, general manager of the Bullets, was convinced the matter would go to court. Yet, Jeannette said he could foresee no all-out war.

"However, I do look for a few to jump leagues," Jeannette said.

Bourbons may look alike, too. But the similarity stops with the first sip of Jim Beam.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Excessive Politeness May Allow Your Partner To Lose

When either member of the partnership can win a trick there is no need to stand aside with a polite bow to let your partner have the honor.

Sometimes it is vital to jump in, even at the risk of being considered forward.

Opening lead — ♡ K

Declarer ruffed the opening heart lead in dummy an returned the king of diamonds.

This was his best play since, if South draws three rounds of trumps and then leads a diamond, West takes the ace of diamonds, draws the last trump and then runs the rest of the hearts.

EAST POLITE

East returned a club, and South stepped up with the ace, drew three rounds of trumps and began to run the diamonds.

West could ruff the fourth diamond, but declarer still had a trump to stop the hearts and could get to dummy with the king of clubs to discard his club losers on dummy's good diamonds.

SHOULD RUFF

It is vital to take the ruffing trick without allowing South to force out the ace of diamonds.

East returns a heart, forcing dummy to ruff.

Now declarer has a choice of evils.

West sill has the ace of diamonds and a sure trump trick, and South is sure to go down.

DAILY QUESTION

♠ A Q 6 3
♥ J
♦ 9 6 5 2
♣ A 7 4 3.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass. The hand is not quite worth an opening bid.

If the jack of hearts were a small card and you had A-Q-J-3 of spades, you might open the bidding with one club, intending to bid one spade if partner responded in diamonds or hearts.

A singleton jack is not much help, but the jack of a good suit is useful.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, April 27, the 117th day of 1967 with 248 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

Born on this day in 1791 was the inventor of the telegraph, Samuel Morse.

On this day in history:

In 1937, the first payments were made in accordance with provisions of the 1935 Social Security Act.

In 1965, Edward R. Murrow, newscaster and former head of the U.S. Information Agency, died at the age of 57.

A thought for the day—British poet John Dryden once said: "Pains of love be sweeter far than all of the other pleasures are."

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Never Too Late To Rebuild Lists

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I am rather a late beginner to be learning about and investing in stocks. But our family is raised, our bills paid and we have $5,000 in savings plus good insurance. I want growth over the next 10-15 years, not income, and own the following: General Tire; American Ship Building; Northwest Natural Gas. How can I improve my position?" R.M.

A. I don't believe that it is ever too late to invest in stocks, particularly when a man is as well situated as you are. Your judgment has been good and your stocks are relatively sound, but I believe some changes could improve your list.

General Tire and Rubber has had a good record, but for more assured capital enhancement, I would switch to American Home Products.

Q. "I am a young man about to begin an investment program. I would like your opinion as to the place of life insurance in such a program." J. G.

A. The first prerequisite in an investment program is an adequate savings reserve. Never look to your stocks in an emergency, since they fluctuate considerably and should never have to be sold during a period of decline. Life insurance comes next and the amount you carry depends largely on the degree of protection you need for your dependents.

(Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.'

Vigorous Rally, Mart Makes Another Leap

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied vigorously and closed higher today, making its tenth advance in elven sessions.

Volume for the first four hours was 7.2 million shares compared with 7.71 million yesterday.

In early trading, the list continued irregularly lower as it was Wednesday when the market snipped off a string of nine straight daily advances.

As prices refused to yield much ground, large reserves of cash in customers' credit balances and in mutual funds and other institutional investment sources began to move into the market.

Douglas Aircraft climbed more than 5 points and McDonnell Co. well over 2 as these issues responded to a report that the Justice Department would not take antitrust action at present against heir proposed merger.

Eastman Kodak, down nearly 2, was still reacting, brokers said, to reports of a racial incident at the company's annual meeting and to lower earnings.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Car Stereo Specialty Shop Opens In Downtown San Rafael

A new business specializing in the sale, installation, servicing and repair of automobile stereo players has opened at 1417 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

This is called D and D Car Stereo, an enterprise of two ambitious young men living in Santa Venetia—Timothy Young and Don Dilello. Both have been working in this field more or less as a hobby for some time and decided to make a business of it. With many new car models offering stereo as optional equipment, interest is high and they may have a good thing.

They handle several sets—Borg Warner and some others and give an additional store guarantee of three months over and above the regular manufacturer's guarantee. They also sell discount phonograph records — mostly rock and roll.

Hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. through the week, with evening hours to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays. Sunday hours are from 1 to 5 p.m.

HUES AND VUES, 108 Town and Country Village in Strawberry will have Miss Peggy West, a representative from the Stockwell Wallpaper Co. at the store on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to show new lines of wall coverings. Also featured the same day will be a "Win a Room of Wallpaper" drawing.

STOP AND GO MARKETS in Sausalito and San Anselmo now have new registered franchise owners in charge:

Florence and John Foster have taken over in Sausalito; Ronald E. and Rose C. Anderson have the San Anselmo store—both assuming the operation from the parent company, National Drive-In Grocery Corp.

Strong, a native of England, works in bronze, aluminum and fiberglass, with subject matter ranging from small groups to large, colorful abstracts. He moved to California in 1963 and settled a short time later in Fairfax, where he lives now. His works have won several awards. This show, with about 35 pieces, will be on display until May 31.

Garwood

E. SHELBY GARWOOD of Greenbrae has received the Distinguished Golden Salesman Award from the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of San Francisco for his consistent year after year sales record for the Bemis Company.

GLENN E. WALLACE of Novato has been cited by Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies as one of its top performers in the United States. He is in the top 10 per cent of personal and business lines representatives. Wallace works out of the San Francisco office as account manager in the business sales department. He joined the company in 1961.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY in Marin County has a long way to go to catch up with last year, according to figures on building permits from the Marin County Chamber of Commerce. Cumulative totals for the first quarter of 1967 came to $7,649,480, compared with over $28 million for the same period last year — a falling off of 73 per cent. In number of permits the decline was less acute. Dropoff was only about 39 per cent.

LBJ Charges Partisan School Bills Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson accused Republican congressional critics of his elementary and secondary schools program today of a "reckless effort to rewrite our laws for partisan political advantage."

The $6.7 billion bill to extend the program two years has bumped into roadblocks in the House and Republicans are pushing for a substitute. The GOP wants to turn over the funds to the states to decide how they should be used rather than leave it to the federal government to continue passing on the local education plans to receive federal financing.

The fate of the whole bill, a cornerstone of Johnson's Great Society, is threatened by the increasingly partisan crossfire, which carries religious overtones.

It is due to come up in the House next week or the week after. It had been scheduled last week but it was put off by a delay in the Rules Committee and the desire of Democratic leaders for more time to line up votes.

A leadership decision on the timing was expected today.

Johnson's remarks were in a speech for dedication of a new vocational education center at Crossland High School at Camp Springs, Md., in the Washington suburbs.

The GOP proposal would allocate the money differently among the states, with some of the big Northern industrial states such as New York, California and Illinois losing and smaller states gaining funds.

While the administration bill is based on the number of poor people in each school district, the Republican measure would leave aid distribution to each state's discretion, except that half of the money would have to go for educationally deprived children.

Complicating the problem for administration forces are the House's 50 to 60 Southern Democrats who favor less federal control over the funds — specifically regulations relating to racial integration of recipient school districts.

But Democratic leaders believe the more partisan the battle gets, the better chance they have to keep Southern Democrat defections at a minimum.

The Republican proposal, sponsored by Rep. Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, has raised once again the church-state issue that plagued education bills for years.

Catholic leaders are concerned that private schools — mainly parochial — would be left out in the cold under the Quie proposal. They trooped up to Capitol Hill earlier this week to meet with the Republicans and were reassured — but not convinced.

"We still have misgivings about it and must support the administration bill," said Msgr. James Donohue, head of the education department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

'Copter Crash Kills Three

Army Exercise

FORT HUACHUCA, Ariz. (UPI) — An Army helicopter crashed Wednesday while taking part in a secret exercise near here. Three men were killed and three others critically injured.

An Army spokesman said the craft was taking part in exercise "Cloud Gap" which he described only as a "classified research project."

Ten men, including at least three Coloradans, were aboard the helicopter when it crashed and burned in the rugged Santa Rita mountains about five miles from Sonoita, Ariz.

The spokesman said five Navy men, three soldiers and two Air Force men were aboard the ill-fated UH1D. The helicopter was on loan to Fort Huachuca, a proving ground under the Army's test and evaluation command, from Fort Carson, Colo.

Studies of infrared radiation from Jupiter indicate it gives off about three times more heat than it receives from the sun. Energy emitted by the planet every second is equivalent to the explosion of a 1,000-megaton hydrogen bomb.

Vietnamese Takes U.S. For $800,000

Senate Told Of Padding, Kickbacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Testimony at a Senate hearing today indicated a Vietnamese importer padded his expense account to the tune of $800,000 to cover kickbacks for worthless goods bought with U.S. government money.

The testimony came from Lavern J. Duffy, assistant counsel of the Senate permanent subcommittee on investigations.

Duffy gave the subcommittee what he called a phony expense account of Dinh Xuan Thao which listed expenses to sell a battery additive made from epsom salts.

EXPENSE LIST

Expenses listed included $163,000 for advertising in Vietnamese also another $163,000 for a one-floor apartment in Saigon, $54,000 for repairs at that apartment, $20,000 for a small English Ford and $54,000 for advertising in English-language newspapers.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on alleged fraud and dishonesty in the commodity import program in Vietnam, financed by the U.S. Agency for International Development.

All the expenses he testified to, Duffy said, were for a three-month period to promote the sale of a solution developed by Thomas Edison Higgins of Treasure Island, Fla., which the National Bureau of Standards describes as "without merit."

AID FUNDS

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the subcommittee, remarked that he could get elected to the Senate two times for the amount of money supposedly spent on advertising.

Higgins received $356,000 under the AID import program for his products, according to an audit of his books made by Thomas E. Nunnally, subcommittee accountant.

Nunnally testified that Higgins' books show he paid Thao $140,000 of that money and owes him still more under what McClellan calls their "kickback" arrangement.

NOT ON STAND

Higgins is unable to testify since he was admitted to a psychiatric institute in Baltimore.

The subcommittee took testimony yesterday that the Vietnamese importer got $140,000 as his share of $250,000 in AID money to finance the importing of the battery substance.

McClellan calls this a kickback, and a high one.

Yet the $250,000 was paid to Higgins, who said he sent $125,000 to a Swiss bank upon instructions of the Vietnamese importer, Doanh Tin Duoc, for the personal account of Dinh Xuan Thao, plus another $15,000 to a Tokyo firm.

Higgins, in an affidavit submitted to the subcommittee, said his product was not worthless. He said he developed it several years ago but was unable to sell it in the United States because large battery manufacturers were "fearful" it would "decrease their sales."

Independents Deny Gas Price Fixing

The president of Marin Independent Service Station Association flatly denied yesterday that the group conspired to fix prices last fall in violation of antitrust laws.

Gregory E. McConnell, a Phillips 66 dealer in Fairfax, said higher prices spread in Marin on two occasions because of an assortment of economic pressures.

The association was indicted yesterday by a federal grand jury in San Francisco, which alleged the group began a program to eliminate trading stamps and harassed stations which continued to use them.

This action constituted price-fixing, a government spokesman said, because more than 70 per cent of the county's service stations are association members. He said Marin gas prices rose uniformly by two cents a gallon, costing customers and additional $1 million.

McConnell said, however, that a one-cent hike first spread in Marin after bout 20 dealers added a penny to recover elimination of the state-imposed tax for flood disaster relief.

Soon, he said, oil companies began raising rates a half-cent, and San Francisco dealers, who also had recovered the tax loss, added another cent. A few Marin dealers followed, he said, and others soon matched the extra cent.

He claimed the increases were "the first in Marin in 15 years."

McConnell admitted the association voted to eliminate stamps, but denied it was geared to a price hike. The association felt the stamps served only as income protection and that customers did not want them anyway, he said.

He said business security was the motive when several association dealers who had dropped stamps harassed the proprietor of a new Shell station in San Anselmo who had introduced them. McConnell said the harassment consisted of tying up the station by ordering small amounts of gasoline and paying with large bills.

The indictment charged the elimination of large price signs by association members also aided in fixing prices. McConnell said many dealers removed their signs when the initial increases went into effect, and did not bother to replace them.

"Price signs only breed gas wars anyway," he said.

Indicted separately were three other northern California service station associations: the California Shell Dealers Association and its president, John A. Mullins, San Leandro; the Southern Almeda County Retail Petroleum Dealers Association and its president and vice president, Joseph Chandler and John Macchitelli, both of Fremont, and the Santa Clara County Shell Dealers Association and its president, Earl C. Schweizer.

The charges carry maximum penalties of a year in prison and a $50,000 fine for individuals, and a $50,000 fine for the associations.

The case is to come up May 7 before U.S. District Court Judge Oliver D. Carter in San Francisco.

A 12-year-old boy was at Napa State Hospital today after having wild hallucinations of motorcycle invaders and blood in what was believed to be an LSD trip in his Tiburon home.

His older brother and two other youths, believed to be runaways from Job Corps in Ventura County, were taken to Marin Juvenile Hall for lack of parental control. There was no indication they had taken drugs, sheriff's officers said.

Deputy John Goff of the Tiburon sheriff's office reported an ambulance was called to the home of Calvin Ireys at 3700 Paradise Drive, Tiburon, about 4:15 a.m. today.

Goff said he arrived minutes later to find the 12-year-old undergoing violent hallucinations. The boy told him the house had "been invaded by approximately 25 men on motorcycles," he said.

Goff said the boy declared the group planned to burgle the house, and that they severely beat Irey in the back yard, and he was bleading profusely about the face.

The officer said he went with the youth to the back yard, found no evidence of any beating or blood, but the boy began shouting, "There they are! There they are!"

Goff said he then took a closer look with his flashlight at the youth, and saw that his eyes were much dilated.

He said Irey left about Tuesday for Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Irey is believed to be in Switzerland.

Deputy Goff found the 12-year-

U.S. Fails To Overtake Enemy Hill

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and artillery pounded a stubborn North Vietnamese force holding a hill in the northwest corner of South Vietnam today after 37 Marines were killed and 84 wounded in an unsuccessful, three-day attempt to take the hill.

In the air war against North Vietnam, the U.S. command announced four American planes were shot down in yesterday's raids against the Hanoi and Haiphong areas.

This raised announced losses this week to 10 U.S. planes in three days of intentified raids on the North Vietnamese heartland. The total losses annonnced for the air war against North Vietnam are now 520.

The U.S. command said one pilot show down yesterday was rescued by helicopter while four others were missing.

Hanoi Radio had claimed 11 American planes were downed yesterday.

Although spokesmen in Saigon said the Marines had "closed out" their attempt to take Hill 861 three miles northwest of Khe Sanh, Associated Press photographer Richard Merron reported from Khe Sanh that bombs and artillery were raining on the Communists while Marine officers made plans for another assault.

Merron also reported 37 Marines killed and 84 wounded, while headquarters in Saigon said 22 Leathernecks were killed and 43 wounded.

In other ground action, a company from the U.S. 4th Infantry Division ran into an enemy platoon late yesterday and reported killing 15 in two hours of fighting in the central highlands

Matter Of Fired Negro Bridge Workers Will Go To Full Board

By WAT TAKESHITA

A hearing for Negro painters fired by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway Dsitrict broke up in disorder today after almost an hour of wrangling over procedure.

E. J. Guidotti of Sonoma County, chairman of the district's employment and conciliation committee, finally threw up his hands and tossed the entire matter back to the full board of directors, which will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the toll plaza.

Today's disturbance erupted the moment Chairman Guidotti laid down ground rules for the hearing, excluding any discussion of racial discrimination.

"Racial discrimination is the main issue," declared Francis J. McTernan, attorney for the painters. "Everybody here knows that's the issue, from the chairman on down."

Clifton R. Jeffers, representing the fired painters on behalf of the San Francisco branch of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People, also objected vigorously. He charged the bridge district with "lily white" employment practices.

Negro painters fired last month are Jimmie Lee Wilkins of Oakland and James Haugabook of San Mateo, who figured in disputes with the bridge directors over alleged discrimination in 1965 and 1966. Also dismissed was Paul Powell, shop steward for Local 4 of the Painters Union.

Chairman Guidotti, repeatedly rapping his gavel for order, insisted: "Competency of the men will be the only matter at issue."

He also set a time limit of two hours for the hearing and imposed a ban on television cameras, both of which were opposed by several other directors. The time limit was finally lifted, but before the TV question could be resolved, the meeting broke up.

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Marin, a bridge director who sat in to observe the committee hearing, urged that all evidence be heard. "If there's an allegation of discrimination, I'd like to know," he said.

Director George H. Ludy, also of Marin, said he too would "like to hear all the evidence."

Edwin M. Fraser agreed, and also urged that television cameras be allowed to operate.

Chairman Guidotti said he was thoroughly confused. "Maybe we should let the entire board of directors decide," he suggested. On motion of William D. Hadeler, it was referred to the full board. Christopher D. McKeon of San Francisco was the lone dissenter.

Senators Asked To Censure Dodd On Campaign Spending

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Senate Ethics Committee unanimously recommended today that Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., be censured for turning campaign contributions to his own use.

Chairman John C. Stennis filed the censure resolution with the Senate as it convened at noon, along with the committee's report on its 14-month investigation of the 59-year-old senator.

The committee resolution said that Dodd "deserves the censure of the Senate; and he is so censured for his conduct, which is contrary to accepted morals, derogates from the public trust expected of a senator and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute."

It was the first time that the Senate had been asked to censure one of its members since the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy was punished in 1954.

The white-haired Dodd entered the chamber shortly after Stennis began speaking, chatted briefly with Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., then took his seat and listened.

The ethics panel also recommended that certain phases of its inquiry be referred to the Justice Department and the Internal Revenue Service for "possible law violations."

In addition to censuring Dodd for pocketing campaign funds, the committee rebuked him for multiple-billing for travel.

Dodd also was accused during the 14-month committee investigation of carrying out assignments for Chicago public relations man Julius Klein, and of accepting the loan of a car from a government contractor.

"I still maintain I have done nothing wrong," Dodd told newsmen. "Nothing has changed my mind, including the (censure) report to the senate a few minutes ago."

Asked if he would run for reelection in 1970, Dodd said: "I certainly will."

He was asked if the censure was too harsh a punishment. "I don't know how it could be any harsher."

Dodd said he would not recruit supporters to defeat the censure resolution. "I'll make my statement on the floor and that's about it.

"I'm not the first to go through this and I'm not the last. But I'm not self-pitying."

The committee found that over four years Dodd has diverted $116,083 of political contributions to his personal use. It said Dodd had authorized the payment of at least $45,233 more for purposes which are neither clearly personal nor political." It listed the total Dodd had raised from 1961 through 1965 at $450,273.

The action against Dodd came as Adam Clayton Powell's lawyers went to court in an effort to have the Harlem Democrat restored to the seat from which the House ousted him March 1. Powell has decided to concentrate on legal action, rather than the special election he won in New York, so that he might regain his 22 years of seniority.

Russians Show Up Off Oregon

FLORENCE, Ore. (UPI)—Russian fishing vessels were reported off the Oregon coast in large numbers again today.

Editor C. D. Holman Jr. of the weekly Siuslaw News said he counted more than 90 vessels of various types in an area of about 70 square miles in a flight off the coast yesterday.

He said the nearest were about 17 miles offshore a few miles north of here.

Since the first heavy number of Russian vessels were reported last year off the coast, the United States has extended its offshore limits from 3 to 12 miles.

That Rainy Stuff Isn't Lying Doggo

Enough disturbance is being caused aloft to send rain and more rain Marin County way when the calendar says the skies should be clear and the weather warm.

The county was drenched with overnight and morning showers and more are expected through tomorrow by the Weather Bureau.

The rest of the state is in the same watery boat with the rain expected to spread southward tonight and more snowfalls in the mountains for the ski buffs.

By noon today, rain in San Rafael measured .15 of an inch while .23 had fallen in Bolinas by 8 a.m.

Other 8 a.m. readings were: Tamalpais Valley and San Anselmo .15; Santa Venetia and Sausalito .13; Larkspur .12; Terra Linda .10; Mill Valley .08; Novato .05; and Hamilton Air Force Base .03.

Reagan's Office Being Carpeted

The carpet cost $25,280 under the low bid submitted by Breuner's, a Sacramento furniture company, Lyn Nofziger, Reagan's press secretary, said.

The legislature appropriated $21,000 for the carpeting in May of 1966. The carpet had to be installed by this May or the appropriation would have expired.

Housewife Price

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) — The North Carolina House of Representatives was asked yesterday to lay down guidelines for computing the monetary value of a housewife.

Rep. Thomas Bunn said the law allows the court to decide a man's worth by figuring his salary and life expectancy. But, he said, there is no lawful way to determine the worth of a wife.

Under a bill introduced by Bunn, a wife's value would be computed by considering the current wage for the various services she performs, such as baby sitting, house cleaning, cooking and ironing.

A U.N. Mandate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Fifty of the 122 United Nations members called yesterday for the U.N. Security Council to use military force if necessary to end South Africa's control of South-West Africa.

The U.N. General Assembly voted last October to terminate South Africa's League of Nations mandate over the former German colony but left it to the current special session to consider ways of bringing this about.

The resolution was introduced by 49 African and Asian nations plus Yugoslavia.

Seeks Throne

CAIRO (AP) — Ex-King Saud has broadcast an appeal to Saudi Arabians from exile in Cairo to throw out his half-brother King Faisal and open the way for him to "reclaim my throne."

"I never abdicated, but I voluntarily left Saudi Arabia to avert bloodshed," said the 65-year-old former monarch who was forced off the throne in April 1964 because of his extravagance and opposition to reform.

Rocket Tested

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army reports that it has successfully flight-tested a "hybrid" rocket at Redstone Arsenal, Ala.

The rocket gets tis name from its second-stage motor which combines solid fuel with a liquid oxidizer. The oxidizer flow can be turned off, thus determining the range of the rocket. Conventional solid fuel motors keep on burning until the fuel is used up.

The Army said yesterday the hybrid holds promise for use in future missiles and space projects.

Svetlana Stalin Wants Freedom To Fall In Love With The U.S

NEW YORK (UIP) —Seeking the freedom denied her in the Soviet Union, Josef Stalin's only daughter will spend the coming months in seclusion, working on her book and, perhaps, falling in love with the United States.

Svetlana Alliluyeva, asked if she would seek American citizenship, replied:

"Well, I think that before the marriage it should be love. So if I will love this country and this country will love me, then the marriage will be settled. But I cannot say now."

DENIES RUMORS

Stalin's comely, 42-year-old daughter who defected from the Soviet Union appeared yesterday at a nationally televised news conference. In answer to questions, she:

Accused high Russian Communists still in power of being equally as guilty of "horrible things" as her late father.

Denied rumors Stalin had been assassinated, saying it was "evident he was sick and his death was the natural result of illness."

Disclosed that she had her autobiographical book smuggled out of the Soviet Union through India after the conviction of two Russian writers on charges of "high treason."

Discounted the possibility of reprisals on her children, both of whom she left behind in Moscow, saying, "I don't think something bad might happen with them there, because they don't deserve it."

RELIGIOUS INTEREST

The widow said she had a growing interest in religion and revealed that she had been baptized in the Russian Orthodox faith in 1962.

She described herself as a non-political person, but left no doubt that she had left her homeland because of repressions and restrictions on her freedom, particularly as a writer.

She said a writer "needs freedom to express what he likes and that person should be sure that his books will be published."

DOGMAS CHANGE

Asked to specify what dogmas of Communism had lost their significance for her, Mrs. Alliluyeva responded: "I believe that in modern world, in 20th Century to which we belong, in the century of atom bomb and space flights, the idea of class revolution which can bring people to progress has lost its significance."

She said another factor in her decision to leave the Soviet Union was the treatment accorded her and her intended husband. Their request to be married was denied by "the party and the government."

Asked about the future in Russia, she said, "Perhaps those students who are now 18, 19, 20 years old in Russia, when they will become grown up and when and if they will become social leaders in the country, they will bring something more modern and more democratic. I hope so."

Jury Convicts Rasnick On Murder Plot

OAKLAND (AP) After 10 and one-half hours of deliberation, jurors convicted an AFL-CIO Painters Union official yesterday of plotting the shotgun assassination last May of Lloyd Green, who headed the union's local at nearby Hayward.

Convicted was Ben Rasnick, 44, an international representative for the union. The same jury will meet next Wednesday to decide his penalty and he could be sentenced to death or life in prison.

Tears formed in Rasnick's eyes as the verdict was read and his wife, Mary, sobbed openly at the rear of the courtroom.

Rasnick also faces a retrial in San Francisco in the similar shotgun killing of Dow Wilson, the union's San Francisco local leader. The first trial in that case ended with jurors deadlocked.

A witness against Rasnick was Norman Call, a Sacramento painting contractor, who has admitted driving the getaway car in both slayings. He testified Rasnick ordered the slayings.

Charles Robert Darwin, whose theories on evolution and the origin of species have clashed for four decades with the fundamentalist Bible theories, once studied in England for the clergy.

GOP War Doves Defend Protests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland's mission home — defended by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey — came under Republican attack today as a move to silence Vietnam war critics.

Humphrey told a news conference last night that no one wants to muzzle "responsible" criticism of Johnson administration policies. He said Westmoreland had given an "excellent assessment" of the Vietnam situation in a speech at an Associated Press meeting in New York Monday.

When the general speaks to Congress tomorrow, Humphrey predicted, he will be "well received" and will be "highly informative and helpful to the American people."

While they did not go as far as Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., who said the administration was using "political blackmail" to silence its critics, Sens. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., and Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., protested that the patriotism of those who differ on policy is being questioned.

Kennedy, Udall Plan Boat Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall, two enthusiastic outdoor types, are planning to take some of their children boating on the upper reaches of the Hudson River in May.

According to aides, the two families plan to camp out during the weekend of May 6 in upstate New York where the Hudson, the most polluted river in the nation, is relatively clean.

'Want To See Killing Stopped,' Cries LBJ

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Johnson, target of some of the harshest criticism yet by opponents of his Vietnam policy, says that he wants "more than any human being in the world to see the killing stopped."

"I want to negotiate. I want a political settlement. . . . But I can't negotiate with myself," the Chief Executive declared in impromptu remarks following a brief speech before an audience of scientists last night.

"Maybe somewhere, some how, some day, someone will sit down and want to talk instead of kill," he said, the emotion behind his words plainly marked on his face. "If they do, I'll be the first one at the table."

Johnson made no mention of one accusation that has been leveled at him and his administration, that of attempting to "stifle dissent."

Johnson's speech to the American Physical Society banquet was his first comment, however indirect, on the bitter debate that has wracked the Senate since the escalation of the air war over Vietnam this week.

He was greeted with applause as he walked to the podium, but just before he began to speak, Dr. Howard Weisberg, a 27-year-old physicist from the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory at Berkeley, Calif., jumped to his feet and held up a homemade placard with just one word on it: "Vietnam." Weisberg was shouted down.

The President then plowed through his prepared address, which praised scientists for helping bring about a better world. But Vietnam plainly was much on his mind and he began to speak about the war:

"Every day, good people, wise people, say to me, why can't we have a political settlement? Why can't we understand our fellow human beings? Why can't we negotiate? Why do men have to die?

His voice rising with emotion, the President said: "I want more than any human being in the world to see the killing stopped."

James Bond To Continue

LONDON (AP) — The man who will keep James Bond alive in print says his Agent 007 will be less keen on gambling and gimmicky cars but he won't lose interest in girls, guns and saving civilization.

Kingsley Amis, 45, English novelist, has been assigned to pick up where the late Ian Fleming left off. The job was given to Amis by Glidrose Productions, which owns the copyright on Bond.

Amis, who wrote the comic best-seller "Lucky Jim," said his first of the new Bond adventures will come out next year.

This is the second year such scholarships have been contributed by the Marin chapter of the national sorority. They are to assist College of Marin women students planning to go on to a four-year college in the fall.

Suspicion Of Opium Cleared By Analysis

What sheriff's officers thought was opium was not.

Officers today said a laboratory analysis showed a substance found by police in an arrested man's home was not a drug.

However, the man, Ernest James Newman, 31, and his common-law wife, Jean Lee MacGowan, 27, were to enter plea today in Marin Municipal Court on charges of possession of opium, marijuana, and two opium pipes.

Deputy Dist. Atty. John Ralph Thomas said the opium counts may be dropped when the laboratory report is verified.

Newman and Miss MacGowan were arrested at 2900 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard on a complaint by their landlord, Arthur R. Bell, that Newman threatened him with an ax.

Officers said they found over one and one-half pounds of marijuana in the residence, and a balled substance they thought was opium under a kitchen sink.

Newman was also charged with threatening his landlord with the ax.

IN FATAL CRASH — Col. James P. Lyle, killed Tuesday at the controls of an Air Force radar picket plane which crashed off the Massachusetts coast, killing 15, once served at Hamilton Air Force Base for two years. He was assigned to Hamilton in March, 1959, as assistant deputy for personnel, Western Air Force. He later became deputy for personnel of the 28th Air Division before being transferred to a command at McClellan Air Force Base in July, 1961.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Night Stroller Resents Police

Law abiding Charles used to take a restful stroll just before bedtime since he sat at his desk all day. But his late walking habits looked suspicious. The police often stopped and questioned him. They sometimes "frisked" him and took him down to headquarters.

Charles found the first such episodes amusing but the last one was a nuisance and an embarrassment.

The law has established the right of the police to stop and ask identification. Usually, such requests are brief, occasional, and courteous.

The police have limited powers to make a search. The constitution protects the person and his property, including his car, from "unreasonable searches and seizures." The police cannot make any search without a search warrant or what the courts call "probable cause."

Probable cause is more than just an officer's good faith suspicion that a person might have illegal items. A court will not admit evidence found during an "unreasonable" search.

When a judge issues a search warrant, the officer must swear that there are reasons for making the search. These reasons must satisfy the judge.

Merely stopping a person is not an arrest. The police officer must say so when he makes an arrest. He must have good reasons to believe that the person committed a crime.

After an arrest, the law permits a reasonable search. Even so, the accused has several constitutional protections. He has the right to be advised by a lawyer before he makes a confession.

The officers must warn him that his answers to their questions may incriminate him.

The accused can make one phone call, usually to his family or attorney. The Constitution says a person has the right to reasonable bail and to be freed until his trial.

Bail is not designed to punish; its sole purpose is to insure a person's appearance at his trial. In minor traffic cases, bail may be forfeited and become the penalty for the offense. But in more serious offenses, the bail is returned or "exonerated" when the person appears for his trial.

Musical Cruelty

MANCHESTER, England (UPI)—George Mackenzie liked chamber music on the radio. Mrs. Mackenzie liked rock and roll. The dispute got them into the divorce court where each charged the other with cruelty. The judge, apparently a chamber music man himself, granted Mackenzie the decree.

However, Undersheriff Sidney Stinson said the boy obviously was under the influence of some drug, probably LSD.

At Marin General Hospital, the boy's hallucinations continued, according to Goff. He claimed he saw birds flying around the hospital's emergency room, that he was "being spied on from the corners of the room," and that big computers were "looking at him."

Officers did not know who called the ambulance.

3rd Trial Ends On Death Row

A San Diego man sentenced to death three times in three trials for the same murder is scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber July 11.

The execution of Edward L. Arguello, 57, brings to eight the number of Death Row inmates scheduled to die in the chamber in the next three months.

He entered San Quentin in 1963 for the murder of a 82-year-old woman with a brick, a butcher knife and a hammer two years earlier.Since then he has had two new trials.

His July 11 date means there are two executions scheduled for the one week. On July 13, double killer William Albert Taul has his appointment with death at San Quentin.

Fugitive's Pension Remains In Limbo

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Third District Court of Appeal refused today to rule on the claim by a former state official — now a fugitive in Mexico — to recover seven years' state pension.

But the court added, "without deciding the matter," that it believes former State Board of Equalization chief William G. Bonelli has little grounds for the suit.

The appeal court declined jurisdiction, saying that the suit should be taken up in a superior court first.

John H. Lynch of 603 Goodhill Road, Kentfield, told deputies someone cut a bathroom screen to enter his home and steal four half dollars.

Collector Calls His Cannons 'Ornaments'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I just collect cannons as ornaments," William E. Thoresen III declared yesterday while being arraigned. "Every lawn ought to have one."

Thoresen, wearing a dark pin striped suit on his 6 foot 2 frame, had surrendered to a U. S. marshal and was charged in Federal District Court with illegal possession of a fully automatic weapon.

He is also wanted in New York on a charge that he illegally bought a machine gun.

Those weapons are just part of the arsenal collected by federal agents, who started with a raid last Friday on Thoresen's mansion in the swanky Pacific Heights district.

They reported finding 97,000 pounds of weapons and ammunition there, including a 37 millimeter cannon of 1936 vintage.

Another 45,000 pounds was picked up at shipping yards in the San Francisco East Bay Area, consigned to Thoresen from eastern armanents firms.

Thoresen's wife, Louise, was arrested during the Friday raid and faces charges in San Francisco Superior Court that she stored arms illegally. She is free in $20,000 bail.

J. W. (Jake) Ehrlich, Thoresen's attorney, contended that: "This man is being penalized for his business ideas. He wanted to open a business to provide guns and munitions as lawn ornaments."

"You could call him a gun freak, a good American citizen, a strange man," Ehrlich also said. "I knew he liked guns but I'll be damned if he ever talked to me about cannons."

Thoresen, who was accompanied by his wife and their 5-year-old son, Michael, told reporters: "I also collect rocks and stamps."

Youth, 15, Cited In Church Theft

A 15-year-old Tamalpais Valley youth has been cited to the juvenile probation office for the theft on April 16 of about $600 cash and checks from collections at Peace Lutheran Church on Tennessee Valley Road in Tamalpais Valley.

Sheriff's Juvenile Deputy Charles L. Prandi said the boy admitted taking the loot from the pulpit while helping arrange chairs at the church. He said $450 in checks and $60 cash were recovered, but the boy spent or gave away $9'.

Reagan Ires Callers; Brush-off Charged

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Representatives of an East Los Angeles Mexican-American organization are angry with Gov. Ronald Reagan because they say the governor ducked out on a long-standing appointment with them.

The group of about 30 representatives of the East Los Angeles City Terrace Town Meeting leveled the charge yesterday as they stormed out of the governor's office.

They said they made the appointment three weeks ago through Bill Orozco, a special representative in the governor's Los Angeles office. The group said they wanted to discuss education problems with Reagan.

Kenneth Hall, special assistant to the governor, told the group there had been a "misunderstanding" and that the appointment had not been made. He said the governor was in a cabinet meeting and would not be able to meet with the group.

"All I can do is apologize and say we are sorry for the lack of communication" Hall said. He said Reagan's inability to meet with the group was "not because of a lack of interest in the community."

Joe Baglieri, chairman of the group, told newsmen:

"We drove all night to get here to do this and he hasn't the courtesy to come out here to talk to us."

He said the organization held a dance to raise $707 for the trip.

Mrs. Miguel Deanda, a member of the group, said they had invited the governor to attend two Mexican-American functions in East Los Angeles and had received identically worded telegrams saying he "regretted" he would be unable to attend.

"There isn't a better intermediate size car sold in the United States than the 1967 Rebel"
says Tom McCahill, automobile expert for Mechanix Illustrated.

"Frankly, I never thought I'd be making such a statement."

Tom McCahill evaluates the automobile industry for Mechanix Illustrated. Recently, he took out an SST hardtop equipped with a 343 cu. in. Typhoon V-8 for an exhaustive series of road tests. How did our Excitement Machine perform?

"In roadability and performance, it would top most of the newer specialty cars. There's absolutely no plowing and little body roll. The whole feel of the car, when going over ruts or across dirt roads, is excellent."

What about comfort?

"It's extremely comfortable and relaxing to drive. In straight-line driving the SST is as comfortable as the Jell-O specials."

How about Rebel's new four-link rear suspension?

"Of all the new sporty-type cars, as they come from the showroom, Rebel has by far the best and safest suspension of the whole kit and caboodle."

And the looks?

"As sharp in appearance as a thousand-dollar bill. And from a cost angle, Rebel's not overpriced."

This is your kind of excitement, created by American Motors. A company that has created an entire line of six-passenger Excitement Machines that give you more excitement for the money.

See your American Motors / Rambler Dealer. He'll convince you the 1967 Rebel is the best intermediate built in the country today. Then do what Tom McCahill did. Take a test-drive.

Named to the list were 273 students who maintained averages of B or better.

Kentfield Woman Injured In Wreck

A Kentfield woman was injured in a two-car collision at 5800 Paradise Drive in Corte Madera Tuesday at 10:45 a.m., according to Corte Madera police.

Gay S. Hendrickson, 37, of 121 McAllister Avenue, Kentfield, suffered an injured wrist when her car collided with one driven by Wayne R. Miller, 39, of 149 Westward Drive, Corte Madera, police said. They reported Mrs. Hendrickson apparently was turning into a driveway. She was treated at Ross Hospital.

Super Skunk Starts May 21

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Western Railroad Tuesday announced its Super Skunk steam train will start a weekend schedule between Fort Bragg and Willits May 21.

The train, No. 45, the only regularly scheduled, standard gauge steam train in the state, will leave Fort Bragg at 10 a.m. for its run through the redwoods. The train has a Baldwin engine, a tender and four restored Victorian coaches.

Sausalito Planners Against Land Swap

Sausalito Planning Commission last night recommended that the city council take no action on a proposal by Trident Productions that the city exchange a parcel outboard of the former Purity Store site for the parking lot on the site, reported Vice Chairman Robert L. Nissen.

City action on the proposal should be deferred pending detailed plans for the site by the developer, commissioners agreed.

The developer proposed the exchange of the two pracels, but City Atty. Leland H. Jordan advised the commission that state conditions imposed on the tideland precluded sale of the city property. Instead, he suggested, the city and developer could exchange leases.

Sausalito Planning Commission also:

FENCE — Recommended the city council reject an encroachment permit sought by Robert A. Thompson, 254 Glen Drive, for a fence already partially built on city right-of-way.

VALHALLA — Deferred to Wednesday a query from Valhalla Restaurant on remodeling procedure.

MARINCELLO — Heard a "progress report" on development of Marincello by Ned Parsons, senior county planner.

Busy Agenda Tonight For School Groups

Committees of the Marin Board of Education will meet tonight at the county schools office, 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera.

At 7:30 p.m. the educational services committee will consider approval of a federally funded project of $11,900, which would add to Loma Vista School psychological services, library and industrial art equipment and secretarial services. Reports will be heard on preschool and narcotics programs.

The administrative services committee meets at 8:30 p.m. to review the special education budget and personnel resignations and employment.

The special education committee meets at 9 p.m. to discuss changes made in its budget, which was reported last month as being higher than this year's budget of $654,643.

Work-Study Red Tape Unsnarled

Seventy students in College of Marin's work-study program lost their jobs last week in a bureaucratic mix-up, but were rehired two days later, according to Charles Herndon, director of student services for the college.

The work-study program, providing part-time work to needy students, is financed 90 per cent by the federal Office of Education and 10 per cent by the college, Herndon explained.

Herndon had anticipated federal funds of $190,000, but the Office of Education actually made $232,000 available in January. Somehow the $190,000 estimate was never corrected and on Monday of last week Herndon decided he would have to lay off some of the less needy students or not have enough money to finish out the semester with the program.

So seventy students were notified of the termination of the jobs on Monday. By Wednesday, Herndon had discovered the discrepancy and notified all of them to come back to work.

Kidnap Ranson Deducting Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ransom paid in a kidnaping would be deductible in income tax computations under a bill introduced today by Rep. Richard T. Hanna, D-Calif.

Under the legislation, the enforcement agency which investigated the kidnaping would have to certify the amount of ransom paid. Any recovery in a subsequent year would be considered income for tax purposes.

Hanna said consultation with internal revenue officials convinced him that under present law ransom, unlike theft and bad debt losses, cannot be deducted from taxable income.

New Trial For Inmate On Death Row

Basis of the decision was that the admission of certain evidence at his trial for the 1965 slaying of a Ventura County man "was a judicial error."

Also up for a re-trial is Gonzales' crime partner, Daniel Alarcon, 21, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for his part in the murder. Alarcon is not at San Quentin. Both men were convicted of killing Jesus Ontiveros during a fight in an Oxnard railroad yard.

Lone dissenter in the re-trial decision was Justice Marshall F. McComb who said he believed "the alleged errors have not resulted in a miscarriage of justice."

Youth Missing From Novato

Willie Bea Burch, 14, has been missing from his home at 665 Owens Drive, Novato, since he ran away at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, his mother, Mrs. Emma Ruth Ballard, told Novato police yesterday.

She said that the boy ran away when he was threatened with disciplining. He was described as a Negro, four feet, eight inches tall, of slim Build, weighing 90 pounds.

Non-Teachers At Dixie Request $21,000 Raise

A pay hike of 5 per cent at a cost of $21,000 was requested yesterday for non-teaching employees in Dixie School District.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said $15,000 in the increase would be in salaries, $6,000 in fringe benefits.

District trustees took no action at the board meetings and asked Willis for more detailed information on new job classifications listed.

The board approved contracts for seven teachers during the 1967-68 school year. They are Miss Marilyn Jacobs, Miss Norma Mitchell and Miss Sandra Stevens, all at $6,000 a year; Mrs. Nathalee Britton at $7,000 a year; Mrs. Gay Guthrie and John A. Vinton at $7,300 a year, and Miss Ann Brandenberger at $8,200 a year.

The board also agreed to join with the City of San Rafael to returf the playground area at Nova Albion School at an estimated cost of $6,000.

The Dixie School District Board also:

GIFTS — Accepted gifts valued at $430 from the Nova Albion School Association, and a Dymo Tapewriter valued at $15 donated to Don Timoteo School by vice principal Robert Lawrence.

MATERNITY — Told Willis to rewrite the regulation on maternity leaves for non-teaching employees to allow an employee to return to work after 90 days, instead of waiting a full year.

STUDENT PAY — Authorized an increase from $1.40 an hour to $1.65 for high school students Nancy Jordan and Patrick Burrell working in a Work Experience Program in May and June.

EMPLOYEES — Went into closed session to discuss several teachers whose contracts are now subject to renewal, but took no action.

Thursdays Are Always The Same

PITTSBURGH, Kan. (AP) — Anyone looking for Dr. Ernest Anderson during the noon hour on Thursdays shouldn't have any trouble finding him.

Dr. Anderson has just completed 29 years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis Club meetings. The club meets each Thursday noon.

School Robbed

County Switch In Funds Claimed

A promise made by the old county administration has been broken by the new one, Mrs. Harry Lucheta told the Marin Council for Civic Affairs last night.

Over a million dollars in revenues from the Civic Center, earmarked for the Veterans Memorial Auditorium and Fairgrounds, has been diverted into the general fund, said Mrs. Lucheta, council chairman.

Because of competition for general fund money, it will be very hard to get it back for its original purpose, she said.

CIGARETTE TAX HIKE FORECAST

Mayors Council Hears How Much More Revenue Could Be Gained For Marin

There is a good chance that cigarette taxes will be boosted to provide additional state and city revenues, according to Donald Benninghoven, assistant director, League of California Cities.

STRONG CHANCE

An Assembly bill which would permit general law cities to levy a cigarette tax of 3.5 cents has a strong chance of passage, he asserted.

This tax would be collected by the state and returned to cities, which could spend it for any purpose, Benninghoven said.

Thirty-seven charter cities now have a cigarette tax, he said. If all cities collected the tax, the revenue would be about $65 million, Bennington estimated.

To San Rafael this would amount to $145,000 a year; Larkspur, $34,000; Novato, $125,000, and Corte Madera, $38,000, he said.

OTHER TAX

Along with a state tax boost of 3.5 cent per pack, as agreed upon by Gov. Ronald Reagan, this would be a total addition tax of 7 cents per pack, he pointed out.

Only two states have lower cigarette taxes than California, and six states have a tax of 10 cents a pack, Benninghoven claimed.

If there is a to be a reduction in property taxes, a way must be found to replace the revenue, and "there is a good possibility that the cigarette tax will be a source of revenue," he asserted.

There is a bill to reduce the business inventory tax, which bring in from $400 to $500 million a year, Benninghoven noted. If this occurs and the revenue is not replaced, cities would face a loss, he said.

LABOR ISSUES

Benninghoven reported a change of attitude regarding collective bargaining by city employees. Strikes are a real issue, he said. "There were nine public service strikes in California last year."

Several bills providing for arbitration or fact finding procedures, are before the Legislature, Benninghoven reported. The league therefore decided to introduce a bill to expand the authority of councils under the employees organization act, he said.

One of the proposals, he said, would be to "expand" the Ralph M. Brown Act so city councils could meet in closed session to discuss salaries, working conditions or employee benefits.

Benninghoven noted there will be a hearing May 23 on a bill that would eliminate the provision that cities provide matching funds to obtain state gasoline taxes for road work.

There also is a proposed constitutional amendment that would permit any state tax to be used for municipal purposes, he said.

STUDY SUGGESTED

City Councilman Dean Meyer of Mill Valley reported that the "Blackwell Bill," designed to correct city-county tax inequities, was defeated in committee by 4-3 vote. "All agreed that there is an inequity and suggested an interim study," he said.

The council supported the proposal for an interim study and agreed to seek support of county supervisors.

Benninghoven said that Los Angeles County has introduced a resolution calling for a full interim study on the same subject, and requesting $20,000 for it.

The council postponed discussion of city-county police services until May 31, after Novato Councilman Douglas M. Merrill reported that a committee on the subject was unable to get together.

Because Philip S. Ehrlich, chairman of the Marin County Housing Authority, was unable to attend to talk about the authority's program for leasing privately owned housing, the council re-scheduled his talk for its next meeting in Novato on May 31.

Rockefeller Won't Be '68 Candidate

WASHINGTON (UPI)— New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller said yesterday he would not be a candidate for the 1968 Republican Presidential nomination under any circumstances.

Rockefeller questioned whether increased speculation that he might yet be a candidate came from elements in the GOP that sought to divide the party's moderates between Rockefeller and Michigan Gov. George Romney.

PANEL DISAGREES

Is Marin County Ready For Future?

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

Marin County may not be quite ready for tomorrow, according to four city and county officials.

The attentive audience heard from Tiburon City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose on "It all depends — on people," from Sausalito Fire Chief Charles E. Masten, "Not yet." from Harvey C. Bragdon, Mill Valley director of community development a blunt "no." and from Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, "The sheriff's department is progressing today toward tomorrow."

Regional government also came in for a few pro and con comments.

With tongue-in-cheek, Rose said: "We couldn't possibly be more elaborately organized to meet tomorrow. We have 65 districts in the county, governed by autonomous boards. We have 11 cities. Then we have the county, state and federal governments."

He referred to regional government as "another creature of government." He saw "this added layer" stemmed from "the people's disappointment in established institutions" and "a withering of self reliance."

Given new techniques, better training and a new dedication of the people, Rose felt "our institutions are not only adequate for tomorrow, but for today."

He called regional government a "will o' the wisp."

Masten saw advantages in consolidation of fire services countywide, but felt it should not be "jumped into." It would solve the overlapping of the community services districts, fire districts, city fire departments, and county fire department, he said.

Masten had just attended a San Rafael meeting of the Marin County Fire Chiefs Association. They agreed a successful consolidation would largely depend on an administrator, he reported. "We're talking about a man we would have to pay $35,000 or $40,000 a year — it's a big job."

As a consolidate district, the county would have to be re-evaluated for an overall fire rate by the American Insurance Association which "would be expensive," Masten commented.

He felt consolidation should come gradually. For instance, consolidating Belevedere, Tiburon and Alto fire districts first, then organizing a Southern Marin district to include Sausalito, Mill Valley and the Tiburon Peninsula.

Bragdon said the only specific comment any planner would want to make in Marin County is "color it green." Bragdon doubted that Marin is ready for tomorrow.

He said it would be fairly easy to get cities and the county together to prepare a plan. Enforcement of planning of foresaw as more difficult. "We can talk a good game, but the real problems is when other values come in such as political expediency and economics."

Bragdon felt the county is "over-organized. Also we have been thinking far too small. We should say, is the bay area ready for tomorrow?" He said bay fill, transportation, open space, are regional problems, and foresaw a federation of cities in a regional government.

Later, under questions from the audience, Bragdon said he did not favor the approach of the Association of Bay Area Governments to regional government. He called ABAG "wishy-washy."

Mountanos told the audience "we are making progress." He cited as evidence recent agreement by police chiefs to form a county-wide narcotics bureau.

Taxpayers invest $10,000 in each trained deputy, Mountanos said. "We have to think where we can best use each deputy in the county." He said there are 80,000 people living in unincorporated areas of the county.

Mountanos foresaw consolidation of police services in the county.

Countywide police protection is the answer to crime problems and Marin's rapidly growing population, he said. The county "should not be dragging its feet on manpower and equipment — we owe it to our children."

Visit To Canada By DeGaulle Confirmed

PARIS (AP) —Elysee Palace confirmed today that President Charles de Gaulle will visit Canada in July.

League Of Women Voters Names New Officer Slate

Mrs. Farrell I. Schell of San Rafael was elected president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin at a luncheon meeting yesterday at Peacock Gap Country Club.

Law enforcement in Marin County was chosen as the league's study subject for the next 12 months.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Schell were: Mrs. John Barrows of San Anselmo and Mrs. Donald M. Wilhelm of Novato, vice presidents; Mrs. John Eggleston of San Rafael, secretary, and Mrs. David Benedict of San Rafael, treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Mesdames J. W. Becker, Ulrich Kraemer, Jean N. Bell, James T. Edmundson, John Bastian, Dale R. Schmid, Joseph Turina, David V. Ainsworth, and Frank Pedersen.

Mrs. H. James Compton of Kentfield, outgoing president, summarized activities of the past year, including publication of a special districts pamphlet and of "How, When and Where To Write Your Legislator," which have been distributed countywide.

Party structure of partisan policitcs was described by Mrs. Lee Sherry, a former member of the Republican Central Committee, and Mrs. Olive Lewis, a member of the Democratic Central Committee.

Just five days before the signing of the American Declaration of Independence, the Presidio of San Francisco was founded on June 29, 1776 by Spanish Lt. Jose Joaquin Moraga.

Stanford's Wert To Head Mills

OAKLAND (AP) — Robert J. Wert, Stanford professor of higher education, will succeed Mills College President C. Easton Rothwell who is retiring at age 65.

Wert, 45, will take office in September.

Rothwell, who will be 65 in October, is retiring after eight years as president of the women's college.

Wert, on leave from Stanford, is in Peru, visiting colleges and universities to determine how Fulbright Award funds are used. He has been on the faculty and in various administrative posts at Stanford since 1959. He was a trustee at Mills.

Berkeley Senate To Hear Warren

BERKELEY (AP)—U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren returns to the Berkeley campus of the University of California Friday for an "extraordinary" faculty meeting.

Warren, class of 1912, is the major speaker at an "extraordinary convocation" of the Berkeley Academic Senate, a public meeting called after the firing of UC President Clark Kerr.

The professors explained that the meeting would communicate "the urgent necessity of preserving the character and quality" of the university.

Dr. Bernard Diamond, UC criminologist who headed a committee that planned the event, said convocation is an effort to "engage more fully in public discussion."

Leprosy now afflicts an estimated 12 million persons.

WATCH OUT FOR THE ALLIGATOR

A man just has to ignore the hazards of his job sometimes if he's going to get any work done. And for painter John F. Rivera of San Antonio, Tex., the hazards are sometimes pretty strange as he found out yesterday. His job: painting the shelter at the alligator gardens of the city's Brackenridge Zoo.

San Rafael Sewage Plant Bidding Set In September

A tentative timetable for a $267,000 expansion of the main San Rafael sewage treatment plant was approved yesterday by San Rafael Sanitation District directors.

The district will seek bids on the project in September, with completion set for August 1968, according to the schedule drawn up by District Administrator Norris M. Rawles.

The board also approved Rawles' timetable for completing a comprehensive study of the storm drain and sewer system by April, 1968.

Schedules for the expansion and the study will be sent to the Regional Water Quality Control Board, which requested them after torrential January rains caused sewage to flow out of manholes.

The district has applied for an $80,000 federal grant to help finance the plant expansion.

The board approved two residential sewer connections in Peacock Lagoon Subdividion 1. The connections are not in the area where the district has banned new connections until expansion of the Peacock Gap treatment plant.

The board's next meeting will be at 5 p.m. next Thursday at San Rafael City Hall.

U.S. Protests Yemen Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has protested to the government of Yemen the actions of a mob which invaded the U.S. compound yesterday in Taiz, a major provincial city in the Middle East nation.

"A large crowd broke into the compound, causing severe damage to vehicles, furniture and personal property," Robert J. McCloskey, press officer for the State Department, told reporters.

The compound housed a branch office of the American Embassy and an office of the Agency for International Development.

Year's Probation

Fred Howard Peterson, 48, of Ukiah, was fined $249 and placed on a year's probation in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving. He was arrested by San Anselmo police Sunday.

Constantine Backs Greece's Military Junta; Curfew Off

ATHENS (AP) — Greece's military dictatorship lifted the curfew in Athens and Pireaus today after King Constantine broke his public silence and gave qualified acceptance to the regime which seized power six days ago.

The 26-year-old monarch met with the new Cabinet yesterday, urged organization of "a true and healthy democracy," and expressed the "fervent wish" that parliamentary government would return "as soon as possible."

Life appeared nearly normal in Athens and Pireaus, where one-quarter of Greece's 8 million people live. But the 1:30-5:30 a.m. curfew remained in force elsewhere in the nation.

The previous absence of a public statement by the king had given rise to the belief he did not approve of the military takeover made in his name Friday. His statement to the Cabinet installed by the military chiefs indicated he was not happy with the situation which confronted him.

Constantine drove into Athens from his palace in suburban Tatoi yesterday, made his statement to Premier Constantine Kollias and his Cabinet and posed, grim faced, for pictures with the 19 ministers.

His statement made one concession to the military leaders' claim that they took over to save the country from leftist violence.

Referring to the recurrent political crises stemming from his long feud with leftist leaders George and Andreas Papandreou, the king said in the months before the coup, "democratic institutions have been undermined; the nation, the monarchy, the armed forces and justice have been continuously assailed, and most of all the true interests of the people have suffered."

Athens mliitary radio said Kollias reiterated that election of a new Parliament would be held when "suitable conditions" are created. There was no indication when this might be.

Plea Of Innocence In Burglary Case

Elzie Johnson, 23, of 20 Green Way, San Rafael, pleaded innocent to a burglary charge yesterday in Marin Municipal Court. He waived preliminary hearing and Judge Peter Allen Smith certified the case to Marin Superior Court for further proceedings at 9:30 a.m. May 8.

Johnson, a paint sander, is accused of breaking into Bret Harte Super Market at 93 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, on Jan. 26. A total of $709 in cash and liquor was taken, San Rafael police said.

Rail Peace May Be Up To Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Congressional action appeared today to be the only means of heading off a coast-to-coast railroad strike set for May 3.

Most of the negotiators for six railroad shopcraft unions left Washington yesterday, ending any chance a contract settlement might be reached with a group of railroads that handles 95 per cent of U.S. rail service.

Congress, which has made clear it will act if necessary, was considered likely to pass a law requiring compulsory arbitration if a strike materializes.

TEAMSTER BALLOT

The threat of a nationwide trucking tie-up meantime diminished somewhat as the Teamsters Union indicated it might conduct another ballot by mail if light returns from a vote last weekend were inconclusive on accepting or rejecting a proposed contract. A mail canvas could stretch out the ratification process for weeks.

The railroads began a campaign yesterday to persuade Congress not to order federal seizure of the railroads to avert the strike.

The Association of American Railroads ran advertisements in 35 cities. The industry said that "to punish the railroads under these circumstances would be a gross affront to simple justice."

RECOMMENDATIONS

The railroads contended they had accepted the recommendations of two special mediation panels appointed by President Johnson only to see them rejected by the unions.

But Joseph W. Ramsey, chief negotiator for the International Association of Machinists, said the railroads also rejected the proposal by a three-man panel of Presidential mediators Saturday.

Healthy Hair Then Usually Good Health

WAYNE, N.J. (UPI) — Healthy hair often depends on general health, according to a hair products manufacturer.

A person whose hair has a natural gloss often finds it becomes dull and drab during even a minor illness of a few days' duration, say researchers at John H. Breck, Inc.

Finance Chief Backs Accuracy Of Department

LONG BEACH (AP) — State Finance Director Gordon P. Smith vouches for the accuracy of finance department figures—allowing for a mistake regarding the firing of some Department of Mental Hygiene employees.

Smith, in a news conference yesterday, challenged Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh's contention that Gov. Reagan is using the finance department as a propaganda device and that its figures are not trustworthy.

"The Department of Finance provides the same information to the press, public and the legislature as it does to the governor," Smitn said.

The mental hygiene department's admission it would retain 800 of the 3,700 employes it had planned to fire reflected an "honest mistake," he added. However, he said, there was no mistake in plans for economy cuts in state hospitals.

Report Clarified

Sausalito City Council Tuesday night gave first reading to an ordinance requiring occupancy permits before new buildings are occupied or a change is made in the occupancy of an old building. A typographical error garbled a report of the action in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

X-15 Rocketship In Emergency

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — The expericental rocketship X-15 made a precautionary landing yesterday when a malfunction developed in its fuel control system.

William H. Dana, a civilian pilot for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, brought the sleek aircraft down at Silver Lake, a dry lake bed about 100 miles north of here.

A NASA spokesman said there was no damage to the plane and no injury to the pilot.

The malfunction developed about five minutes after the No. 3 X15 was launched from beneath the wing of its B-52 "mother ship."

Health Aide's Firing Probed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In a special public hearing yesterday of the Civil Service Commission, reasons were examined in the firing of Dr. Joel Fort as Special Problems Center director.

Dr. Ellis Sox, city health director, accused Fort of "unilateral and independent actions" and overstepping his authority. Fort's lawyers called the charges "baseless innuendoes."

After the two-hour hearing the case of the 37-year-old psychiatrist was taken under submission. A decision was expected today.

Hoffa's Son Wins Vote Test

DETROIT (UPI) —James P. Hoffa, son of imprisoned teamsters leader James R. Hoffa, yesterday was declared the winner in his first political election, and he said he did it on his own—"not on my father's name."

The recent University of Michigan Law School graduate was emphatic when he said he alone won the Democratic nomination for the Michigan House of Representatives seat vacated by the death of Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski in a 15-man primary election Tuesday.

Hoffa received 1,429 votes in the small, northwest Detroit 19th District. He beat second-place Casmer Ogonowski, a Detroit Public Works Commission aide, by 301 votes.

Unpopular Brain Asks – What Do Boys Have Against Smart Girls?

DEAR HELEN:

I am smart—too smart—and that drives boys away. They automatically think if you have a brain you're either a snob or a grind and no fun.

Well, my marks came down this term from straight A to B+ average. That's still not dumb, but all of a sudden boys started liking me. Not zillions, but enough so it's encouraging.

Now, Helen, what does being smart have to do with popularity? Why do boys always associate smartness with cloddiness? Or is it a matter of pride? That's silly. We don't take IQ tests on dates.

Would you please ask your readers: What do boys have against smart girls?—E.S.G.

DEAR E.:

Okay, I'll ask, but I'll bet the answer is: Nothing, so long as she doesn't throw her mental weight around.

Perhaps it wasn't the half-grade drop, but a change in attitude that brought the boys out of their corner.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I suppose you'll call me selfish, but I can't help it. I've got an older sister who is "sick" mentally, but not so sick she couldn't do a little work. My parents do everything for her. We've got to be, oh, so careful she doesn't go into one of her temper fits. One minute she acts like a baby—it's sickening—the next she'll fly into a rage for no reason.

Whenever we argue it's always me who gets yelled at. She constantly nags and teases me and I have to take it because she's "poor little sister."

My parents take out their wounded feelings on me. I'm supposed to "understand," but understanding doesn't calm my nerves. Many times I lock myself in my room, crying. No one seems to know I need understanding too, that I can hurt so bad I want to die. Everything centers around her.

Why can't my sister go out and get a job—she can do a lot more than she lets on. She's got to make her own way sometime. but why should she, when she's got a nice cozy home to live in free, where she can stay up all night and sleep all day? Will my folks give her a shove? No, they just sit back and let her rule them, mooch off us and act like a moron instead of growing up.—PLEASE HELP

DEAR P.H.:

I don't know all the circumstances here, but I'd suggest your parents enroll your sister in special classes for the mentally and emotionally handicapped. Most states have vocational training programs for the retarded. Many times a child once given up as hopeless can be taught a trade that will make him or her self-sufficient.

People who devoted their whole lives to the "sick" daughter are hurting everyone in the family—including the pampered one who might make it on her own, with a little push and a lot of help.—H.

Shopping in the Village

Town & Country Village

Hear ye, hear ye! The Village Voice carries good tidings. Starting May 3rd all Village shops will be open Wednesday evenings until nine. Most shops will be open Friday evenings as well.

Noticed two new long-leg pantie girdles at THE HOUR GLASS that would be dandy under knits or capris. These little "fanny firmers" are in white lycra-spandex with the Perma-Lift label. The Solitaire style features a four inch waist band, the Technique model is reinforced at the sides and derriere. (Like we said, "fanny firmers" . . . not what you'd call classy copywriting, but you must admit it's descriptive.)

We keep yapping away about the convenience of L'ENTREE casseroles but have neglected to tell you how much the youngsters in our families enjoy them. To quote one small family member, "The sauces are so good!" If your children, as ours, have turned up their noses at the word "casserole," then these dishes will be a revelation (and a great way to introduce the kids to the enjoyment of subtle seasonings).

FU'S ART STUDIO

If you've ever been disappointed with the framing of a picture you won't want to repeat the experience. This is only one of the reasons you will like the expert framing at FU'S ART STUDIO. Their frames are custom designed by artists who know just how a painting should look.

The shelves at CAPRICORN BOOKS are filled with gift ideas for Mother's Day. From slim volumes of poetry to large and beautifully illustrated books on gardening, fashion, cooking and travel . . . to say nothing of all the latest best-sellers. Be sure to check the sale table here for fabulous buys on gift-type books.

Miniature floral arrangements for life size Mothers at weekly-allowance prices, found at ALBERTA OF MARIN. These wee wonders are special containers filled with tiny blossoms and the tiny price tag reads $1.95.

If you are planning a bridal shower or other springtime luncheon we recommend KUBLAI KHAN. They have very nice accommodations for smallish parties and banquets and, of course, the decor and table appointments are outstanding. Marvelous menu here that includes Oriental and Continental cuisine.

Remember your furry friends on "Mutt-hers" Day (Sorry about that). MUTTS OF MARIN has everything for her-curs, and motherly mousers, too.

Do see FIESTA CANDLE SHOP'S wonderful collection of Village label soaps, room sprays, hand-rolled soap and shower balls, men's cologne and soap bars. These are beautifully wrapped and smell as good as they look. In an excellent assortment of gift packages, you'll find such un-soapy scents as strawberry, cinnamon, lemon and lilac (to name but a few).

Absolutely elegant waiting wear at EXPECTATION MATERNITY SHOP. For instance those long or short formal tent dresses in floaty chiffon. These exquisite creations are by Ma Mere in either hot pink or pale aqua with a beautifully beaded cowl neckline. (By the way, no reason to limit this gown to ladies-in-waiting.)

HAPPY HOUSE

From Norway to you, via HAPPY HOUSE, comes handsome enamel on stainless steel pieces that take to the oven, the freezer or the table with equal ease. Choose the Lotus pattern or solid colors or mix 'n match both, in an 8" skillet with lid and removable wooden handle for converting into a baking dish. Casseroles too in 1 to 6 qt. sizes, as well as serving plates, bowls and trays. This charming cookery is by Cathrineholm, Ltd.

Attention all you patio chefs: THE HEARTH SHOP has more barbecues than you can shake a shish-kabob at. Big, small, portable or permanent, they have them all. We like the Hasty-Bake and Scotch-Boy models of the foldable Camper style. Maybe you'd prefer the famous Char-Broil and Casa-Q brands, arriving soon.

PIGGY BANK PRICES!

This item is strictly for the kids, so "get lost," Mom (after you pass them the paper). Hey, gang, you can take Mother to dinner at The HICK'RY PIT to celebrate her special day and pick-up the check yourself. Prices at this informal family restaurant won't ruin your appetite and, maybe best of all, HICK'RY PIT will do the dishes.

READY PLANES FOR NORTH VIET RAIDS

With the step up of L.S. bombing missions into North Vietnam, operations aboard the Seventh Fleet attack carrier Kitty Hawk off the Viet coast have greatly increased. Ordinancemen put in long hours rolling 500-pound bombs across the flight deck to attack and fighter planes prior to launches which have been in operation all week.

City Legislation

State legislation affecting cities will be reviewed at a meeting of the Redwood Empire Division of the League of California Cities in Napa Saturday, Corte Madera Town Councilman Charles F. Pendleton reported today.

Assemblymen Add To Reagan Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly budget committee has expanded Gov. Reagan's "squeeze and cut and trim" budget far beyond the record $5.06 billion he requested, legislative sources disclosed today.

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee began tabulating additions it has made to the giant spending program — and the figures were bad news to the Republican governor.

More than $15 million above what Reagan requested has been added for salaries and programs of the University of California and the state colleges.

And Republicans and Democrats on an Assembly Ways and Means mental health subcommittee have been quietly adding millions more in an area where Reagan pinned much of his economy hopes.

Sources in the Ways and Means Committee gave a breakdown for additions made to Reagan's budget.

University of California programs boosted $2.1 million, mostly for a subsidy to teaching hospitals. A series of small additions to state college programs added another $847,000.

Following the recommendations of the Coordinating Council on Higher Education, the committee voted 6.5 per cent increase in general UC salaries, 1 per cent more for those teaching in special professional schools and more than 3 per cent additional for fringe benefits.

Reagan's request for state college salaries also has been hiked by the assemblymen.

Railroads carry almost half the freight that moves between cities and towns in the United States.

11-Year-Old Mill Valley Accordionist Already Pro

By ALAN D. JONES

Eleven is about the right age for sixth grade, but it's a little young to be a working musician. But a performer has to start sometime.

So for the past several months, Brian Andrews, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Andrews of 401 Ash Street, Mill Valley, has been playing accordion for diners at Gregory's Restaurant in Corte Madera. Gets tips, too.

Brian also plays fairly regularly at several convalescent hospitals and retirement homes.

Brian, his father said, usually plays Fridays and Saturdays from 7 to 9:30 p.m. or thereabouts. He occasionally plays on Sunday too, but "he likes to goof off on Sundays," Andrews said.

That's understandable. With two nights of playing, practice, and sixth grade at Tamalpais Valley School, there isn't much time left over. Brian fills the gaps with reading, and thinking about stock cars and horses.

He hopes to make a career in music, and would like to get exposure that might lead to a spot on a television show. Brian hopes ultimately to make enough money in a professional music career to buy a place to raise horses.

The funny thing about kids like that is that you check up on them 30 years later and you find out that they had a professional music career and then bought a place to raise horses.

Seminary Choir To Sing Tuesday

The 17-voice men's choir of the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, directed by Wilbur F. Russell, will give a public concert Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Montgomery Chapel on the seminary grounds.

The choir, which has just returned from a concert tour in Southern California, will perform works by Monteverdi (this is the 400th anniversary of his birth), Tompkins and Kruger.

Also to be performed are hymns of the church, a 16th Century German chorale, psalms by Joseph Gelineau, and other contemporary works and several spirituals arranged by Russell.

Wallace Is Booed—But He's Hopeful

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace, greeted by boos and chants of "black power" here last night, said today he still considered that he had been "received very well by the overwhelming majority."

Cheers punctuated the boos as Wallace addressed the night audience of more than 5,000 at Syracuse University and said, among other things, that this country would stand behind our servicemen in Vietnam if he were President.

Wallace, speaking of his talk at the university's Manley Fieldhouse, told a news conference today that "with only one or two exceptions, this was better than any reception" he received in 1964, when he ran in several presidential primaries.

Discounting the "spoiler" role now attributed to him, he declared that "if I run, I'm running to win."

The news conference preceded a trip to Pittsburgh as part of a week-long tour of the north to gauge political opinion and assess his chances if he should campaign for President in 1968.

Woman Slain In Apartment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The nude body of a woman who had been stabbed repeatedly and strangled was found yesterday at 615 Octavia Street.

She was identified as Janice Ward, 24. Police counted more than 15 stab wounds. The murder weapons were not found. No motive was immediately known.

The apartment, where she lived with her husband, Otis, 26, was spattered with blood. The body was discovered by the husband when he returned home with a friend.

'Twelfth Night' Set To Open Festival

"Twelfth Night," directed by Ann Brebner, will open the annual Marin Shakespeare Festival on July 15 at Forest Meadows Theater in San Rafael.

Managing director John Brebner will direct "King Lear," opening July 21. Performances, slated Wednesdays through Saturdays at 8:30 p.m., will run through Sept. 23.

GUEST ARTIST — Marin soprano Gwen Curatilo will be guest artist in the final season concert of the Marin Arts Quartet Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Outdoor Art Club, Mill Valley.

Waitress Is Found Dead By Husband

Evelyn Amy Bashta, 55, a coffee shop waitress, was found on the living room floor of her home at 1541-B Fourth Street, San Rafael today and was pronounced dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 3:07 a.m.

Cause of death was unknown, said Deputy Coroner Keith Craig, and an autopsy was scheduled at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

The woman's husband, Alexander Bashta, told the coroner's office his wife occasionally took tranquilize rs or sleeping tablets and often fell asleep while watching late night television.

He went to bed about 11:30 p.m. yesterday and called to her from the bedroom about 3 a.m. When he got no reply, he found her lying on the floor, according to Craig.

Mrs. Bashta had lived in Marin County one year and was employed as a waitress at San Rafael Coffee Shop.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Donald Schwartz, and a daughter, Elaine Phillips, both of New York.

Federal Snoopers In State To Discuss Mutual Problems

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan welcomed a team of 35 federal officials to California today, but warned that "we all must guard against the fearful possibility that the states may just become administrative districts" of the national government.

The federal team has been sent out into the states by President Johnson to improve the working relationship between the federal government and the states.

The federal officials and 50 of Reagan's top administrators and staff members sat down following breakfast to discuss mutual problems in nine areas — ranging from conservation to health and welfare.

Former Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida, Johnson's "ambassador" to the 50 governors, said the people are demanding a new approach to their problems. Those problems, he said, "cannot always be solved with yesterday's solutions."

"We are here without any preconceptions and preconceived ideas," Bryant added.

He expressed hopes for a fruitful session.

Reagan replied, "We look forward to great results, too."

But he said the best approach to solving state problems is to maintain the sovereignty of the states.

The federal team arrived late yesterday and leaves later in the day for a session with Nevada officials in Carson City. Then it goes to Hawaii. California, the most populous state, is the 27th visited by the federal team.

A statement by the federal group said it came to California at Reagan's invitation. But Reagan officials made it clear that was a formality.

"We invited them at their request," said Lyn Nofziger, Reagan's press secretary. "We're just not in the practice of running to the federal government for help."

In a speech last weekend, Reagan said "you can't make blatant rules and regulations from the federal level and make them fit every one of the 50 states."

Reagan said he's not ruling out the federal role "as a legitimate function in helping to solve these problems," but that basically "we can do it at the state level."

Rockefeller At Embarcadero

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — David Rockefeller, Chase Manhattan Bank president, examined the New York firm's investment prospects today in San Francisco's $150 million Embarcadero Center.

His bank will put up about 50 per cent of the center's building costs.

"A noble achievement in modern city living" was the way Rockefeller described the center at a news conference. Construction starts in the fall and eight years is estimated for completion.

The development in San Francisco's lower downtown area will provide parking for 2,000 cars, office space for a working population of 15,000 persons who would earn $90 million a year.

Student From Ethiopia Shot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A college student from Ethiopia was shot and stabbed early today in his room. Doctors said his condition was critical.

Yossebek M. Desta, 24, of Addis Ababa, was shot twice in the back and stabbed twice in the chest.

ALL IS READY — Workmen put the finishing touches to the inside of the U.S. Pavilion lunar exhibit at Montreal's Expo '67 which has its ceremonial opening today. Tomorrow, gates will swing open to the general public. (AP Wirephoto)

Expo '67 To Open To Public Tomorrow

MONTREAL (UPI) —Expo '67, Canada's $750 million World's Fair, opens its doors today for the titled and the elected. The public will begin pouring in tomorrow.

About 7,000 guests were invited to watch the colorful official opening ceremonies today on St. Helen's Island, one of the two islands on which the 1,000-acre exhibition dedicated to "Man and His World" was constructed. The other is Ile Notre Dame. The islands lie in the middle of the St. Lawrence River.

The most lavish among the exhibitions entered by 62 nations on five continents is the $15 million Soviet Union building. Its curved roof shelters replicas of Russian space vehicles and models of other technical projects.

The United States exhibit is connected to the Soviet Union's by a "peace bridge." Inside the U.S. pavilion, a plastic geodesic dome designed by R. Buckminster Fuller, and Apollo spacecraft hangs from the ceiling.

The dome, conceived by Fuller as the most efficient means of utilizing all available space in a structure, has been designed so that the plexiglass triangles that form its surface can be adjusted to control the temperature in the pavilion.

At 4 p.m. EST today Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson lights a flame that will burn throughout the six-month fair.

Pearson and Gov. Gen. Roland Michener lead a host of other Canadian dignitaries to the opening. Parliament wrapped up its current session Wednesday night in Ottawa to allow members to be in Montreal for the opening.

The ceremony was in an open amphitheatre called Place des Nations on St. Helen's Island. The concrete gathering site is surrounded by the flags of the 62 nations taking part in Expo.

The gates will open at 9:30 a.m. EST tomorrow to visitors expected to number 500,000 by the close of the weekend.

Novelist Repeats As Writing Winner

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Novelist Gerald R. Perreau - Saussine has again won first prize of $2,000 in the Samuel Goldwyn creative writing awards at UCLA.

Perreau-Saussine, 28, who also took the prize last year, won for "The Moonbathers," which he describes as a psychological mystery novel set in post-war occupied Japan.

G.M. Profits Down 34 Pct. For Quarter

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors Corp., the world's largest manufacturer, yesterday became the second of the "big four" auto makers to report drastic drops in sales and profits during the first three months of 1967.

In announcing that its first quarter profits were down 34 per cent from a year ago and its dollar sales down 14 per cent, G.M. executives predicted an upswing in the auto market following a period of "consumer uncertainty" earlier this year.

Chrysler Corp. last week reported its first quarter profits were down 70 per cent. Ford Motor Co. and American Motors Corp. have yet to report their first quarter results.

G.M. said its profits during the first three months of 1967 totaled $390 million, or $1.35 per share, on sales of $4.9 billion. First quarter profits during 1966 were $495 million, or $2.07 per share, on sales of $5.7 billion.

Frederic G. Donner, board chairman, and James M. Roche, GM president, were optimisic that the 20 per cent decline in auto sales by the industry will be erased as consumers gain confidence in the future.

They blamed the lack of confidence, strikes at the Mansfield and Norwood, Ohio, plants and an unusually hard winter in the Midwest and East for the decline.

Effectiveness Of Air Strikes On MIG Bases Concerns Pentagon

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the two North Vietnamese MIG bases struck by U.S. war planes was empty of Communist jets, Pentagon sources said today.

Only four MIGs were on the other base bombed by American jets Monday, the sources said.

Asked about this, a Defense Department spokesman said "we won't know for sure" how many Communist jet fighters were on the Kep and the Hoa Lac bases near Hanoi when they were bombed.

Because of poor weather, he said, there has been no satisfactory bomb damage assessment by reconnaissance planes.

The spokesman acknowledged that the Kep field — which sources said was bare of planes — has been undergoing extension of its runways. But he insisted that despite the construction work, the base 37 miles northeast of Hanoi is operational.

Another department spokesman disputed the report that only four MIGs were caught on the ground at Hoa Lac, 19 miles west of Hanoi.

In announcing the raids early this week, an official spokesma in Saigon said that Kep was known to have been the base for 19 or 20 MIGs while Hoa Lac was believed to have been the home of up to nine planes. This Hoa Lac estimate has been raised to about 15.

Air Force officers in Vietnam long have argued for striking the MIG bases in the North, contending the best way to destroy the enemy air force is while it is ground-bound, rather than taking on the MIGs in the air.

In the wake of the Hoa Lac and Kep raids, some critics complained the American raiders should have been allowed to take out all MIG bases — particularly the most important one at Phuc Yen, some 15 miles north of Hanoi.

This represented possibly a third of North Vietnam's air force, estimated at between 120 and 150 MIG jets.

The critics said the effect of only bombing Hoa Lac and Kep was to alert the enemy to concentrate antiaircraft guns around the other bases. This, they said, could mean heavier U.S. losses if the remaining fields are attacked.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said yesterday a longstanding decision against bombing the MIG fields was changed because "the MIGs have been much more active, they engaged our aircraft in air combat on several occasions and it seemed wise, therefore, to begin to attack their bases."

When asked what enemy activity McNamara was referring to, the Defense Department said the number of "encounters" rose from two involving 10 MIGs in February, to six involving 20 MIGs in March, to nine involving 39 MIGs in the first 23 days of April.

Flags Will Fly For Vietnam

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE, N.J. (AP) — All Cape May County government buildings will fly the American flag 24 hours a day for the duration of the Vietnamese war.

The County Board of Freeholders issued the order yesterday as a symbol of support for American servicemen.

"We want our fighting men to know we don't agree with draft card burners and draft dodgers," Freeholder Francis Townsend said.

Tam Red Cross Club Seeking Tanzania Aid

Tamalpais High School's Red Cross Club is seeking donations of clothing and school and first aid supplies for its second annual project to aid students in Tanzania.

Toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, first aid supplies, sweaters, pencils, pens and books are examples of goods that will be sent next month under the "Tam to Tanzania" program. Idea for the program came from Mrs. Katherine Flanagan, retired Tam teacher who taught English for the Peace Corps in Tanzania.

The "great poverty" of her students, she found, required her to teach basic hygiene and first aid as well as English. In the past year, the club has sent three shipments of supplies to the school where she taught on the slopes of Mount Kilamanjaro.

Military Career Night

A military information evening will be held at 7:45 p.m. May 4 in the old gymnasium at Novato High School, to describe military careers and opportunities to juniors and seniors at Novato High School, college students and parents.

IT'S AN ARK!

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hafer, of 463 Montecito Drive, Corte Madera, are prepared in case the rain doesn't stop. A boat Hafer is building in his front yard bears the sign: "It's an ark! How long can you tread water?" Scott Hafer, 8, thinks it's better than a tree-house.

Daylight Burglar Nets $7,000 Haul

A burglar who forced open a door with a tire iron stole $7,503 worth of personal property from the home of Jules L. Gall at 920 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, during daylight yesterday, police reported.

Mrs. Gall discovered the burglary on arriving home in the evening. The entire house had been ransacked.

The list of stolen items included a .45 caliber automatic pistol, stereo equipment, musical instruments, cameras, television set, jewelry, liquor and silverware.

Mack N. Staley, owner of Sanapa Farms, 41 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, reported yesterday to police that two rose bushes worth $5 had been taken from a redwood planter box in front of his business.

The home of Wilson Fraker, 12 Stanton Way, Mill Valley, was entered last evening by a burglar, police reported, but nothing was taken. A door had been pried open.

Novato Fire District Trims Rate 12 Cents

The economy minded Novato Fire District Board last night trimmed $100,000 from the proposed budget for fiscal 1968, cutting the tax rate by 12 cents.

The $100,000 was cut from the capital improvement portion of the budget. The cut lowered the budget proposed by Fire Chief George Cavallero from $534,667 to $434,667, or $12,018 less than the current budget.

It will also lower the tax rate from 75 cents to 63 cents per $100 assessed valuation, Cavallero said.

The board cut $30,000 for a drill tower, $20,000 for site preparation and $50,000 from the building fund for Fire Station No. 4.

"Plans are not completed for the new unit at the present time, so there was no need to set aside capital outlay for future construction as we have done in the past," said Peter Ferrarese, board chairman. Ferrarese said that the board had calculated that the assessed valuation of the district would rise about eight per cent from $61 to $68 million.

Grand Jury Hears Of Narcotics Use

Vincent C. Chasten, narcotic field supervisor with the Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement, San Francisco, appeared last night before Marin County Grand Jury in regular session to discuss the problem of the use of dangerous drugs and illegal narcotics in the Bay Area.

Also attending was Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales. Jury foreman Clifford S. Lund said no indictments were returned, but an interim report will be submitted to the county board of supervisors Tuesday.

Marin's Mental Health Funding Pictured Bleak

Economy measures in the mental health field by the Reagan Administration may sharply curtail county services or increase county costs, the Marin County Mental Health Advisory Board was told last night.

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen told fellow board members, that Marin faces losses in state subvention of mental health programs ranging from $85,000 to $150,000.

TO LEAD GROUP

Kettenhofen said he will lead a "task force" to Sacramento Monday to discuss the situation with State Health and Welfare Agency officials. Accompanying him will be Dr. Richard Brunstetter, advisory board chairman; Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of Community Mental Health Services; Thomas F. Campanella, assistant county administrator; Mrs. Larry B. Mishkind, president of the Marin Association for Mental Health, and Mrs. Nevada Christian, association director.

Superior Court Judge Samuel W. Gardiner, presiding judge of the juvenile court, told the board there is need for closer cooperation between mental health agencies, the county probation department and the courts, particularly in the supervision of youthful probationers.

DRUG PROBLEM

He said only a small percentage of youthful offenders are repeaters but more effective probationary work is required for these.

Kettenhofen told the board that he had been disturbed by some aspects of last Saturday's conference at College of Marin on the drug problem among young people, sponsored by Marin Youth for Action. The supervisor said that Probation Officer Neil Abercrombie in an attack on existing laws had in effect "torn down society without giving young people something constructive to hang on to."

The board recommended that the county give careful study to the cost and effectiveness of its rehabilitation center for youth before phasing it out, as suggested by Administrator Alan Bruce.

The board also passed a resolution calling for county operation of out-patient care at the future Community Mental Health Center, with Marin General Hospital in charge of inpatient care.

Sergeants At Base Promoted

Technical sergeants who will become master sergeants are Kenneth P. Dudschus of 709 Sutro Avenue, Novato, and Morris A. Lasorda of 677 Owens Drive, Novato.

Staff sergeants promoted to technical sergeants are Odell E. Jordan of 1140 Ransome Drive, Novato; Ronald R. Mackie of 1085 Banta Court, Novato, and James A. Gardiner of Raphael Village. A/1C Jose R. Martinez of 775 Turner Boulevard, San Rafael, was also promoted to technical sergeant.

Woman Taken Out Of Bay At Belvedere

A San Francisco woman was rescued by a Belvedere resident from cold bay waters near Corinthian Yacht Club yesterday after she tried to swim home because "God told me to go in."

Karen Fulton 21, of San Francsico, told Belvedere police she left her baby-sitter job on Golden Gate Avenue, shortly before 5 p.m. and started to walk downtown to catch a bus.

She told police that as she passed the waterfront corner of Bayview and Beach Road, "God told me to go in." She said the water didn't feel cold, so she plunged in and started swimming toward San Francisco.

But, when she stopped to rest at a buoy near the yacht club, she was seen by William James Ferguson of 284 San Rafael Avenue, Belvedere, who was working on his boat. Ferguson rowed out and pulled her from the water, took her to the yacht club and called police.

Belvedere Patrolman William P. Brust said that while being questioned, the woman several times "flew into a frenzy" but denied taking LSD or any drug. She was taken to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Who's Lost? Cub Scouts Went Hiking

Maybe 14 Novato Cub Scouts were't lost yesterday, but a good many police, firemen and other searchers thought they were.

A group of 19 Cubs and three den mothers started hiking up Mount Burdell near Novato at 3:30 p.m. The hike went well until five of them, and den mothers Mrs. Ann Marie Canziani, Mrs. Marilyn Schyberg and Mrs. Marion Oppenlander stopped to rest briefly.

The other 14 hiked on, and were soon out of earshot. Mrs. Canziani and the five Cubs turned back and the other two women started up the trail in search of the others.

Mrs. Canziani notified Novato police when the group had not returned to the starting point by 5 p.m. Volunteers set out on foot, motorcycle and Fire Department jeep.

The search ended at 6 p.m. when the two den mothers and 14 boys trudged in to the starting point.

Marin City's Center Grant Of $252,967

Approval of a $252,967 grant for Marin City's Manzanita Neighborhood Center was announced yesterday by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The grant will finance about two thirds of the $379,450 center, which will include facilities for recreation, vocational and remedial training, social service work, a library and health clinic.

Work on the center is to begin later this spring. An existing 12,920-square-foot building will be renovated, and two additions, totaling 8,300 square feet, will be added on the 3.8 acre site off Drake Avenue.

Little Change Due In Flood Tax Rate

A preliminery look at next fiscal year's budget for Flood Control Advisory Board 6 — which concerns San Rafael Meadows — indicates little change from the present tax rate of 20.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation, Charles E. Murphy of the county public works department said today.

Meeting last night, the board asked Murphy for more information before it makes its final budget recommendation to the board of supervisors. The advisory board will meet again next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in room 342 of the Civic Center.

$60,000 For Added Parks Land Is Asked In Budget

A San Rafael parks capital improvement budget including $60,000 for land acquisition was presented to the city park and recreation commission last night by Director Andrew J. Snyder.

The $60,000 would be used to acquire park land in East San Rafael and in the vicinity of Twelveoak Hill and San Rafael Park developments.

In addition, Snyder proposed adding $500,000 to the $51,000 carried over from this year for Montecillo Park, location of which now is in doubt. This would be for development unless it were necessary to use part of it for land, he said.

Kaiser Foundation is discussing purchase from the Freitas estate of land which might intrude on the five acres adjoining Don Timoteo School which the city had planned to buy for Montecillo Park. However, there is nearly eight acres of useable land elsewhere in the same 28-acre parcel owned by the Freitas estate, Snyder said.

Also it is unclear yet whether the land sought by Kaiser for expansion of its hospital would include that considered by the city, he reported.

This was to be a 65-acre park donated by the Freitas estate. However, refusal of some of the heirs to agree to the donation apparently has killed the plan.

"I don't think we'll ever get to first base there," declared commission chairman Charles L. Tacchi, directing the amount be deleted.

The proposed capital improvements budget also includes $65,000 toward a community center building, probably to be located in Albert Park. The same amount was budgeted for this year, but was deleted when city revenues failed to come up to expectations, Snyder reported.

Also included are $8,500 for sidewalk, play area and drainage work at Gerstle Park, $10,000 added to a $17,500 carryover for Albert Park lighting, and $6,500 for small landscaping projects.

Snyder also presented plans for an expanded summer recreation program.

summer playground program will have a theme each week.

This year, he announced, the For instance, one week will be "Crazy, Lazy Hobo Week." Children will make articles out of tin cans, and on Friday will dress as hoboes and have a "hobo party."

The summer program will run eight weeks, starting June 26.

The commission approved increasing the fee for "learn to swim" classes from $1.50 for eight classes to $2 for 10 classes.

Commissioner Dino Ghilotti was absent and Commissioner Howard Simon arrived midway in the meeting.

Service Station Reports Robbery

Two $25 12-volt batteries and $100 in cash were stolen yesterday morning from a service station at Francisco and Bellam boulevards, San Rafael police reported today.

Station owner Edward W. Moews reported the burglary, which he said occurred after 2 a.m.

Stinson Beach Fire Board Views Budget

Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commissioners last night adopted a preliminary budget of $16,000 for fiscal 1968, reported Commissioner Louis De Ghelder.

Up $3,000 from the current budget in order to buy a new fire truck, the preliminary budget for next fiscal year will add "two or three" cents to the current tax rate of 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation, he said.

Tools Stolen

A tool box, tools, fuel pump and propane torch worth $340 were stolen yeasterday morning from Arthur Ekman of 46 F Street, San Rafael police reported today. The items disappeared from an unlocked garage on the property, police said.

Poverty War Director For Marin City

Marin County Economic Opportunity Council last night hired James W. Coleman, 32, of Oakland, as executive director of the War on Poverty program in Marin City at $8,400 a year.

Coleman, a native of Meridian, Miss., served as project director last summer of the special summer youth project of Oakland's Department of Human Resources. For six years, he held executive posts with the Boy Scouts of America in Chicago and San Francisco.

A graduate of Arkansas State College, he did graduate work in political science at Roosevelt College, Chicago. He was a troop information instructor during his two years in the army.

He is single.

Coleman will start work Monday in the new Marin City target area office at 55 Park Circle. A one-year lease on the house was taken for $2,180.

Two community workers will be hired immediately, he said. Future plans call for hiring two additional workers, he added.

The council office will move sometime next month to 1380 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, announced Director Victor H. Cary. The 1,000-square-foot office was leased one year for "about" $4.20 a square foot, he said. The lease starts Monday, but the move will be delayed pending alterations.

Crowded? Marin Will Double Numbers By '85

Marin County, with a population 188,600 in July 1965, will double its numbers to 375,400 by July 1985, the State Department of Finance predicted yesterday.

Future mid-year estimates for Marin announced were: 225,500 in 1970, 270,500 in 1975 and 320,900 in 1980.

Marin would thus be keeping pace with the state as a whole, which is expected to nearly double its population during the 25-year period to a total of 29,475,000 by 1985.

Only two counties are expected to show a loss in that period, Colusa dropping from 12,600 to 11,600 and San Francisco from 743,100 to 737,100, the department predicts.

Los Angeles County, with a gain of 2,366,300, will grow most in numbers to a total of 9,234,600 by 1985. But Ventura County will win the percentage sweepstakes with a threefold growth from 302,700 to 822,000.

Tiny Alpine County, high in the Sierra, stands aloof from all this, according to the department, with 400 persons in 1960 and is expected to remain 400 in 1985.

A Calm Approach To Hippie Problem

The Corte Madera Parks and Recreation Commission last night calmed the fears of Ellen Wirth of Corte Madera, who wrote to the commission fearing that San Francisco hippies might overflow into Corte Madera park this summer.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said disorderly conduct sections of the State Penal Code would be sufficient to handle the problem of anyone trying to sleep in the park.

Judge Grants Wife Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Broderick Crawford has been divorced by actress Joan Tabor and ordered to pay $500 monthly alimony for five years.

Miss Tabor, 33, charged Crawford has subjected her to "physical and verbal abuse. He talked terribly and pushed me around quite a bit."

Superior Court Judge Richard Fildew granted her a default divorce yesterday and fixed the alimony based on her testimony that Crawford's income ranges around $1,000 per week.

Crawford, 55, and Miss Tabor were married in Las Vegas, Nev., Jan. 4, 1962 and separated July 1, 1965.

SOLONS VOTE ON JUDGES ASKED

Burns And Unruh Prefer Governor's Appointments To Those Of State Bar

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Senate President pro tem Hugh Burns proposed today that the legislature confirm all the governor's judicial appointments and said the state bar should keep hands off the selection of judges.

The Fresno Democrat's statement won the prompt endorsement of Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, who said "to substitute the invisible politics of the bar for the visible politics of the governor" would be a mistake.

They commented at a weekly news conference following a Senate committee's rejection of Gov. Reagan's proposal to have screening committees of lawyers and laymen help select judges. It was backed by the California State Bar Association.

Among the points they touched upon:

Burns predicted a bill liberalizing abortion laws in California will pass the Senate if the Senate Judiciary Committee approves it tonight. Unruh declined on chances in the Assembly.

Unruh, asked about lobbysts campaign contributions, said the financing of political campaigns was one of the nation's biggest problems. He called for government financing of political campaigns and warned politics is becoming "dominated by rich men and wealthy interests."

Burns' proposed revision of the system of appointing judges was as big as any change proposed in recent years.

He said that he will introduce a constitutional amendment next year giving the Senate — and possibly the Assembly — a veto power over the governor's judicial appointments by requiring legislative confirmation.

Burns also proposed that legislators be barred from accepting judgeships. The possibility of a gubernatorial appointment to a job on the bench often destroys a legislator's independence, Burns said.

Unruh was peppered with questions about a report on lobbyists submitted by Assemblyman Willie Brown, D-San Francisco, chairman of the lower house lobby control committee.

Unruh said the report hadn't been made public, declared he was not aware of any lobbying abuses at present but added that if Brown found anything wrong, he could proceed to suggest changes.

Missing Ingredient In San Rafael's Comeback

The San Rafael Chamber of Commerce has made a dramatic comeback in the past six months.

Only last fall, it was dormant if not dead. It needed the infusion of new life and new inspiration.

New officers and directors who took over for the new year have pumped new life and enthusiasm into the organization. They have launched the Mission to Progress campaign, a program calling for a year-long observance of the 150th anniversary of Mission San Rafael. They have sent out circulars to prod the business community out of its lethargy.

The new regime is ready to go, but for one missing ingredient. That is the active support of the community.

The Chamber of Commerce, historically and traditionally is an organization of retail merchants and those who sell services including professional people. Support must come in the form of both enthusiastic personal participation in projects of the Chamber of Commerce and in monetary contributions to finance the various projects.

The rejuvenated San Rafael Chamber of Commerce so far has received less than full and enthusiastic support from the business and professional community.

Cities across the nation face a mounting number of problems, and the active participation of civic booster groups is necessary if these problems are to be licked.

Cities in Marin County are no exception. They suffer from downtown traffic congestion which threatens to strangulate business, with a consequent fall in property values and a drop in tax returns to the city treasury.

San Rafael's problems can be expected to get worse before they get better. Active assistance of a lively Chamber of Commerce is needed to cope with the problems.

We hope that those who should be active supporters of the Chamber, but who have not yet come forth, will now do so without further delay.

In the next decade or two, many cities throughout the nation are going to stagnate. They are destined to become mired in a morass of tangled transportation and other problems. Let's hope that San Rafael will not be among them.

We can help San Rafael to avoid that fate by putting our shoulders to the wheel on such projects as the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce is now attempting to undertake in the form of its "Mission to Progress—'67."

'Been Raining All My Life'

When we spoke to a friend about our super-abundant rainfall this winter, he replied, with a knowing smile, "It's been raining all my life."

Certainly, many Marinites felt that way this rainy season.

Some might even agree with an explanation of an imaginative child, "The United States and Russia hurt the moon and made her cry."

LATE ARRIVALS FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR

A club called the "Procrastinators" finally got around to visiting the New York World's Fair — more than a year after it closed.

Looking around the almost demolished grounds, the club's president and founder admitted, "We assumed we'd miss a few things."

But the club's secretary saw a lighter side: "It's easy to get around," he ventured. "The lines are short."

Life is filled with so many opportunities and possibilities that all of us are forced to postpone some in order to follow through on others.

We should not be too worried then about whether we procrastinate. Rather we ought to concern ourselves about which things we put off — and why.

By doing the essentials first, in our duties to God, self and neighbor, we can be assured that whatever else we "let slide" will be of no great moment.

"Walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of the time."

AFFAIRS OF STATE

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The idea of Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, for a huge legislative building to be a part of the capitol complex is not a new one. Senator Collier proposes a skyscraper of some 24 stories, to house the state legislature, all its attaches and the aides who keep the wheels moving.

The proposed building, which is in the initial planning stages, is estimated to cost about $32 million, and it would be located just east of Capitol Park in Sacramento, on two blocks of land which already has been purchased or is in the process of purchasing, by the state for the capitol complex.

THE PROBLEM of space for the growing functions of government is one which has plagued not only the legislative, but also the executive branch of government for the past half century.

When the capitol annex was constructed less than 15 years ago, it was thought at the time sufficient space would be provided for a generation to come.

However, it didn't work out this way, and demands for more space were apparent scarcely before the annex was opened.

Thus, the present state capitol and annex are hopelessly inadequate to meet the growing demands for legislators, attaches, committees, and others who need to be housed with offices befitting their stations.

THE OLD STATE capitol building itself, started soon after the Civil War, is a crumbling structure, built of brick. For years, attempts have been made to keep it from leaking, but no matter how much it is repaired, every rain brings its toll. It is kept alive only through extensive continuous repairs and painting, which cost the taxpayers, it is estimated, much more than would construction of a modern building.

In addition, the old capitol dome, once a great tourist attraction, has been closed to the public for years, because of an unsafe stairway. The elevators are antiquated, employees are forced to work in airless inner rooms lighted only artificially, and it takes something of a mathematician to figure what floor you're on when going between the old building and the annex.

MANY ADHERE to the contention that the best thing that could happen to the old capitol building would be to start at the gilded knob at the top of the dome, and tear it down brick by brick until even the 12-foot brick foundation is gone, thereby relieving the taxpayers of additional maintenance cost.

There are others, of course, who think it should be maintained as an historical replica of California's early days, and this may have some merit if there's plenty of money to spend.

HOWEVER, IT probably will be a good many years before the legislature goes modern with a new skyscraper, if the sample of the governor's mansion is a criterion. For more than 30 years, there has been agitation to replace the mid-Victorian mansion at 16th and H streets with a modern structure in a desirable part of town.

So far, however, it's only been agitation, and Gov. Ronald Reagan moved out to live in a little more modern home, at least temporarily. At least, where there's talk, there may eventually be some action.

Take Closer Look Under That Log!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Our county seems to be attracted by hate mongers, and potential killers, "if someone else does the dirty work."

A San Rafael cosmetic manufacturer advocates wholesale slaughter of citizens of the cities of North Vietnam and to top it all, sick (the democratic?) Chiang Kai Shek on them. We also have the head Nazi gangster of the U.S.A. in the county. Marvelous Marin.

I hope they don't roll over any more logs. You never can tell what's under them.

Republicans Only In Their Name

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the first 100 days of the new administration in Sacramento, our legislative representatives have introduced 5,000 measures, most of which in one way or another will deprive California citizens of some measure of freedom. If not directly, at least depriving them of some more of their hard earned dollars.

Our (Republican?) Assemblyman William Bagley is responsible for 30 of these measures. (Are you trying to break some kind of a record, Bill?).

Bagley is suppose to be representing, or at least, he was elected as a member of the Party of free enterprise, but most of his proposed legislation is aimed at aiding the complete socialization of our state.

With tongue in cheek, he supposedly worked for the election of our new governor, who is surprising some of the professionals, and most of all "the establishment," by attempting to carry out his campaign promises.

The Bagleys, Monaghans, Venemans, and others of their ilk, seem to have forgotten the mandate of the people who elected them. The election showed that most of the Republicans and a great many Democrats, liked what Reagan had to offer, and expected the representatives whom they elected, to aid him in putting it across.

Instead they choose to listen to the loud-mouthed minorities, and spend, spend and spend.

Gov. Reagan asked for a mere ten per cent reduction in cost to the taxpayers, because he felt that would be all a socialistic minded legislature would go for, and they yell their heads off about him sabotaging our state institutions.

Show me a governmental bureau, from the county level on up to the federal government, that is not overloaded with deadwood.

I will go along with Dr. Parkinson's 11th commandment, (one Republican shalt not speak ill of another Republican), but first they will have to prove by their actions, that they are Republicans.

The Kuchels, the Bagleys and the Monaghans are Republican, only in name.

Declare War To Cut Off 'Peace Marchers'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: Marsha Kegg's letter April 18.

I am in full agreement with Miss Kegg. I believe that as long as we are fighting in Vietnam we should give all the support we can to our men there.

I also believe that we should not only give them financial support, but moral support also. I am sure that when the men in Vietnam heard of the "Peace Marches" at home they were disgusted. I wish that President Johnson would ask for a declaration of war, so that these peace-creeps would be silenced.

Bunny Contest Win A Fabulous Dream

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Remember the fabulous dreams you had as a child? The delightful thoughts of flying through the sky on magic carpets, lands full of lemonade and lollipops, and fun, food, and frolic that never ends?

Our children received a trip to that kind of paradise on April 15 and how can parents adequately thank all the people involved, who made these dreams come true? Can we only say "thank you" Corte Madera Merchants Council for sponsoring the "Color the Bunny Contest," by which these trips to Disneyland were made possible for many children? It just doesn't seem enough to say "thank you" Mr. Hollis Smith, chairman of the event, for all the hours of effort, to say nothing of having to judge close to 12,000 entries in the contest. "Thank you" Mr. George, travel advisor, who arranged the bus and air transportation, and made all its intricacies fit together like pieces in a puzzle. It is not enough, but until there is some other way to show our appreciation, it must do.

Aside from the pleasure this contest offered our children, let us again consider for a moment the fact that there were nearly 12,000 pictures lovingly colored and entered. Does this not show an interest by our young people in striving to do their best, in fair competition, to achieve a worthwhile price and recognition? We feel so. That is 24,000 hands working towards constructing rather than destructing. Could not various merchants councils merge, and work together to promote various interests for children to work towards, such as Corte Madera has done?

Thanks for the memories of a day never to be forgotten by our entire family, and to all who made it possible!

Let's Back Our State, Reagan

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Except in the minds of the diehard and impractical dreamers, there is no practical or feasible method of removing Ronald Reagan from the office of governor. No amount of anguished wailing can argue with the million vote plurality that threw a very much discredited Brown and nearly all his administration out of Sacramento.

It is quite likely the new governor may close still more welfare centers and trim other unnecessary costs. In the matter of legal executions of murderers, he might even elect to allow the law to take its course and not be pressured by Judas churches who toll their bells or bands of blubbering sobbing individuals who in their unthinking hysteria, completely forget the victims.

It would seem in the name of common sense that these people and some of our misguided churches might better direct their wasted and mispent energy in supporting Reagan in his fight against welfare excesses, crime and high taxes.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

GOP Already Having Problems Of Finding A Real Candidate

WASHINGTON — The main reason that Charles Dillon Stengel and the New York Yankees won the pennant (with a regularity that gave Yankee fans the kind of arrogance of power that Senator Fulbright sees in the nation as a whole these days) was that the team had the best farm system in the majors. It regularly produced new players and new faces and it made Stengel's task relatively easy.

The Republican party, unfortunately, has been unable to develop a farm system, and that is its great weakness. The last time it won nationally was with a war hero, and in order to have war heroes, you have to have wars, which is probably not a healthy way to produce winning Presidential candidates.

IN THEORY 1968 presents a golden opportunity for the Republicans. They face a President who, for all of his political mastery, legislative accomplishment, and good intentions, is not universally loved. He has not been able to shake off the image of a Pedernales medicine man, and his pronouncements are suspect.

Further, he is bogged down in an unpopular war in Vietnam. There is a lingering, dimly perceived, national sense of unease over the Kennedy assassination — at least the Kennedys have not forgiven President Johnson for happening to be the vice president who benefitted from the tragedy.

AGAINST THIS background, whom do the Republicans offer to the people? Chuck Percy, the all-American boy, seeking the White House in the Horatio Alger tradition which tells us that nothing is beyond reach if only we will work 16 hours a day, eat our Ralston and wash behind the ears. (But would you want a Chuck in the White House?)

George Wilcken Romney who, when chided for having no position on Vietnam, sat down with his advisers and invented one. Like Stuart Symington, Romney looks like a president, but as Symington has demonstrated, that isn't always enough.

Still, Romney may yet overcome his background and prove that an average American youngster with five grandmothers, born in a polygamist colony in Mexico, and married to a former Hollywood actress can still become President.

RICHARD NIXON. He and the late Checkers were accepted by the voters in the Eisenhower years, but he was rejected in 1960 (by a narrow margin) and he could not be elected governor of California in 1962 (although the recent election of Ronald Reagan proves that Nixon's failure to achieve that office should not be held against him).

Nixon is clever, quick, and although he is not often given credit for it, he may have the best mind of any of the Republicans. But his erratic and highly volatile press conference after he lost to Pat Brown in 1962 ought to be re-read by any thoughtful citizen who contemplates sound sleep with Nixon's finger near the button.

As for Reagan, despite the sincere, stage mannerisms, he has yet to prove that beneath the pompadour there is more than a shallow figure cracking bad Hollywood jokes and, for reasons that defy logic, being taken seriously as a candidate for the most powerful office in the world.

THAT LEAVES NELSON Rockefeller, who says he won't run, which nobody believes. He is probably the only Republican who might win in 1968 and for that reason, the party, with its sure instinct for defeat, will probably not nominate him.

Some party professionals seem to fear that his marital difficulties have marked him with the image of a man who sneaks off to the newsstand on his lunch hour to read Playboy.

But he is much closer to the mainstream of American thought than the party's last incredible candidate, Barry Goldwater, whose chief contribution to the national welfare was to design a pair of men's boxer undershorts with ants on them.

SO DO NOT complain too loudly about President Johnson. For all his faults—including adopting Goldwater's Vietnam policy—he is likely to be around for another four years. The American people may still decide they would rather have a man who abuses his dog occasionally than one who tries to put him on the ticket as a running mate.

Campaign Subsidy Law Fight Looming

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Second only to his fight to regain his House seat, Adam Clayton Powell is interested in what happens to the controversial campaign subsidy law now under fire in Congress.

While waiting in Bimini for the courts to rule on his petition to upset his expulsion Powell has made frequent calls to members of the Democratic House Study Group to keep abreast of the behind-the-scenes developments in these two front-page controversies.

TO THE SURPRISE of those liberal Democrats who favor seating Powell, the unfrocked Harlem politician always links his own seating battle with the campaign subsidy fight.

Specifically, Powell usually seeks the latest information on the legislative efforts to perfect the so-called "third party" provision in the 1966 Election Fund Act, which provides for the financing of presidential campaigns by a tax check-off system.

Under this provision minor parties can qualify for post-financing of their campaigns if they receive 5,000,000 votes in 1968.

THE CANDIDATE OF such a party would be entitled to reimbursement at $1 for each vote over that number. Several proposals now being pushed in Congress, which Powell favors, would lower this requirement to 2,000,000 votes.

Main provision of the campaign subsidy law provides that the Democratic and Republican parties could receive up to $30 million each to finance their 1968 presidential campaigns. The money would come from taxpayers willing to earmark $1 on their income tax returns for the subsidy fund.

Powell, who after his ouster from the House called for "the birth of a black political power third force" has been in constant contact with Dr. Martin Luther King, discussing both of these controversies.

THE MILITANT KING, who is trying to form a coalition of anti-Vietnam war protesters, civil rights and student groups, wants Powell to join him in criss-crossing the country to promote the idea of a "Peace Party" for 1968.

King and others have suggested to Powell that he kick off the new party campaign when he delivers the keynote address to the first national conference of elected Negro public officials in Los Angeles on May 26.

By then Powell's lawyers hope to have a favorable court decision ordering the House to seat the Harlem Democrat. Even if the court should rule this way, it is very doubtful the House would agree to seat Powell.

HISTORIC CASE—This legal confrontatiion is being looked on by Democratic leaders as a major constitutional test of the separation of powers of the judicial and legislative branches of government.

POWELL'S COURT battle will shortly be supported by the opening of a "second front" by his backers in Congress. These legislators will push for the Harlem Democrat's seating following the certification of his re-election by New York's Governor Rockefeller.

John Ciardi Packs Powerful Poetic Punch In Today's World

Anyone who thinks poets are all hairy hippies howling in the wilderness, frustrated spinsters dreamy-eyed behind thick glasses, or would-be writers who flunked classes in punctuation, should have seen John Ciardi the other night.

His appearance at the College of Marin didn't draw nearly so well as the other lecture in the series I managed to attend this year — Dr. Louis S. B. Leakey's great talk on evolution and progress. However, the COM gym was comfortably populated.

AS SOON AS the audience found out how thoroughly and warmly Ciardi was in and with today's world, the crowd was warmly "with" him. Perhaps some of the educator-types squirmed at what he had to say about teaching poetry to youngsters, but they could not but admit he knew what's what.

This neatly-combed gent in the business suit has been a teacher, esteemed critic, sophisticated world traveler (self admittedly with a credit card and airplane ticket rather than barefoot with a banjo on his back) and above all, a successful, published writer.

FROM THE SUBLIME to the Gorblimey, as the Cockneys like to say:

I think the Internal Revenúe Service may be in trouble with the U.S. Post Office, and maybe even with San Diego's Rev. Assemblyman E. Richard Barnes, prime mover of the recent California CLEAN proposition.

My wife recently dutifully applied for Social Security and other documents necessary to employ a teen-ager as kennel help.

Years ago, a former owner lovingly named our little Black Point homestead "Fiddler's Green," after the Irish sailor's mythical heaven beneath the sea.

But we live in fear and trembling these days, that a postal inspector will come tut-tutting to our door, or that Rev. Barnes will try to put us in his directory of things offensive.

At the very least, Uncle Sam is guilty of official editorializing about the nature of a dog kennel.

You see, as our federal mail now shows, Uncle Sam has us in his records as "Piddler's Green."

ALL THIS GLOOMY weather should contain at least one ray of sunshine for those worrying about Marin overpopulation. We have it on good authority that the heavy rain and April snows are the rising curtain on the next Ice Age.

At the very best, Marin will become a subarctic rain forest like the Olympic Peninsula.

AND WHO from Kansas will want to live here then?

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

The Marin County supervisors gave tentative approval to a plan for county-wide garbage disposal which would involve construction of two disposal plants at a cost of about $2.5 million.

Mill Valley Elementary School District trustees passed a resolution of intention to adopt a $1 million budget, largest in the history of the district's operation.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County and state health officials initiated a sewage survey of Richardson Bay in an attempt to prove that setting up a Southern Marin Sanitation District would be the best solution to the pollution problem.

MORRIE RYSKIND

It's A Mess, But There's Still Some Balm In Gilead

SPRING WAS STRICTLY for the birds this year. The swallows came back to Capistrano on schedule; but, for the rest of us, the long, cold winter was followed by Dr. Matrin Luther King and the long, hot summer that inevitably comes in his wake.

The record, alas, shows we are in the red — and it isn't all ink. Some of it is the precious blood of Americans dying in Vietnam.

There was that consular treaty with the Russians, heralded as ending the Cold War. For almost 50 years we had been absessed with the paranoiac notion that the USSR intended to conquer us by hook or by crook, and it was high time to make amends for our unjust suspicions.

True, all her statesmen from Stalin to Kosygin had echoed that threat, but it was only harmless campaign oratory. If Russia erected the Berlin Wall, put missile sites into Cuba and gave Ho a few hundred Migs, that was only Foreign Aid to Underdeveloped Nations, surely a noble cause.

SOME DISSIDENTS argued we had enough treaties as it was. We already had alliances with some 40 nations to whose defense we were pledged, but where it was unsafe for our Vice-President to visit if he came without money. In Pakistan, allegedly a member of Seato, even ex-Veeps were not welcome.

But that was obvious picking. After all, both Humphrey and Nixon escaped with their lives, and what's a little rock-throwing between friends? And if Old Glory could be burned to ashes in New York, why not in Paris?

So the Senate passed the treaty, confident it would not only end the Cold War but also widen the split between the mellowing Russians and the intransigent Maoists. Twenty years ago, the same advocates had argued the Red Chinese were just agrarian reformers, and the Kremlin the implacable Marxists. But that was an unfortunate typographical error. It should have read vice versa.

THE TREATY, despite its detractors, seemed to pay off immediately. Peking reacted by calling Kosygin a "capitalist tool," and Brezhnev a "betrayer of the Revolution."

I was not convinced the Russkis had mellowed, but Brezhnev made a bum out of me by turning the other cheek to this barrage. He replied by urging that Russia and China forget their differences and unite to drive the Yankee imperialists out of Vietnam. Which sort of made bums out of the treaty signers, too.

Tito, whose communist economy is a showcase — because of a billion U.S. dollars, extracted from the sweat and taxes of us capitalist slaves — got into the act, too. Not on our side, but on the side of those we had so successfully wooed him from. He accused us of wholesale genocide — which ought to get him another billion or so from our grateful government.

(I TRUST THIS will not destroy his cordial relationship with Earl Warren, who has so often been entertained by the Marshal when visiting Titoland. The Justice frequently frees murderers who have spoken too freely to the police; whereas the Marshal has just imprisoned a writer who spoke too freely. But civilized men can remain friends even when they disagree philosophically).

Then there's the President of Ecuador, who feels that every dollar we spend in Vietnam is taken right out of his pocket; and, of course, the omnipresent Dr. King, who staked out first claim on that money. If we ever do get Ho to the conference table, there is still the danger that war may break out between Ecuador and the followers of the Reverend.

IT'S A MESS, as you see, but there is still some balm in Gilead. And my Uncle Gregory Award goes to the three colored ministers in Chicago who have charged Dr. King with exacerbating the race problem by leaving a legacy of hate wherever he has gone.

Said one, asked on TV what he would say to King, "I'd say get the hell out of Chicago — and stay out. We were getting along fine till you came."

Not very churchly language, but it has the advantage of being readily understood by the laity.

Tract Changed To Meadowood

The Larkspur Planning Commission Tuesday night approved Meadowlark Co.'s request to change the name of the Meadow subdivision to Meadowood, and to change the name of Epidendio Way to Meadowood Drive.

The commission also granted Meadowlark Co. and Schultz for filing final maps for Meadowwood and for Greenbrae Marina Unit Three.

The commission approved rezoning the south side of Industrial Way for light industrial. It is now unzoned.

Bill By Clausen To Protect Flag

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Desecration of the American flag would be a criminal offense under a bill introduced yesterday in Congress by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, Calif.

"Several times in recent years, Mr. Speaker, we have witnessed our flag spit upon, trampled and burned in the streets," said Clausen. "This distinguished body has seen fit to make it a federal offense to destroy a draft card. We must, in my judgment, render the American flag the same respect."

A companion bill has been introduced in the Senate by Minority Leader Everett Dirksen, R-Illinois. Some 25 similar bills have been introduced in the House.

Probation Given For Petty Theft

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court Tuesday placed Shirley Anne Ogletree, 23, of San Francisco, on three years probation following her earlier guilty plea for petty theft with a prior conviction.

She took three women's suits from Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera Jan. 31. She pleaded guilty.

Coppolino Case Defense Rests

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — Without putting the defendant on the stand, the defense today rested its case in the first degree murder trial of Dr. Carl Coppolino.

Coppolino, who testified in his own behalf last December when he was acquitted of the murder of a neighbor in New Jersey, was accused here in the death of his wife.

"If it pleases the court," said defense attorney F. Lee Bailey, "the defense rests." He closed his case without calling several witnesses flown in from New York.

The state closed its case Tuesday but continued to call rebuttal witnesses for an hour after the defense rested.

Nun Will Head Hospital Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Roman Catholic nun, said to be the first ever named to the position, is the new president-elect of the Association of Western Hospitals.

Other new officers include Clifton H. Linville, vice president, administrator of Fresno Community Hospital, and George Wacker, treasurer, administrator of Brookside Hospital, San Pablo.

Massachusetts had the first successful iron works in this country.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Handling Youthful Runaways Requires Much Understanding

VAN DELLEN

Why do children run away from home? Some are adventuresome. Those seeking excitement usually are not unhappy and plan their departure. They may change their mind if life in the home is made more interesting. Many do fairly well when satisfactory employment is obtained away from home.

The situation may be different when the flight is provoked by anger, resentment, or an unhappy home life.

SOME youngsters have done poorly in school and fear disapproval. The parents may be too strict or hypercritical. Sibling rivalry may be responsible; especially when it is fostered by parents who compare one child with the other.

The resentful child often leaves home to punish his parents. Hurtfulness may be the result of real or imagined injustices. He envisions the parents' concern over his whereabouts and their longing for his return.

THREATS TO leave home should not be taken lightly. Try to find out why he wants to go. Telling the teen-ager to leave if he wants to gives him another reason for escape and further resentment is inevitable.

The spur-of-the-moment runaway seldom goes very far. He may wander about all afternoon or ride the subway until hungry, exhausted, or broke.

Many of these children are repeaters when home conditions become unbearable.

THE OUTCOME is best among those who leave to improve their lot or perhaps that of the family. They are conscientious and industrious and seldom have spitefulness or resentment in their make-up.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

YOUNG NOT IMMUNE

G. T. H writes: I always thought that diverticulosis affected only older people but have just received this diagnosis at age 35.

REPLY

Your idea stems from the frequently quoted estimate that by age 50, one-half of the population has developed from one to hundreds of these pockets in the intestine. This does not mean that younger persons are immune.

DISLODGED BONE

REPLY

This condition is a bone disorder of children and young adults in which a piece of bone dislodges from the surface of the joint and produces pain, swelling, and interference with stretching of the involved leg.

ALCOHOL AND VITAMINS

A. B. F. writes: Does the excessive use of alcohol deplete the supply of vitamins in the body?

REPLY

This may be true of vitamin B, which apparently is required in the metabolism of carbohydrates, including alcohol.

Marin's Best-seller on current events

You can learn a lot that's not in the books from your daily I-J. Unlike a text, it presents the texture of living events . . . the here and now of history drawn from the most exciting library — the world itself.

Each day, hundreds of news stories and articles bring you the mental stimulation of WHAT HAPPENED, where, how and why. Combined, they bring you perspective; they help you form judgements, enable you to act in an informed manner on public affairs.

With the I-J you're not merely "taking the paper," you're subscribing to a liberal education provided you read and think. All yours at a price which even includes personal delivery to your door.

Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Costs

Land and improvements purchased for the Corte Madera Creek flood control work from the bay to Bon Air bridge have cost a total $927,006.36, considerably above the $750,000 estimate when the work was authorized by county supervisors over a year ago.

Construction of the earth bank ditch, expected to cost $600,000, will start in June. The work will be financed by federal money. Land and property acquisition costs are paid by the state.

Senate Votes For Revising Unification Law

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A revision in California's controversial school unification law, sought by Gov. Reagan, has been approved unanimously by the Senate and sent to the Assembly.

The Senate gave approval yesterday to change the requirement that non-unified school districts throughout the state must hold elections every two years until they unify.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, would change the mandatory election interval to five years.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, sponsored the original unification law in 1964, contending school districts should unify to make administration more efficient and to improve the quality of education.

Military Housing For Key Witnesses

WASHINGTON (AP) — To keep threatened witnesses and prosecuting attorneys out of reach of gangland vengeance attempts, the Justice Department will occasionally house them on military bases.

It was learned yesterday that the Justice and Defense Departments have worked out an informal agreement to do this as needed when they feel the safety of principal figures in a trial cannot be guaranteed any other way.

Court Ties Miranda Decision To Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court's Miranda decision — requiring that suspects be told of their right to counsel at all times and their right to remain silent — has been held applicable to military cases.

In a 2-1 decision, the U. S. Court of Military Appeals overturned yesterday an earlier military appeals court ruling, which said it was not necessary for military counsel to be present at all times during an investigation to insure the suspect understood his right to remain silent.

The majority decision by Associate Judge Homer Ferguson said the ruling will affect all military cases tried on or after June 13, 1966 — date of the Miranda decision.

The opinion involved the court martial of Airman 3C. Michael L. Tempia, New York City, convicted June 14, 1966 — one day after the Miranda decision — of taking indecent liberties with three 10-year-old girls May 1, 1966, at Dover Air Force Base, Del.

Tempia, sentenced to a bad-conduct discharge, forfeiture of all privileges, confinement at hard labor for six months and reduction of rank, appealed on grounds his pretrial statement — given without counsel — was allowed as evidence at this trial.

The U. S. Military Appeals Court ruled improper the refusal of a judge advocate to make available to Tempia counsel during the investigation by the special office of investigations.

Tempia's court martial was held at Dover AFB.

Astronauts Named For Paris Air Show

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Astronauts Michael Collins and David R. Scott will represent the United States at the big Paris air show next month.

Acting Commerce Secretary Alexander B. Trowbridge said yesterday that Collins and Scott, both Air Force lieutenant colonesl, would be on hand for the opening of the $4 million U.F. exhibit May 26.

Powell Wants Courts To Rule On His Return

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A lawyer for Adam Clayton Powell said today the ousted Harlem Congressman wanted to return to the House through the courts rather than by his overwhelming victory in a special election.

Attorney William Kuntsler said that would be the only fair way for Powell to regain the seat he lost March 1 when his colleagues voted him out for alleged misuse of government funds.

Kuntsler appeared before the U.S. court of Appeals, asking it to rule quickly on Powell's appeal to force the House to take him back. He explained he wanted time for the Supreme Court to hear the case—if necessary—before the end of its current term in June.

Johnsons Get A Giant Tent

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas-sized tent has blossomed on the White House lawn.

Two hundred persons sitting down for dinner or 400 munching canapes at a reception can fit under the 50-by-90-foot tent. It completely covers the Rose garden outside President Johnson's office.

Robert Dowling, a New York real estate man who frequently has a finger in urban beautification projects presented it to the National Park Service, White House spokesmen said yesterday. They gave the cost as "under $10,000."

When there are no garden parties, White House groundskeepers will fold the tent and silently steal away so the flowers can get some sun.

Phone Rate Need Called 'Desperate'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —The California Public Utilities Commission's hearing on an application by the Pacific Telephone Co. for a $181 million statewide rate increase continued today.

George H. Eckhardt, an attorney for the utility, told the commission in the opening session yesterday that Pacific Telephone was in "severe financial straits" and needed the huge rate increase.

"We need help and need it desperately," Eckhardt said.

He claimed the hike was needed for modernization and new types of service.

The increase would boost the monthly cost of one-party residential phones from $3.85 to $5.75.

Earlier, Los Angeles Deputy City. Atty. Charles Mattson told the PUC that the requested telephone rate increases are "unreasonable and clearly excessive."

He said that "using their figures the over-all rate of return is 7.19 per cent — clearly excessive."

The attorney noted that the maximum rate of return last set by the commission was 6.3 per cent and in asking for more that the phone company had "virtually defied all the rate-making principles" established by the PUC in the past.

29.5 Million Population Seen By '85

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's population won't swell quite as much by 1985 as earlier estimates had ti, but the state still should have 29.5 million residents by then.

That's more than 50 per cent higher than the present population of more than 19 million.

This is the substance of reviesd projections released yesterday by the state's financial and population research section.

Estimates in March, 1966, were for a 1985 population of 30.5 to 31.5 million. The revised lower figures are attributed to use of more recent population growth figures and refinement of the projection process.

One contributing factor is a predicted leveling off of the net annual migration rate to about 300,000 a year. Earlier estimates were as high as 340,000.

The revised estimates for July 1 populations are: 1970, 21 million; 1975, 23.59 million; 1980 , 26.41 million; 1985, 29.48 million.

And in 1985, the Los Angeles metropolitan area still should be the most crowded in the state with an estimated 9.23 million residents.

All metropolitan areas combined will make up the biggest portion of residents: 26.9 million compared to only 2.6 million in rural areas.

But the demographers in the research section warn, as they have in past years, "projections are emphatically not predictions of things to come."

Giants Facing Weekend Jaunt To Los Angeles

Manager Dave Bristol's confidence in veteran relief pitcher Ted Abernathy helped the Cincinnati Reds continue in second place in the National League yesterday at the expense of the San Francisco Giants.

The 34-year-old Abernathy got credit for his sixth save of the young season. He quelled a late uprising to preserve Bill McCool's second victory over the Giants, 4-2.

The Giants, who head south to begin a three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers tomorrow night, were to conclude the Cincinnati series this afternoon.

McCool scattered nine hits before needing help from Abernathy in the ninth inning of his 4-1 victory over the Gaints in Cincinnati April 16. Yesterday, the young left-hander blanked the Giants for six innings, but was lifted when he issued his eighth walk to pinch-hitter Ollie Brown and a single to Tito Fuentes to open the seventh.

Gerry Arrigo struck out Ken Henderson. A wild pitch advanced Brown to third and he scored on Willie McCovey's grounder to second. Willie Mays' single to center scored Fuentes for the game's final run.

After Jesus Alou punched a lead-off single off Arrigo in the eighth, pinch hitter Tom Haller worked the count to two-and-one and Abernathy came in. The side-arm throwing right-hander walked Haller but retired the last six Giants to end the game.

"I'm just pitching more this year," was Abernathy's explanation for his success. "I only had seven saves all last year with the Cubs and Braves.

"Atlanta got rid of me because Clay Carroll was coming along so well for them," he drawled. "I didn't throw too hard for the Reds in the spring, but I told Bristol not to give up on me.

"I had a shoulder operation in 1959, so it takes me a little longer to come around, but I feel great now and can attribute my success to the fact I am working regularly."

McCool felt he threw a terrible game, but was thankful the Reds got off to a 4-0 lead, keeping him on the mound despite his wildness.

Derron Johnson hit a home run off Bob Bolin for the Reds' first run in the second inning. Don Pavletich's double and Tommy Helms' single made it 2-0 in the fourth.

Bolin was lifted after Tommy Harper and Art Shamsky hit successive singles in the fifth. Joe Gibbon forced Vada Pinson to pop out, but Ron Herbel served a run-scoring grounder to Tony Perez and Pavletich's single scored Shamsky for 4-0.

"I couldn't buy a strike if I were a millionaire," McCool offered. "I've had a cold and I didn't have any strength out there. I'm just fortunate the guys made good fielding plays behind me."

After McCool walked the bases full in the first inning, shortstop Leo Cardenas made a brilliant over-the-shoulder grab of Alou's short fly to left for the third out.

McCool was especially careful to McCovey, who drew walks his first three times up before rolling out his last two trips.

"You have to be real careful, with McCovey," said McCool, now 2-0. "You don't want him to beat you with a home run. I'd rather walk McCovey and face Mays, who isn't swinging like he can now."

Bolin, who lost his second game in three decisions, made no excuses. "My arm's coming around, he said, "but it's not ready yet."

Lagunitas Full Of Trout

JIM GILMARTIN

Take The Kids Fishin' In One Of Marin's Lakes

OVER THE RAINBOW — It's not exactly shooting fish in a barrel, but it's the next best thing.

I mean, the 1967 trout season opens Saturday and if you're a-hankerin' for a mess o' fish, Jeb, I've got just the place for you.

It's called Lake Lagunitas and if you don't string up your limit by noon opening day you get drummed out of the Isaac Walton League with a fishonorable fishcharge.

YOU SEE, Jeb, the sovereign and philanthropic State of California spends a good deal of money on your fishing recreation. Oh, Uncle Cal finds other ways to trim his budget, but when it comes to angling, he's the Big Spender from the West. Why, he plunks out 25 cents for every Rainbow trout he raises and plants in our old fishin' holes.

JUST LAST week, for example, Uncle Cal deposited 10,000 piscine two-bit pieces in Lagunitas and about 5,000 more in Rodeo Lagoon, just to mention two of his local depositories. He does this throughout the state, and frequently, so his piscatorial putout is considerable.

Anyway, as I said, you shouldn't have trouble catching your limit of 10 fish opening day.

SOME YEARS ago game wardens checked the action immediately after good old Uncle Cal planted 10,000 or $2,500 worth, of trout in Lagunitas. In one day, the angling army removed 7,000 fish. The next day 2,600 wound up in the fryin' pan and the third day the remainder of the 10,000 were caught.

It's almost like shooting fish in the barrel, so take your kids fishin' Saturday at the pot of gold at the end of the Rainbow. And don't worry, the state will replenish the supply next week.

I TALKED with Game Warden Al Giddings of Woodacre yesterday on trout prospects in Marin and was saddened to learn that Big Al probably will miss opening day for the first time in his 19 years on the fish and game beat.

GIDDINGS INJURED his back while deer hunting last season and spent most of the last six months either in bed, the hospital or a body cast. Compounding his misery, he slipped and fell down some stairs while attending an FBI refresher course for game wardens last week in Lake County and is back in bed. All sportsmen wish him a speedy recovery.

GIDDINGS SAID Lagunitas again will produce most of the opening day action. Rodeo's also ripe for plucking, as is Bon Tempe reservoir, which received 30,000 state-bred subcatchable fish during the winter. They should be approaching skillet size right about now.

"Last week," said Giddings, "I checked a fella who had taken a couple of blackies weighing five and two pounds, so there are some big 'uns in there."

THE GAME WARDEN said the state favors Lagunitas and Rodeo in its planting program because " . . . they're small, round lakes and easy to fish. After all, we plant these fish to be caught."

He said long lakes like Alpine and Kent are not good because the wily fish move back into inaccessible areas and are difficult to reach. "The banks are too steep and quite dangerous for children," he explained.

THE UNUSUALLY heavy rains have left Marin's streams quite high. "They're deeper than I can ever remember," said the game warden, who always gets his man, "and I imagine they'll be quite muddy and tough to fish. But there are fish in there."

The season opens one hour before sunrise Saturday. The usual state licenses, which help pay Uncle Cal's fish freight, and Marin Municipal Water District permits will be required.

Clay Must Make His Decision Tomorrow

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The government will give Cassius Clay two chances under two names to be inducted into the Army tomorrow.

"We will abide with him whatever name he wants," an induction officer said. "We will call him Muhammad Ali if he prefers when we ask him to take the one step forward to be inducted. If he refuses to take the step we will ask him under the name Cassius Marcellus Clay Jr.

"If he still refuses an officer will quietly take him from the group and into a conference room where the penalty for refusing will be explained to him. He will be returned later and asked if he has reconsidered.

"If he again declines he will be asked for a statement. Regardless of whether he makes a statement or not he will be dismissed."

Failure of Clay to be inducted would make him subject to a possible $10,000 fine, a five-year prison sentence, or both.

A last attempt by Clay's lawyers to keep the unbeaten heavyweight champion from facing criminal action if he refuses to be inducted was scheduled later today in federal court.

Drysdale Requires Aid To Defeat The Braves

Poor Astros Lose Their 10th In Row

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Don Drysdale, playing a solo since Sandy Koufax' retirement, turned to his old "cousins" for support of an aching pitching record.

With visions of a career in show business after his baseball days end, the big righthander played his part to perfection last night in edging Atlanta 2-1 for his 29th career triumph over the Braves.

Drysdale had his lines down pat when he alerted Los Angeles manager Walt Alston after the seventh inning that he had about had it.

"It was cold out there and I knew I was losing a little on my fast ball," Drysdale admitted. "I told Alston and Lefty Phillips (Dodgers pitching coach) I would try to stick it out until we got down to Mack Jones. Then Ron Perranoski could get him."

ALLOWS SINGLES

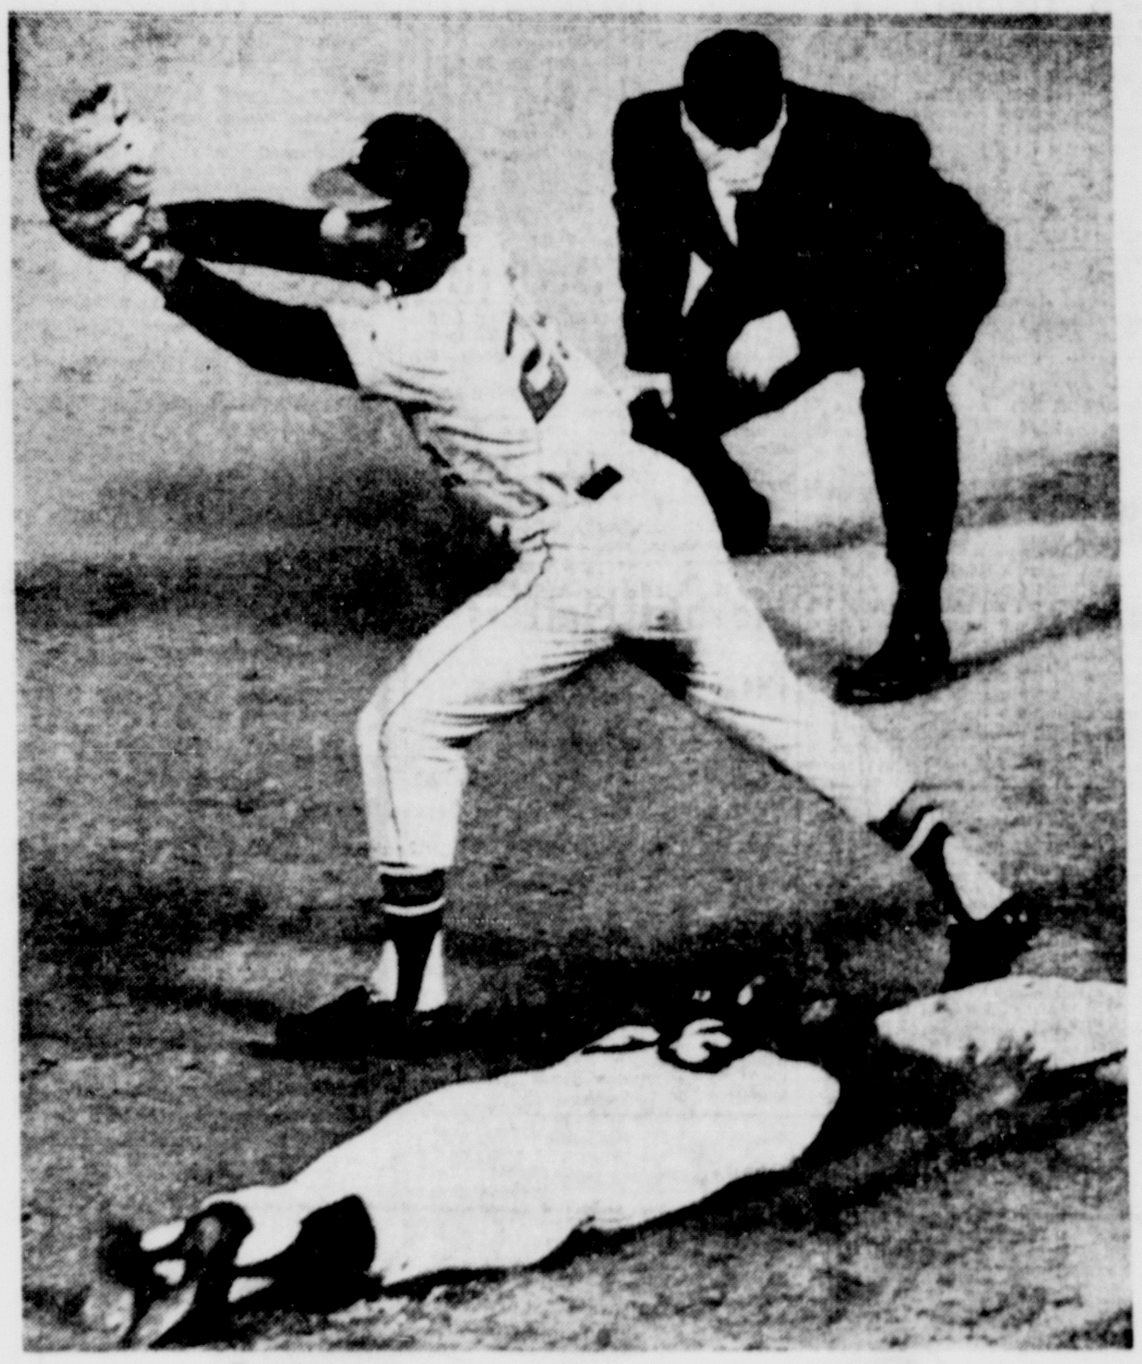
The drama was stark in the eighth inning as Drysdale, who had allowed only two singles through seven innings and carried a 2-1 lead into the eighth, gave up singles to Dennis Menke and Hank Aaron. Then with two out, Perranoski, a southpaw, came in to strike out lefthand batting Jones.

St. Louis defeated Houston 7-2 and Cincinnati beat San Francisco 4-2 in other National League action. The New York at Chicago and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh games were postponed by inclement weather.

Drysdale, who allowed an unearned run in the fourth when Bob Bailey dropped Felipe Alou's liner in left field, was backed with the winning run in the seventh on Lou Johnson's double and Ron Fairly's single that broke a 1-1 tie. Los Angeles scored its other run in the third on three walks by Wade Blasingame and Fairly's infield out.

ST. LOUIS LEADS

St. Louis stayed on top of the NL by a degree of percentage points as Lou Brock led the Cardinal attack with a triple that marked the 10th consecutive game in which he has hit safely. The loss was Houston's 10th straight, tying a club record set in 1963. Steve Carlton won his first victory of the year with ninth inning help from Dick Hughes.



NICE TRY — Dodgers' Ron Hunt makes an all-out effort for a base hit but his stomach slide was in vain last night as Atlanta first baseman Felipe Alou got the ball first. Umpire is Harry Wendelstedt. Los Angeles won, 2-1. (AP Wirephoto)

Giants Schedule Make-Up Games

The San Franicsco Giants announced yesterday that three games with Atlanta which were rained out during their opening series have been rescheduled as doubleheaders.

Dates will be June 22 with an 11:30 a.m. starting time, Aug. 26 at 1 p.m., and Aug. 27, 10:30 a.m.

Today's Puzzler: Who Owns Oakland's Basketball Team?

OAKLAND (AP) — Who owns the Oakland franchise in the new American Basketball Association?

An Oakland group told newsmen yesterday it had purchased control of the club but ABA Commissioner George Mikan said in St. Paul, No they didn't. He was to fly here today to iron things out.

Hal DeJulio, who played on San Francisco's National Invitation Tournament champions in 1949 and now is an insurance executive, said he and associates would take over immediately.

Contacted in St. Paul by The Associated Press, Mikan said:

"There is a proper procedure in these cases and this group has done none of this. This is all news to me. They know my terms and requirements. Anything like this must be cleared through my office and the board.

"This has not been done. As of now, they are in violation of our by-laws."

He said DeJulio's group could contact him after his arrival.

Singer Pat Boone as president and Ken Davidson, a Southern California businessman, among the original stockholders, would retain their shares, DeJulio said.

But Dennis Murphy and his brother, John, general manager and assistant G.M., have been dropped.

Nick Klunis, a member of the Oakland group trying to buy the franchise, said it has $500,000 necessary to meet ABA requirements.

DeJulio said he would become general manager.

Redwood Nine Bombs Tam; Novato Edges San Rafael

Redwood High's Giants, coasting on the strong pitching and batting of Kevin Wilson, rebounded from Tuesday's loss to Marin Catholic by walloping Tamalpais Indians 14-0 in Marin Athletic League baseball action yesterday.

In the day's other game—both makeups from previous rainouts—Dan Granucci led Novato to a 3-2 victory over San Rafael.

Wilson personally outhit the Indians, 5-4, also drove across 4 runs and struck out 11 batters in first place Redwood's fourth victory against one loss, that 2-1 decision to Marin Catholic Tuesday. Leftfielder Scott Davis also drove home four runs with three hits while Keith Valk homered in the Redwood cause.

At Novato, leftfielder Granucci made two key defensive plays, including a game-ending double play, and relief pitcher Steve McNally singled home the winning run in the sixth inning after Gary Moore's sacrifice fly tied it up.

Billy Casper Favored To Win Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Billy Casper got the favorite's nod as the Texas Open Golf Tournament started today.

Casper and a field of 143 other pros, including a number of current champions, will be playing for a $20,000 first-place purse over the par 71, 7,138-yard Pecan Valley Country Club course.

The National Open champion fired a disappointing 72 yesterday in a pro-am preliminary to the richest — yet Texas Open. The round was played in an intermittent drizzle that slowed the greens.

Close behind Casper in the line up of favorites are 1966 PGA champ Al Geiberger, World Series of Golf winner Gene Littler and three players now ranked among the top 10 PGA tour money winners — Bert Yancey, Bob Goalby and Frank Beard.

Yancey moved up to sixth in the rankings this week after a $20,000 first-place win in the Dallas Open. Goalby, the San Diego Ope nwinner, is ranked ninth and Beard, winner of the Tournament of Champions, is ranked 10th.

Azalea Open winner Randy Glover, and three others in the top 20 money winners are also in the field. The other ranked money winners include Bruce Crampton, Chuck Courtney and Harold Henning, the South African who took top money here last year.

This is the first year that the Texas Open has been played at Pecan Valley and officials took pains to bring out the best in the course.

Each Warrior Will Pick Up $5,178 Share

The San Francisco Warriors lost the NBA championship to Philadelphia this week, but still wound up with $5,178.65 per man.

The Warriors' share of the playoff pool as runners-up and Western Division champs was $72,500 and the 12 players split it 14 ways. Coach Bill Sharman and trainer Donnie Watkins got equal shares and the management gave the same amount to assistant coach George Lee.

Lee, a resident of San Rafael, said he was not included in the players' share by mutual agreement. "An assistant coach is a nebulous thing," he said, "so we agreed to vote me out of the pool and give the players a larger share. The management matched their share for me."

The 12 players splitting the pot were Rick Barry, Fred Hetzel, Tom Meschery, Clyde Lee, Bud Olsen, Nate Thurmond, Al Attles, Paul Neumann, Jim King, Jeff Mullins, Joe Ellis and Bud Warlick.

Neumann, meanwhile, officially announced his retirement from pro basketball yesterday to become freshman coach at his alma mater, Stanford. He succeeds Bill Turner, who accepted the head coaching job at Portland University.

Ditka Goes To Eagles

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Surehanded Mike Ditka, the new tight end of the Philadelphia Eagles, is a rare example of a man who can have his cake and eat it, too.

When Ditka was traded yesterday by the Chicago Bears to the Eagles for quarterback Jack Concannon in a National Football League swap, he:

Pocketed $50,000 without a court suit.

Was certain to sign for a salary worthy of star status with the Eagles.

In agreeing to play with Philadelphia, Ditka — who becomes a free agent May 1 — says he lost a "once-in-a-lifetime" opportunity to join the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

PLAYED OUT OPTION

He later accepted $50,000 and a three-year contract reportedly worth $250,000 if he jumped to the Oilers this coming season.

When the AFL and NFL merged, it left Ditka's deal up in the air. Houston, in the interest of good harmony, said it did not intend to drag the Ditka case into the courts — and would let him pocket the $50,000.

"I'm not really disappointed that I didn't go with Houston," the 27-year-old Ditka said from his home in Downers Grove, Ill.

"Actually, I've got a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity in Philadelphia to start over with a new club. I feel the Eagles have a chance to win it all next season."

EXPECTS NO PROBLEMS

Coach Joe Kiharich of the Eagles said he expected no problems signing Ditka, who would be free to sell his services to any team if he's not satisfied with the Philadelphia offer.

Said Ditka: "We've talked about money and it won't be for the same deal as Houston — the Philadelphia deal is very fair to me and to the ball club. There will be no problem on a contract."

Last year he played more than his share, leading a late-season surge that put the Eagles in the Playoff Bowl.

Princeton Coach To Get Lakers Job

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Willam (Butch) Van Breda Kolff of Princeton was expected to be named coach of the Los Angeles Lakers' National Basketball Association team late today at a new conference.

Coach Fred Schaus of the Lakers would take over as general manager, informed sources said, while General Managaer Lou Mohs assumes a supervisory role in owner Jack Kent Cooke's sports empire — the Lakers, the new Los Angeles Kings of the National Hockey League and the Wolves of the United Soccer Association.

Cooke issued a terse "no comment" yesterday, when The Associated Press learned of the impending changes. Another report said Van Breda Kolff would sign a three-year contract at $30,000 a year.

CAN A SCOTCH MAKE HISTORY?

LOCHNESS, dominated by Urquhart Castle. Strategically situated, this castle for centuries controlled the whole upper part of the Great Glen. Less famous than the Loch Ness monster, but more reliable are the nearby distilleries that produce Highland malt whiskies for 100 Pipers Scotch.

So, in a way, by making people change their minds, 100 Pipers is making history.

Which is only fair, since history is what made 100 Pipers.

(100 Pipers comes from a long line of old Scotch whiskies renowned for their taste, such as the Keiths, the Glenlivets and the Macallans.)

If you're a Scotch drinker, it may taste the way you've always wanted Scotch to taste.

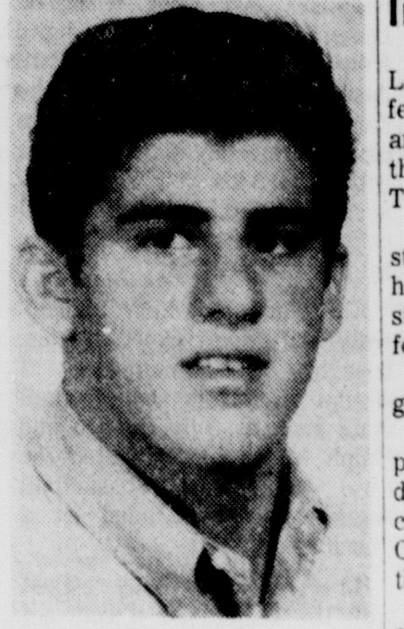
By GARY TISCHLER

The scene may have looked vaguely familiar to Marin Catholic catcher John Komo last Tuesday, although his foot wasn't in the shoe this time.

Marin Catholic nipped Redwood, 2-1, Tuesday to hand the Giants their first Marin County Athletic League loss of the season and the deciding run crossed the plate with the aid of a third strike.



JOHN KOMO

Komo came up to bat with two out in the bottom of the sixth inning and went down swinging against Redwood pitcher Mike Terry. But Giant catcher Bill Torrey dropped the hall, threw wild to first and Komo reached all the way to second on a strikeout. Rich Denning then singled him in for the deciding run.

TWO YEARS AGO, Komo was making his first start behind the plate, catching Brian King, the winning pitcher in Tuesday's cliffhanger. King struck out a Redwood batter for what should have been the third out but Komo dropped the ball, threw wild to first and the next Redwood batter belted a home run to give the Giants the win.

So, Bill Torrey, it's not such a lonesome world.

King, who pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 Tuesday, was starting after being out of school for three days with a touch of flu and high fever. Not bad for a sickbed case.

THE TWO MARIN Catholic runs, one of them earned, were the first runs of any kind scored against Terry, who was undefeated with an 0.00 earned run average going into the game.

Redwood kept up its average of a double play per game on a catcher-to-second-to-first twin-killing.

Marin Catholic was playing without any backup infielders. Both reserves were out with various injuries.

SOME OF the Drake High School aces who stood out in two, sometimes three sports for the Pirates this year are already headed for various universities and colleges.

Jerry Sprout, Drake's all-leaguer in basketball and football, has accepted a full football scholarship to Stanford. Karl Stein, an all-leaguer for the Pirates' championship football squad, has a full football scholarship at New Mexico State. Stu Clemmons, a starting guard on Drake's TOC basketball team, will be at College of Marin, tackle Carl Gonser has been accepted at Stanford and all-league basketball guard Chet Carlisle will head for College of Marin for six months, then for a six-month stint with the Army Reserve.

THERE IS A FAIR to middling possibility that the Marin County Athletic League track and field meet mark for the two-mile run will come tumbling down this year. Terra Linda's Bob Bunnel, the runner tabbed to turn the trick, has already run a 9:49.7 in dual meet competition. The record is 9:50.0.

THE MONSOONS in Marin County have caused all kinds of improvising among Marin County Athletic League coaches.

Redwood track coach Tony Bailey recently held an informal indoor track meet at Redwood's gymnasium, which may be the first indoor meet on record in the county.

It had everything from the shot and pole vault, to a wild steeple chase. Everyone reportedly had a good time as well as getting in some much needed and scarce practice.

Another 300 Line In ABC Tourney

The diminutive Chicago pro stroked in 12 perfect strikes in his third game of the classic singles. He also had 182 and 205 for a seventh place total of 687.

The Shur-Hooks slumped to 2950 in their second outing yesterday but still managed to take the lead with a six-game total of 6,098.

White Sox' Gary Peters Beats Yanks

NEW YORK (AP) — It might as well have been 80 degrees and balmy instead of 40 and frigid at Yankee Stadium yesterday for all it bothered Chicago's Gary Peters.

The American League's earned run leader last year, Peters breezed past New York 5-1 with a sharp four-hitter. It wasn't his favorite kind of weather, but it didn't affect his pitching.

"I prefer hot weather," Peters said later. "But I'm not terribly bothered by the cold. Once you get loose, you don't feel it and you don't get as tired in it."

Peters looked pretty hot to the Yankees, who didn't manage to hit against him until the fifth inning and scored their only run with two out in the ninth.

NEW SLIDER

"He showed me a slider I haven't seen before," said Elston Howard, who stroked the first hit off Peters after he had retired the first 12 batters he faced.

"My slider was sharp all the way," the White Sox' lefty agreed. "At first, I was getting my curve and slider both over but the curve started giving me trouble around the sixth inning."

Peters said the cold weather helped him because it caused the batter's hands to sting when they hit the ball.

"They don't like it and they tend to lay off the inside stuff because they're afraid of the sting," said Peters. "That helps the pitcher."

The White Sox hopped on Yankee starter Mel Stottlemyre for a run in the first and got four more in the third in a rally started by Peters' single and capped by Tom McCraw's three-run homer.

Peters coasted on the lead until the ninth when a walk, an infield out and Charlie Smith's double delivered the only Yankee run.

That brought Manager Eddie Stanky on the run from the Sox dugout.

"I just told Gary to forget the runner on second and take his windup," Stanky said.

Peters then got Joe Pepitone on a bouncer to end the game. It evened his record at 1-1 and pushed Chicago over the .500 mark at 7-6.

The Yankees are 6-5 and have lost five straight to Peters in a string that stretches back to September, 1965.

"It was cold then too," smiled Peters.

The other four American League games were rained out.

Pinson Seems To Have 'Grudge' Against Giants

During the winter when he was having contract troubles with the Cincinnati Reds, Vada Pinson voiced the opinion that he made a poor choice when he originally signed with the Reds in 1956. He intimated that he would have been better off financially had he picked a richer club, such as the Giants.

How the Giants would have loved that but in 1956 their ties still were in the Polo Grounds and their primary scouting efforts were east of the Mississippi. If they had moved to the Golden Gate in 1956, instead of 1958, they undoubtedly would have been more cognizant of the flashy fielder at McClymonds High in Oakland.

STILL, PINSON probably would have signed anyway with the Reds because George Powles, his old high school coach, and Bobby Mattick, Red scout who signed Pinson, were good friends. Hadn't another McClymonds High star, Frank Robinson, signed with the Reds in 1953?

Perhaps it was Robinson's rebellion a year ago at his Cincinnati paycheck that got Pinson seriously thinking about his own take-home pay to his wife and four children. Robinson made it big at Baltimore, winning the triple batting crown of the American League, a World Series check and a hundred grand contract this year.

PINSON WAS WELL aware of how Cincinnati fans felt about the trade of Robinson to the Orioles for Milt Pappas, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. And Pinson figured that the Crosley Field fans wouldn't look kindly on the Cincinnati management if he were traded.

While Pinson was mapping his strategy for a substantial salary increase, Bill DeWitt, who had sent Robinson to the Orioles, sold the ball club for $7 million to Francis L. Dale and a group of Cincinnati civic leaders.

DALE AND THE NEW club owners promptly signed a new general manager, Bob Howsam, a soft-spoken and efficient operator who had engineered the Orlando Cepeda-Ray Sadecki deal for the Cardinals. Pinson and Howsam had no great difficulty in reaching agreement.

The Giants would have been pleased mightily if Pinson, like Robinson, had been traded into the American League. Pinson started his ninth full major league campaign this season as though he took particular delight in beating the Giants.

THERE'S NOTHING personal in it. He plays the same way against all opposition. But he seemingly is always delivering game disrupting hits against the Giants.

The first 1967 session between the Giants and Reds at Crosley Field April 16 was a tidy 1-1 ball game going into the eighth inning. Then Pinson touched off a three-run rally with a single. In the nightcap of that April 16 doubleheader, Pinson hit a two-run homer in the third inning and the Reds thereafter made it a 6-0 rout.

Bill Bradley Signs With N.Y. Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, Princeton's sensational star of two years ago, today signed to play with the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association.

Irving Mitchell Felt, chairman of the board of Madison Square Garden, said the four-year contract carried a sum "that is one of the largest ever paid to an athlete in a team sport."

Bradley, a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford since he was graduated by Princeton in 1965, had been drafted by the Knicks when he finished college, in the hope he would decide to play pro ball later.

Budapest Soccermen Defeat Englishmen

International Games Planned For Next Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Los Angeles and Lake Placid, N.Y., may be the sites in 1968 of the first John F. Kennedy International Memorial Games, a proposed streamlined version of the Olympics to be held annually in the United States.

Plans for the mammoth athletic carnivals, to be held in the summer and winter, were announced by the Amateur Athletic Union yesterday as part of a nationwide drive to build up a $10 million permanent fund for the development of U.S. athletes for national and international competition.

Col. Donald Hull, executive director of the AAU, said the first summer games were tentatively set for May 30, 1968 — a day after what would have been President Kennedy's 51st birthday — at Los Angeles, and the winter games for December, 1968, probably at Lake Placid, N.Y.

Hull, however, said at a press conference, that other sites could be selected.

"The sites have not been definitely set," he said. "The national committee will take this up soon. We expect to get other bids. News of this apparently leaked before we were ready for the announcement of the fund drive.

"Salt Lake City has expressed an interest in the winter games. New York, through Mayor Lindsay, or his spokesman, has expressed interest in the summer games.

"We probably will hold the games in different cities each year, but it's too early yet to say."

BASEBALL BUDGET CUT

Just Teach 'Em Says Rec Commissioners

Never mind the uniforms and the over-organization; let's just teach the kids to play pall!

With that theme, the San Rafael Recreation Commission last nigh changed Recreation Director Andrew J. Snyder's plans for summer baseball leagues into a baseball clinic, with a fee of $4 per boy, for all from 7 through 12 years old.

It left in abeyance whether to try to have a senior league for boys 13 through 15. Last year, so few signed up (at a $15 fee) that the league was abandoned.

Snyder propsed an $8 fee for the younger boys, with the city to furnish caps and shirts.

None of the four commissioners present at the meeting (Dino Ghilotti was absent) thought much of that idea.

"I'm sure there are a lot of little guys who would love to play baseball to whom $8 is a lot of money," said Commissioner Howard Simon.

Commissioner Troy E. Lewis proposed "giving each kid a cap" and letting him wear his own sweat shirt. The city would furnish balls and bats; the kids would provide their own gloves.

Simon urged a "baseball clinic" to teach the youngsters the fundamentals of the game, with league play secondary.

With that understanding, the commission directed the fee be cut to $4 — with the uniform shirts eliminated.

As to league play, Lewis suggested, "Let them toss up a bat and play top hand to choose sides like we used to do." Snyder felt, however, that a league for 7 through 9-year-olds and another for 10 through 12-year-olds can be organized along with the clinic.

Ellis' Move Might Start Bidding War

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Leroy Ellis, a 6-foot-10 product of St. John's, may have launched professional basketball into a price war similar to that which gave professional football a black eye a few years ago.

The big center, who made headlines last week when he became the first player to jump from the National Basketball Association and sign with the rival American Basketball Association, rejected his agreement with the ABA's New York entry yesterday and signed a second contract with the Baltimore Bullets of the NBA.

Ellis' action, which undoubtedly will spur court battles, brought back memories of similar incidents by football stars such as Billy Cannon and Ralph Neely and indicated the two professional basketball leagues may be headed for a "bonus war."

Ellis reportedly has signed with the Bullets for a contract that exceeds the $30,000 he agreed to with New York. The Bullets previously had stated they would sue Ellis in an effort to retain him.

Buddy Jeannette, general manager of the Bullets, was convinced the matter would go to court. Yet, Jeannette said he could foresee no all-out war.

"However, I do look for a few to jump leagues," Jeannette said.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, April 27, the 117th day of 1967 with 248 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

Born on this day in 1791 was the inventor of the telegraph, Samuel Morse.

On this day in history:

In 1937, the first payments were made in accordance with provisions of the 1935 Social Security Act.

In 1965, Edward R. Murrow, newscaster and former head of the U.S. Information Agency, died at the age of 57.

A thought for the day—British poet John Dryden once said: "Pains of love be sweeter far than all of the other pleasures are."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Excessive Politeness May Allow Your Partner To Lose

When either member of the partnership can win a trick there is no need to stand aside with a polite bow to let your partner have the honor.

Opening lead — ♡ K

Declarer ruffed the opening heart lead in dummy an returned the king of diamonds.

This was his best play since, if South draws three rounds of trumps and then leads a diamond, West takes the ace of diamonds, draws the last trump and then runs the rest of the hearts.

EAST POLITE

East returned a club, and South stepped up with the ace, drew three rounds of trumps and began to run the diamonds.

West could ruff the fourth diamond, but declarer still had a trump to stop the hearts and could get to dummy with the king of clubs to discard his club losers on dummy's good diamonds.

SHOULD RUFF

It is vital to take the ruffing trick, without allowing South to force out the ace of diamonds.

East returns a heart, forcing dummy to ruff.

Now declarer has a choice of evils.

West sill has the ace of diamonds and a sure trump trick, and South is sure to go down.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ A Q 6 3
♥ J
♦ 9 6 5 2
♣ A 7 4 3.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Pass. The hand is not quite worth an opening bid.

If the jack of hearts were a small card and you had A-Q-J-3 of spades, you might open the bidding with one club, intending to bid one spade if partner responded in diamonds or hearts.

A singleton jack is not much help, but the jack of a good suit is useful.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Never Too Late To Rebuild Lists

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I am rather a late beginner to be learning about and investing in stocks. But our family is raised, our bills paid and we have $5,000 in savings plus good insurance. I want growth over the next 10-15 years, not income, and own the following: General Tire; American Ship Building; Northwest Natural Gas. How can I improve my position?" R.M.

A. I don't believe that it is ever too late to invest in stocks, particularly when a man is as well situated as you are. Your judgment has been good and your stocks are relatively sound, but I believe some changes could improve your list.

General Tire and Rubber has had a good record, but for more assured capital enhancement, I would switch to American Home Products.

Q. "I am a young man about to begin an investment program. I would like your opinion as to the place of life insurance in such a program." J. G.

A. The first prerequisite in an investment program is an adequate savings reserve. Never look to your stocks in an emergency, since they fluctuate considerably and should never have to be sold during a period of decline. Life insurance comes next and the amount you carry depends largely on the degree of protection you need for your dependents.

(Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.'

Vigorous Rally, Mart Makes Another Leap

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied vigorously and closed higher today, making its tenth advance in elven sessions.

Volume for the first four hours was 7.2 million shares compared with 7.71 million yesterday.

In early trading, the list continued irregularly lower as it was Wednesday when the market snipped off a string of nine straight daily advances.

As prices refused to yield much ground, large reserves of cash in customers' credit balances and in mutual funds and other institutional investment sources began to move into the market.

Douglas Aircraft climbed more than 5 points and McDonnell Co. well over 2 as these issues responded to a report that the Justice Department would not take antitrust action at present against heir proposed merger.

Eastman Kodak, down nearly 2, was still reacting, brokers said, to reports of a racial incident at the company's annual meeting and to lower earnings.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

Car Stereo Specialty Shop Opens In Downtown San Rafael

A new business specializing in the sale, installation, servicing and repair of automobile stereo players has opened at 1417 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

This is called D and D Car Stereo, an enterprise of two ambitious young men living in Santa Venetia—Timothy Young and Don Dilello. Both have been working in this field more or less as a hobby for some time and decided to make a business of it. With many new car models offering stereo as optional equipment, interest is high and they may have a good thing.

They handle several sets—Borg Warner and some others and give an additional store guarantee of three months over and above the regular manufacturer's guarantee. They also sell discount phonograph records — mostly rock and roll.

Hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. through the week, with evening hours to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays. Sunday hours are from 1 to 5 p.m.

HUES AND VUES, 108 Town and Country Village in Strawberry will have Miss Peggy West, a representative from the Stockwell Wallpaper Co. at the store on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to show new lines of wall coverings. Also featured the same day will be a "Win a Room of Wallpaper" drawing.

STOP AND GO MARKETS in Sausalito and San Anselmo now have new registered franchise owners in charge:

Florence and John Foster have taken over in Sausalito; Ronald E. and Rose C. Anderson have the San Anselmo store—both assuming the operation from the parent company, National Drive-In Grocery Corp.

Strong, a native of England, works in bronze, aluminum and fiberglass, with subject matter ranging from small groups to large, colorful abstracts. He moved to California in 1963 and settled a short time later in Fairfax, where he lives now. His works have won several awards. This show, with about 35 pieces, will be on display until May 31.

Garwood

E. SHELBY GARWOOD of Greenbrae has received the Distinguished Golden Salesman Award from the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of San Francisco for his consistent year after year sales record for the Bemis Company.

GLENN E. WALLACE of Novato has been cited by Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies as one of its top performers in the United States. He is in the top 10 per cent of personal and business lines representatives. Wallace works out of the San Francisco office as account manager in the business sales department. He joined the company in 1961.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY in Marin County has a long way to go to catch up with last year, according to figures on building permits from the Marin County Chamber of Commerce. Cumulative totals for the first quarter of 1967 came to $7,649,480, compared with over $28 million for the same period last year — a falling off of 73 per cent. In number of permits the decline was less acute. Dropoff was only about 39 per cent.

NEW PRESIDENT and senior vice president of Musicraft, Inc., San Francisco, are two former Marinites: Bert T. Casey, who used to live in Mill Valley and previously was public relations manager for General Brewing Corp., and Arnold B. Curtis, an ex-Larkspur resident and former manager of market research at General Brewing.

J. H. FELLER JR. of San Rafael is being featured as speaker and a co-chairman at the annual meeting and convention of the Assn. of Western Hospitals this week in San Francisco. He will also speak on industrial management at next month's management seminar at College of the Sequoias. He is principal in the San Rafael firm of J. H. Feller and Associates.

JAMES V. ANDERSON of Mill Valley has been appointed assistant cashier of Lincoln National Bank. He began his banking career in Wisconsin, where he served as assistant cashier of the Bank of Watertown prior to moving to California. LBJ Charges Partisan School Bills Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson accused Republican congressional critics of his elementary and secondary schools program today of a "reckless effort to rewrite our laws for partisan political advantage."

The $6.7 billion bill to extend the program two years has bumped into roadblocks in the House and Republicans are pushing for a substitute. The GOP wants to turn over the funds to the states to decide how they should be used rather than leave it to the federal government to continue passing on the local education plans to receive federal financing.

The fate of the whole bill, a cornerstone of Johnson's Great Society, is threatened by the increasingly partisan crossfire, which carries religious overtones.

It is due to come up in the House next week or the week after. It had been scheduled last week but it was put off by a delay in the Rules Committee and the desire of Democratic leaders for more time to line up votes.

A leadership decision on the timing was expected today.

Johnson's remarks were in a speech for dedication of a new vocational education center at Crossland High School at Camp Springs, Md., in the Washington suburbs.

The GOP proposal would allocate the money differently among the states, with some of the big Northern industrial states such as New York, California and Illinois losing and smaller states gaining funds.

While the administration bill is based on the number of poor people in each school district, the Republican measure would leave aid distribution to each state's discretion, except that half of the money would have to go for educationally deprived children.

Complicating the problem for administration forces are the House's 50 to 60 Southern Democrats who favor less federal control over the funds — specifically regulations relating to racial integration of recipient school districts.

But Democratic leaders believe the more partisan the battle gets, the better chance they have to keep Southern Democrat defections at a minimum.

The Republican proposal, sponsored by Rep. Albert H. Quie of Minnesota, has raised once again the church-state issue that plagued education bills for years.

Catholic leaders are concerned that private schools — mainly parochial — would be left out in the cold under the Quie proposal. They trooped up to Capitol Hill earlier this week to meet with the Republicans and were reassured — but not convinced.

"We still have misgivings about it and must support the administration bill," said Msgr. James Donohue, head of the education department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

'Copter Crash Kills Three Army Exercise

FORT HUACHUCA, Ariz. (UPI) — An Army helicopter crashed Wednesday while taking part in a secret exercise near here. Three men were killed and three others critically injured.

An Army spokesman said the craft was taking part in exercise "Cloud Gap" which he described only as a "classified research project."

Ten men, including at least three Coloradans, were aboard the helicopter when it crashed and burned in the rugged Santa Rita mountains about five miles from Sonoita, Ariz.

The spokesman said five Navy men, three soldiers and two Air Force men were aboard the ill-fated UH1D. The helicopter was on loan to Fort Huachuca, a proving ground under the Army's test and evaluation command, from Fort Carson, Colo.

Studies of infrared radiation from Jupiter indicate it gives off about three times more heat than it receives from the sun. Energy emitted by the planet every second is equivalent to the explosion of a 1,000-megaton hydrogen bomb.

"PEACE MARCHERS" – SAN FRANCISCO

DRAFT CARD BURNERS – MANHATTAN

ARE YOU CONCERNED?

JUST A FEW WEEKS AGO, THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES ISSUED A REPORT THAT SAID COMMUNISTS WERE IN A POSITION OF CONTROL IN THE SPRING MOBILIZATION MARCHES, AND YET NOTHING WAS DONE TO STOP THESE MARCHES THAT WERE HELD THROUGH-OUT THE UNITED STATES.

THE MARCHES OF THE " SPRING MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIET NAM" IN SAN FRANCISCO AND OTHER CITIES ON APRIL 15, 1967, WERE A DISGRACE TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WHILE UNITED STATES SERVICEMEN ARE DYING, FIGHTING COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN VIET NAM, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AND CITY GOVERNMENTS ALLOW COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS TO GIVE AID AND COMFORT TO THE ENEMIES OF OUR COUNTRY BY DEMONSTRATING AGAINST OUR SERVICEMEN IN THE STREETS OF AMERICA. I BELIEVE THAT OUR SERVICEMEN DESERVE MORE THAN THIS. I BELIEVE THAT OUR SERVICEMEN DESERVE THE BEST OF EVERYTHING: FROM WAR MATERIAL TO MORAL SUPPORT. FOR THIS REASON I AM ASKING ALL CITIZENS WHO BELIEVE AS I DO TO JOIN ME IN A NATIONAL COMMITTEE WITH THE FOLLOWING GOALS:

1. TO DEMAND CONGRESSIONAL ACTION AGAINST PERSONS AND ORGANIZATIONS GIVING AID AND COMFORT TO THE ENEMIES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
2. TO ELIMINATE THE WAR-MAKING POTENTIAL OF THE VIET CONG BY DESTROYING ALL MILITARY TARGETS IN NORTH VIET NAM AND BLOCKADE THE PORT OF HAIPHONG.
3. "UNCHAIN CHIANG" – GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI SHEK HAS OFFERED TROOPS TO ASSIST OUR AMERICAN FIGHTING MEN IN VIET NAM. WE DEMAND THAT CONGRESS ACCEPT THIS OFFER.
4. WE DEMAND THAT OUR FIGHTING MEN BE ALLOWED TO ACHIEVE A SWIFT AND COMPLETE MILITARY VICTORY AGAINST THE COMMUNIST FORCES IN VIET NAM.

I NEED THE HELP OF EVERY AMERICAN IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE THESE GOALS. LET US JOIN TOGETHER IN THIS NECESSARY TASK. AND WHEN WE HAVE SUCCEEDED, I AM SURE THAT EVERY FIGHTING MAN OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA WILL SAY: WELL DONE AND THANK YOU.

JOIN US NOW BY SENDING IN THE MEMBERSHIP BLANK TODAY. ALL CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE USED BY THE S.O.S. COMMITTEE TO RUN THIS AD IN MAJOR CITIES IN THE UNITED STATES. A PETITION TO THE CONGRESS WILL BE SENT TO YOU BY RETURN MAIL.
